HARRY WRIGHT MISSING

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF ENGLISHMAN.

Left His Boarding House on Monday at Noon, and Cannot Be Located—Police Notified of the Case.

Where is "Harry" Wright, an Englishman, twenty-two years of age, a recent arrival from the old country? This is a question that is causing his friends a great deal of anxiety...

A Whig representative called at the Revere hotel, this morning, and learned that Wright had been missing since Monday at noon.

Another Englishman, who boards at the hotel, and who is employed at the gas works, was a chum of Wright's, having come out from the old country with him.

Located At Wolfe Island. At 3:15 o'clock a report was received from Wolfe Island to the effect that "Harry" Wright had been located at Wolfe Island, where he had secured employment.

A SUCCESSFUL TEA. By Cataract Chapter of Daughters of Empire.

Worth braving all the wild weather for was the tea given by Cataract chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, at Mrs. Coradus Bermingham's on Thursday.

The big library, with its oak and its leather for a background, was the mart where selling of various kinds went on.

In the southward window was placed a table of cigars and cigarettes, the generous gift of Mr. Bermingham.

In the dining-room, there was tea and coffee, Mrs. Ivan Martin and Mrs. E. W. Garrett being at the tea table.

There was some delightful music during the tea hour, Miss Hazel MacLennan, Lieut. Col. Taylor, and Lieut. Col. Strang, singing, and Mr. Harvey playing.

The balance of spring hats are going to-morrow, at Jenkins'.
