Invalid Ladies This Is For You.

There are thousands of females who suffer untold miseries common to their sex. This is largely due to the peculiar habits of life and fashion, and the improper training of girlhood. Then, too, the physical changes that mark the three years of womanhood (the maiden, the wife, and the mother) have much to do with her suffering, most of which are endured in silence, unknown by even the family physician and most intimate friends.

To all such whose hollow cheeks, pale faces, sunken eyes and feeble footsteps, indicate nervousness, palpitation of the heart, weak faint and dizzy spells, we would earnestly recommend a course of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. Jos. Sharp, Brighton, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with palpitation of the heart, weak spells and nervous trouble, and found no relief until advised to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I got one box and that helped me so much I sent and got five more. I am now cured completely."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. per box or three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PROTEST OUT OF PLACE.

The government has authorized the distribution of seed grain to farmers in the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta who had no ground under crop last year and who consequently had nothing by the untoward conditions of the season. This is a departure from the original intention there does not seem to have been much occasion for it. It helps to create the impression that the government is finding it hard to get enough objects for its benevolence. Montreal Gazette.

STILL EXPOSING A DEAL.

The Toronto Telegram still continues its candid criticism of the local government, whose surrender to the Canadian Northern Railway company at the last hour of the last session of the legislature, has stirred up the people everywhere.

"The great need of the Hon. J. P. Whitney," says the Telegram, "is courageous friendship, not cowardly flattery in the press and legislature of Ontario. His next greatest need is deliverance out of the hands of a dominant group of weak, stupid and shallow colleagues. These evil counselors caused the Ontario government to suffer more at its own hands in one week than it suffered at the hands of the united liberal press and opposition in the previous three years."

By the way, the liberal press at present is giving the conservative party great offence. It is writing up the Whitney government, and it is doing so to some purpose. The Toronto News is surprised, it should not be. It said vicious things of the government when the Flavelle interest was affected in license administration. It scolded the government on the spoils system. It stormed when the Electric Development company's assets passed into the hands of Mr. Mackenzie. Ontario's chance of cheap power appeared to be gone. Now all is lovely, and in the daily epistles of the News the government is magnified and declared to be just about perfect.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. Whitney is apologizing for some of his rash legislation. Will the apology be accepted?

What the party tired of its Adonis, Mr. Donovan, after only one session of the legislature! Who would have thought it?

Stock gambling is declared by the New York state legislature to be an infamous and illegal thing, but gambling in the race track is all right. Nice distinction, isn't it?

"Ring rule" in the Brockville district promises to have stiff opposition within the conservative party. The representative of it is Mr. Donovan, who appeared to be so large in the last session of the legislature.

La Presse, on the Caron obituary, gives Mr. Foster an awful job for the conspiracy which wrecked the Bowell government. The incident, says our contemporary, "was stigmatized by a terrible word already engraved in history."

Mr. Roosevelt is after the senators with his big stick, metaphorically, of course. He is going to have the naval appropriations he wants or there will be no battleships built this year. The veto is his implement of terror.

There is more talk of what the government is going to do about the school books. Action is better than talk, however, and when the new books are issued, at a cheaper rate than the old, it will be time enough

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS

No Bonquets. Brantford Expositor. Justice Mabey, on assuming his post as chairman of the railway commission, declined the congratulations proffered by the bar. The new official starts well.

Meaning of Good Crop. Toronto Telegram. A good crop means a general election in Canada this year, and a whole lot of other blessings that are of more value to the nation than a dozen general elections.

Family Compacts. Collar's Weekly. In England, not long ago, they complained of being ruled by the Cecil family. This conspiracy of silence on almost as awfully in this particular British independence overseas.

Put On Them. Toronto Star. If any constitutional check is needed it is upon governments, their power of taxation, their power of expenditure, their power of subsidizing railways and other corporations, their power over public lands, timber, mines, and patronage.

Stock Gambling. Toronto News. The New York state assembly almost unanimously has adopted a measure making illegal all stock market transactions on margin. If the senate concurs Wall street will have its troubles in evading the law. But the act probably would prove unworkable.

Scarcity of Candidates. Montreal Herald. The conservatives of Stanstead are unable to pick candidates for either only men in the provincial seat. The constituency seem to be Messrs. Hackett and Moore—a dazzling exemplification of Mr. Borden's claim that the conservative party is the party of the young men.

Unworthy of Him. Ottawa Citizen. If a average Canadian reporter took a trip through England, India, Australia or South Africa, and could not dish up more original and interesting news to the family than Mr. Kipling has been doing, he would have to walk home. Even a Kipling reputation will not stand much more of that sort of thing.

No Protection There. Montreal Gazette. While new developments have indicated a falling away from the standard of municipal efficiency in Great Britain, the mother land has still one great advantage over this side of the Atlantic, and that is that when wrongdoing is detected it is not accepted as a matter of course, no attempt is made to screen the wrongdoers.

Another Triumph. Ottawa Free Press. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux has scored another notable triumph in the settlement of the difference between the laborers of Montreal and the shipping companies as to the terms upon which this season's work is to be done. When a dead-lock seemed imminent he took down to Montreal and persuaded the longshoremen to agree to a compromise which ensures industrial peace for the national harbor for the whole season. He is a minister who does things.

Money To Spend. Toronto News. The marked success of the Pennsylvania bond issue of $10,000,000 may perhaps be taken as indicating that other American corporations, which have been holding back for a year or two, may now succeed in floating their securities on the world's markets. Should the railways be able readily to raise funds they may be expected to begin to spend money on long delayed improvements. Any such resumption of activity by these corporations on a large scale would go a long way towards inducing an industrial revival all over this continent.

When Man Can See 3,000 Miles. Paris, April 28.—M. Armand, an engineer and scientist, who has for many years been experimenting with the telescope, or, in other words, with the human vision extraordinary distances, says he has so far perfected his apparatus that he can now foretell that the time is not far distant when a man sitting in Paris or London will be able to see what is going on in New York. His claims have made remarkable progress in his experiments during the last three months.

The apparatus is similar to that used for the telegraphic transmission of photographs. He utilizes the properties of selenium. His method was inspired by the development of the cinematograph.

Will Re-Insure Policies. Toronto, April 28.—An agreement has been made between the National Life Assurance company and E. R. C. Clark, liquidator of the Mutual Reserve Life, New York, and approved by the official referee and the insurance bureau, Ottawa, under which the National Life will reinsure the whole and limited payment policies of the Mutual Reserve, which were issued in Canada since 1908. In respect to all other policies the National Life agrees to give insurance to those members who can pass a satisfactory medical examination. The total amount of insurance, in force is $2,500,000 among 3,000 policyholders, scattered from Nova Scotia to British Columbia.

Woman's Health

Every woman may be attractive. Bright eyes, pink cheeks and red lips are her nature-given right. A sallow skin, lack of animation, low spirits and weak nerves may be avoided by the use of Beecham's Pills, a remedy that well deserves the confidence of every woman. Again and again they have proved to be invaluable at those recurring times when so many women feel debilitated and suffer from nervousness, headache and depression. It is wonderful the way these pills assist Nature and relieve the suffering.

Every woman who values health and good looks should become a user of

"OUR BOYS" AT GRAND.

Fine Production Given on Monday Night. "Our Boys," a comedy in three acts by H. J. Byron, given by the Royal Alexandra English players, under the direction of William Sauter, was the offering at the Grand last night, and one that greatly pleased a much larger audience. The company numbers eight, and each one gave a fine portrayal of their part. The comedy is good, and there is something doing every minute to keep up interest.

The story of "Our Boys," centres around Charles Middlewick and Talbot Champneys, the former the son of a retired butlerman, and the latter, a son of a county magnate. When the play opens, the young men have just returned from a trip abroad, and are about to enter business life for themselves. The fathers expect great things of them, but there comes trouble, and this is brought about when the young men make their choice for a wife. Both matches are strongly opposed by the parents, and the young men, after quite a scene, in which all parties concerned take part, leave their home to make their own choice. As time passes on, the parents regret of their cruel action, hunt up the boys, are forgiven, they marry the girl of their choice, and everything is straightened out satisfactorily. Ivan Simpson appeared as Sir Geoffrey Champneys, county magnate, and Ernest Stallard undertook the role of Percy Middlewick, the retired butlerman, and their work was exceptionally good. George M. Graham as Talbot Champneys, and William Sauter, as Charles Middlewick, showed marked ability. Miss Jane Marbury as Violet Melrose, and Catherine Eldridge as Mary Melrose, "the girls," portrayed their parts well. As Clarissa Champneys, Sir George's sister, Miss Ida Waterman was all that could be desired. Belinda, a lodging house slave, was an interesting character taken by Miss Howard.

ALD. NICKLE'S STAND.

He Vigorously Objects to Cutting Down Trees. Ald. Nickle reiterated his stand on the question of cutting down trees, at the city council meeting last evening, when the communication of Dr. Sparks, to have an offensive tree removed, was read. He held that the aldermen should have some say in the matter of tree slashing and cutting, with all deference to a certain section of the press (that's the Whig), which took the view that the people's interests should first be considered. Ald. Nickle declared that it would be a shame to cut down the tree on University avenue that Dr. Sparks asked to have removed.

Ald. McCartney said that he was doing the work of constructing a concrete walk to Dr. Sparks' house, and couldn't do a proper job as long as the tree remained. The tree had to come down if the walk to be laid was to be saved from ruin later on.

Quite a number of requests for removal of trees are coming in to the council, and are being referred to a special committee. The council will have to recognize the comfort of the taxpayers, before deciding to retain fine looking trunks with foliage that cause trouble.

Heading off a Risk

Gas is liable to puff out of the front door of any furnace unprovided for gas escape.

"Sunshine" Furnace has Automatic Gas Damper directly connected with smoke-pipe. Gas pressure sways damper sufficiently for it to escape up chimney (see illustration), but heat doesn't escape.

What does "Sunshine" Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" Furnace? Means protection to the furnace parts against evil effects of gas.

What does "Sunshine" Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" coal burner? Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" householder? Means furnace can be operated without fear as to "puffing" gas; furnace can be left without doubt as to whereabouts of gas.

What does "Sunshine" Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" coal burner? It means, instead of owner with "ordinary furnace" fear having to keep check-draft indefinitely closed to "let off" gas—when there's two-thirds parts of heat-energy to one part of gas passing up chimney—draft can with all safety be opened, and coal saved for another day's duty.
