Told in Twilight

The principal of Queen's and Mrs. Daniel Gordon added to their many successful hospitalities, on a Monday night, when they gave a reception for the graduates in the different faculties. Mr. Gordon and his wife received, and the two daughters of the house, Miss Katie and Miss Minnie, were about among the guests, enjoying their enjoyment. In the supper-room were present, John Watson, Mrs. Daniel Jordan, Mrs. J. C. Connell and Mrs. J. C. Guillem, whose husbands are heads of the various faculties. The supper table was decorated with red and white carnations, and Queen's lions. There was some music, Miss Marie King playing, Miss Mona Knight singing, and Dr. Boggs, of the hospital staff, playing and singing. There were about half a dozen girls from town asked to come and equalize the sexes.

After reluctantly saying good-bye to Miss Beatrice Mettill, who intended leaving for Toronto yesterday, her friends were overjoyed to find that her visit had been lengthened, and that she would go back till next Monday.

Miss Helen Campbell, Sydenham street, who stayed over for the night, last night, went back to Haverhill with her little friend, Miss Elaine Conynbure to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Klugh have left their house, on Wellington street, for the summer, and are going up next week to Gush for a visit on their way to the Georgian Bay region.

Mrs. Cornelius Bermingham gave a delightful luncheon on Monday, with the Toronto visitor, Miss Evelyn Kerr, as guest of honor. Covers were laid for twelve, the other guests being Mrs. William Bermingham, Mrs. J. J. Harty, Miss Bessie Smythe, Miss Mabel and Miss Dorothy Brownfield, Miss Beatrice Tandy, Miss Marion Redden, Miss Loreta Swift, Miss Marie Carruthers and Miss Phyllis Short. Duffin's decked the luncheon table.

As usual Mrs. Daniel Gordon's luncheon table lengthened itself to-day to accommodate nobilities in town for the convocation proceedings at Queen's. A cup of tea at the principal's residence, after the afternoon was over, was welcomed by the grave and reverend seniors and others of the learned, who appreciate refreshments of body quite as much as the lesser beings to whom they impart refreshment of soul.

Particular friends of the "cast" are being allowed to go to the rehearsals of "Alice in Wonderland," over which Miss Beatrice Tandy is waving the conductor's wand. The characters have been well allotted and Lewis Carroll's clever nonsense is going to have interpreters who have entered into its spirit.

Several favored ones went into the principal's on Sunday afternoon for a cup of tea, after the bacchanalistic sermon at Queen's. The magnetic charm of the author, who is a young man, in spite of his grey hair, is being spoken of by all who met him for the first time, or re-met him after the lapse of years.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. E. W. Doyle, University avenue, asked a few girls to tea to meet her charming little grandniece, Miss Alexander, of Ottawa.

There was an "Annandale" theatre party, on Monday night, with Miss Evelyn Kerr as its central attraction.

Miss Hatlie Young has been down from Pictou for a few days, visiting her brother, Mr. Archibald Young, Sydenham street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Mackenzie have taken rooms at 200 William street for some time.

Mrs. John Waddell will begin, on Friday, to establish herself and her family in their new home on Earl street.

Mrs. Henry Cases, of Macleod, N.W.T., is the guest of Mrs. Henry Hobbell, Bagot street.

Miss Arlette Elzier returned to Ottawa Ladies' College on Monday after her holiday with Mrs. James Elder, William street.

BIJOU

Did you ever see the mysterious capital of the Turks—Constantinople—the city of turbaned men, and beautiful women, whose faces are always veiled; the city of Circassian beauties, and Arabian slaves?

Perhaps you didn't, for it has always cost a lot of money to get there.

But you can see it now for 5 cents at The Bijou.

"MYSTERIOUS CITY OF THE TURKS"

(WITH MOVING VIEWS OF THE BOSPHORUS AND THE DARDANELLES.)

We also present a Moving Melodrama, which tells the story of a fine fellow, who acted as postman for rural delivery. He is lately accused of a crime, convicted and sent to prison, but is eventually exonerated. Don't fail to see this melodrama.

"POSTMAN HARRY FALSELY ACCUSED."

You should certainly hear John Robert Davis singing "The Bell of the Ball."

THE PARAGRAPH PULPIT

Unitarian.
REV. C. W. CASSON.

The Courage of Conviction.

The great need of to-day is that men shall have the courage of their convictions. In these modern days there comes a new and splendid conception of the larger truth. With the dawning light of human knowledge it may be perceived that much of what has passed for reality has been but a formless shadow in the night. These needs men to-day who shall voice bravely the new convictions that come to them in the brightening day.

Whatever new conviction comes to you, however revolutionary it may seem to you or other, courageously confess it. The world lacks truth less than it lacks men who shall not be afraid to speak it.

Address, Rev. C. W. Casson, at 25 Beacon street, Boston, Mass., for the literature.
