PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause in congestion, pain in blood pressure—nothing usually. At least, as says Dr. Shoop, and it can be cured by a little pink tablet. That tablet—Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—relieves blood pressure away from pain centers. It relieves tension, restores circulation, soothes, soothes, it surely equalizes the blood throughout the body.

NO DIFFERENCE IN PRICE

N.G. COAL O.K. COAL

The Difference is in the Quality

On where you will see your coal supply, the price is very much the same; the difference in results—heat, comfort, coal bills, etc.—is in a superior or inferior quality. The article of fuel to be used in your yards will necessarily withstand the severest tests.

Daily Whig.

COUNCIL IN A QUANDARY.
The council is advertising itself adversely with regard to its streets, and the manner in which they should be improved. The people were asked at the last election to vote upon a scheme, not defined, by which some attempt would be made to give them better streets. It occurred to many at the time that the electors would fail to see that anything important could be undertaken for the sum suggested, but the proposition was carried. Now the evidence is being supplied of the indecision that promises to make a failure of the business.

It may have been the scheme of the late chairman of streets, to lay a few blocks in the different wards with ordinary macadam (properly rounded and drained), so that the electors might duly appreciate their value. But it is certain that had this idea been propagated it would have met with disfavor, for in two places, at large expense, the macadam roadway had been made, and already, after a few months' wear, there are serious defects in it. Clearly, the macadam, procured and laid in Kingston, is not enduring enough for a city's streets, on which there is considerable traffic.

The $9,500, which is all that the city council has at its disposal, will not permit it to do much in the way of experiment. The business streets should be paved with the material that will wear the longest, and there is no sense in hiring expert talent to give advice to the aldermen if that talent is not heeded when it is consulted. Paving has been recommended. True it costs money, but it pays, and the money should be as available for this purpose as for elevator and railway and other bonuses which have served to load the city with a debt, the interest on which is absorbing so large a part of the annual revenue.

In another article the Whig will indicate how the city could finance this matter of paving the streets without encumbering the present generation with obligations it cannot carry out.

EXPERIMENTS A SUCCESS.

Mr. Ruddick, Canada's dairy commissioner, has effectively disposed of the complaint of the Montreal Gazette that money has been wasted in the cheese-curing establishments of Brockville, Woodstock, Cowansville, and St. Hyacinthe.

The Gazette made, or tried to make, two points: (1) that the government had bought a lot of cheese, in connection with its stations, and lost money upon them; (2) that the curing process was too expensive to be copied by the factories, and that, therefore, the whole outfit, or most of it, went for nothing.

Mr. Ruddick has made a recent rejoinder, and as the subject is one which interests many cheese men in this district (this being the location of the Eastern Ontario Dairy School) the letter is quoted in full:

Sir—In the issue of The Gazette of the 18th inst., you refer editorially to the cheese-curing illustration which was conducted by the department of agriculture, during the years 1902-1906.

As you and I view this matter from entirely different standpoints, I do not intend to argue the general question, but I would like to put you right on a question of fact. You show that the department purchased, during the five years that the curing rooms were in operation, cheese to the value of $47,514.94; that these cheese were sold for $47,385, showing a loss of $129. You are wrong, however, in stating that these cheese were cured in a cool-curing room; only a few of them were. The stock consisted of single cheese, or, in some cases, pairs, that were selected from each day's make from the different factories sending cheese to the curing rooms, and the bulk of them were cured at ordinary temperatures, for the purpose of testing the difference in shrinkage and for comparing with the other cheese that were cool-cured. They were kept throughout the season and were used for demonstrating the improvement to visitors, etc. When they were offered for sale they consisted of mixed lots, no two alike and some of them very badly off flavor, because of the high temperatures at which they were cured, and others damaged by repeated testing.

ARE AFTER MR. HANNA

HE SUGGESTED THE $2,500 FEE THAT WAS IMPOSED.

Collingwood Temperance League Issue Statement on Quashed By-Law—Premier is Included.

Collingwood, April 29.—The Citizens' Temperance League have sent out a signed statement reciting their position with reference to the recent by-law raising the license fee to $2,500, which was quashed by the high court. Provincial Secretary Hanna and Premier Whitney are scored for what is termed their insulting reflections on the deputations which urged government to make a test case.

They quote from Premier Whitney's letter where he encourages local prohibition by raising the license, remarking: "You know perfectly well that in any township municipality, if the license fee were raised to $1,000, there would be no license issued there."

They also cite Hanna's letter to Dr. Chow, where he says: "In reply to your letter of May 16th, you understood me correctly as saying that the government would resist any motion to quash a by-law that in a place like Collingwood, fixed the license fee at, say, $2,500."

The members of the council and school board who do not attend to committee or board meetings should not find fault because they do not know what is going on.

MARRIED IN PICTON

A Stirring Event in the Pretty Old Church.

Picton, April 29.—St. Mary Magdalene's church looked quaintly pretty today, when at high noon, it was the scene of one of the most fashionable weddings that has been celebrated in the historic old church.

SPRIT OF THE PRESS

Been Trying It. Kissing goes by favor, but it would require an acrobat when she wears a Merry Widow hat.

A Nice Distinction. Five years' imprisonment and a fine of $5,000 will be the penalty for keeping and operating a lunch-shop in New York state.

A Wise Conclusion. If conservative candidates cannot be elected for the legislature in Hamilton without the improper use of money they might better be defeated.

To Go To London. Montreal, April 29.—J. C. Walsh, editor of the Montreal Herald, it is reported, has been appointed commissioner of the province of Quebec in London, Eng., with a salary of $6,000 a year and an allowance of $5,000 a year for spending money.

"The Vestal." Will be presented at Wonderland theatre Wednesday and Thursday. Every reader of history will be delighted with the scene, which is laid in ancient Rome. Love and war and religious vows, returning victors, the rumble of Roman chariots, the missing hero, the despondent virgin, the punishment and the miracle that saves one life and makes two happy, are interwoven into a picture story that is extremely interesting.

Primrose Minstrels. George Primrose and his mammoth minstrel organization will be seen at the Grand on Tuesday, May 5th. The big company contains many well-known comedians, singers and dancers and is specially better than ever before.

Were Wedded On Monday. A very pretty, but quiet wedding was celebrated, Monday afternoon, at two o'clock, by Canon Cooke at Fortmouth. The contracting parties were Miss Isabella Ryder and Charles Quick. They were to have been married at St. Luke's church, but on account of the bride's mother raising objection to the wedding, the couple drove to Fortmouth. The bride wore a handsome white silk dress, trimmed with cream lace and blue ribbon. The bridesmaid, Miss Annie Ross, was attired in a gown of pink muslin. The bride and bridesmaid carried handsome bouquets of pink and red roses. The groomsmen were the groom's brother, W. H. Quick, of Elginburgh. After the ceremony the bridal party took a carriage for Elginburgh where a number of the bride's and groom's friends were waiting to receive them. Here a sumptuous repast was served.

For some time, so it appears, small change has been missed from the till in George Crawford's grocery store, on Princess street, and last night, so it is claimed, the accused was caught in the act of stealing from the till. The amounts taken have been small. The boy, so it is alleged, would enter the store after six o'clock, when the clerk had all departed, and when Mr. Crawford was in the office, at the rear of the store.
