There was a strong enspicion that the members of the family were first murdered and then the louse set on fire to cover up the crime. That is now believed to be a robability, as a report received from the west gives eredence to the story, in that it says a relative has died out there, and before dying confessed to the brutal murder. Mr. Krueger was Expenditures by William Hutchison, Joon ficenses the finances of the city lluded to cannot be ascertained,
