Told in Twilight

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. R. W. H. McLean, Brock street, gave a pleasant little tea in honor of the seventy-eighth anniversary of the birthday of her mother, Mrs. M. Vanliven. Mrs. Vanliven made a neat little speech in answer to all the good wishes extended to her. She is bright and strong, and gives promise of reaching the century mark.

Rehearsals of various kinds, for the society maids, and the superintendence of house-cleaning, for social leaders among the matrons, have called a halt to pretty much all gaiety. Even the little tea, has been shooed aside as wanting too much of a social time, and the evening bridge has appeared too weary to close a strenuous day.

Miss Jessie Ellis' marriage to Mr. Lindsay Malcolm will take place at the bride's home, Black street, on the evening of May 14th, and will be followed by a reception and dance.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Campbell, of Baltimore, Maryland, announce the marriage of their daughter, Frances, to Mr. Timothy John Rigney, on Wednesday, April 29th.

Mrs. W. C. Baker, Clergy street, gave a little thimble tea, yesterday afternoon, for Miss Jessie Ellis and some of her girl friends.

Mrs. James Macdonald of Ottawa, presided at the tea table at Mrs. Daniel Gordon's after convocation, at Queen's, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Edward Ryan, "Rockwood House," will not receive on Tuesday, May 5th, but will be at home on the Tuesdays following.

Miss Vera Carson, after her holiday with Mrs. Robert Carter, Brock street, has gone back to school at Toronto.

Miss Judge Dawson and Miss Marguerite Elkins, both in town for the holidays, have gone back to Toronto school.

Mrs. W. J. B. White, University avenue, is home from her visit in Detroit and Toronto. Mr. Anthony Malone will probably be down from Toronto, next week, to visit Mrs. White.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Puhlow and Miss Maud Puhlow, Clergy street, returned on Wednesday, from Picton, accompanied by, or accompanying, the bride and groom, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Puhlow. The happy couple stayed in Kingston over night, leaving on Thursday, by the Cape boat, for Ithaca, N.Y. After taking a glimpse to see that all was well in his department, the groom left with his bride for a further wedding trip. They will probably be back this evening when summer holidays come.

Word has been received from Mrs. George Richardson and her daughters, who had a very pleasant passage, and found delightful weather in Italy.

Miss Mona Knight, Miss Katie Craig and Mr. Arthur Craig went up to Trenton on Thursday for a short visit. Miss Craig will remain in Trenton till Monday.

Miss Olive Burns has gone back to Bishop Strachan school after visiting friends in town.

Mr. Robert Partridge has returned to Toronto.

Mrs. C. T. A. Dickson is in her new house, on Barrie street, and will be all ready for visitors by the time her married daughter from the west arrives.

Mr. E. F. K. Tothill, of the Bank of Montreal, Montreal, is coming up to-night, to pay his mother, Mrs. R. H. Tothill, Earl street, a visit.

Mrs. Ailaine Short will not come over from New York, till the first of June, and Mrs. Robert Laird will remain at "Otterburn" through the month of May.

Mrs. H. Bates is getting along splendidly at the General Hospital, and there are good hopes of a very quick recovery.

Miss J. McArthur, Union street, has chosen a summer on the boundless prairie rather than a summer in England and other parts of "home," where her father is at present, and will go out west shortly.

Miss Anne Rigney and Mr. James Rigney, Johnson street, who have been for a little trip to Washington, on their way from their brother's wedding, were expected home to-day.

Mrs. S. O. Taylor came down from Port Hope, to-day, to spend a few days with her niece, Mrs. Henry Wade, Johnson street. She will be a guest at the wedding of her cousin, Mr. Lindsay Malcolm, next Monday.

Mr. E. Sills and Miss Rita Sills have returned to Belleville, from their stay in Cuba, and have opened up their house, Mrs. Sills and Miss Muriel, who have spent the winter in St. Catharines, will be home shortly. Mrs. Galbraith, after visiting Mrs. Henry Wade here, has gone to Belleville to visit Miss Sills.

Mrs. Francis Phillips has returned to Toronto.

Captain George Osborne is in town from Toronto.

Mrs. W. C. Reiber will not be receiving at Rockwood Hospital on Tuesday.

Mr. Cyril Knight has returned to Toronto.

Mrs. George Ellis went down to Cornwall, yesterday.

Judge and Mrs. Maclellan left, yesterday, for Ottawa.

Miss Margaret Campbell, Colborne street, who has been visiting in Toronto, and North Bay, came home, on Friday.

Mrs. Walter Fleming, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. Strange, William street, will return to Ottawa on Monday (Continued on page 7.)

Are You Interested in the Finest Clothes Your Money Will Buy?

Do you know you can find them here, ready to wear in a variety of fabrics and models such as no other store can show? A man purchased a suit from us Saturday, a suit at $30. After paying for it he said, "That suit is worth $25 in comparison with other $30 suits I have seen elsewhere. This is no ghost story. It's a fact."

Where one man expresses himself in this way there are hundreds who don't, but they are coming here for their clothes just the same. It's the values that count. Try us for your next suit. $10 to $22.
