

Our Spring Waists

Are Pretty, Becoming And Bewitching.

More of daintiness, stylishness, prettiness and low pricedness was never embodied in Waists. So many charming styles—so many fabrics are represented—so much of perplexing variety—so much of beauty and value. It would be difficult to choose from them if it were not that your choice will be right no matter what you choose.

Every Waist we show is of perfect style—that will be apparent on sight, but the number of styles we are showing is surprising. We secured the market for Waists—viewed them all and selected only the best. Our assemblage is the cream of the season's Waist styles. And in our quest for beauty, style and variety we never overlooked the important matter of price. We have attended to that too—you will avow that you never saw such Waist values.

Told in Twilight

The marriage of Miss Essie Redmond, the elder daughter of John Redmond, 22nd St., to Dr. Power, of New York, of a former Kingstonian, is arousing great interest in Irish, and indeed, English circles, for the Redmonds have many English friends. Dr. Power's fiancée is a really beautiful girl, typically Irish in appearance. Dark-eyed, dark-haired, with the coloring that you never find out of Ireland, Miss Redmond attracts attention wherever she goes. Mr. Redmond's second daughter, Miss "Joey" Redmond, although barely twenty, is a dramatic and several of her Irish plays have already been performed.

Mrs. W. St. Pierre Hughes, King street, has asked a few of Mrs. Arthur Matheson's old friends to tea on Friday, for a chat with this Ottawa matron, whom everyone is so anxious to see in Kingston again. There have been several impromptu little teas given for her.

Mrs. Caddy, of Ottawa, was the hostess of a very enjoyable tea for young people on Wednesday, her guest of honor being Miss Jessie Smith, of Kingston, who, with her mother, Mrs. Burton Smith, has been spending the winter with Mrs. Caddy.

Mr. and Mrs. William Keeler, of Sunbury, announce the engagement of their only daughter, Mabelia Rosamond, to Mr. Ernest Stafford Huton, of Pittsburg township. The marriage will take place on June 17th.

Miss Marion Redden, William street, went up to Toronto, yesterday, for a week's visit.

Miss Nan Skinner came home on Saturday, after all, and is at "Maitland House." She is looking well after her trip of several months' duration. Her friends are very pleased indeed to have her back again among them.

Miss Florence Cunningham, Earl street, went over to Syracuse, yesterday, to visit Mrs. E. H. Murvin.

Major and Mrs. Lafferty, of the R. M.C., went up to-day, to Toronto, for the four days of the military tournament.

Mrs. Robert O'Hara returned from Toronto, to-day, and is again at "The Avondale."

Miss Blanche Deaton, William street, went to Montreal, to-day.

Mrs. Herbert Horsey is home from the Orient, and is again at "Hazel-dell," with Canon and Mrs. Cooke.

Major and Mrs. H. E. Burstall, Barrie street, left, for Toronto, on Monday.

Miss Portia Mackenzie is coming up from St. John, N.B., the beginning of June, and will spend the whole of that month with Mrs. Iva Martin, at "Underwood."

Mrs. E. Dawson, Brock street, is going up to Toronto for the tournament.

Mr. Walter Henry, of Lachine, spent the week-end with Mrs. Henry and his nieces, the Misses Rogers, Gore street.

Mrs. J. B. Walker, Beverley street, left, on Monday, for Brockville, to pay Rev. Ogilvie Dolbs and Mrs. Dolbs a fortnight's visit.

Miss Helen Kirkpatrick, of Toronto, is visiting her aunt, Miss Macaulay, King street.

Mr. Iva Martin came home from Pieter, to-day, and Mr. Bernard Heppburn, of "Rickarton," came down with him, and will spend a few days with Mrs. Martin, at "Underwood."

NEW SCIENTIFIC PROCESS.

A Preparation Discovered That Will Destroy the Dandruff Germ. For some time it has been known that dandruff is caused by a germ that digs up the scalp into little white flakes, and by sapping the vitality of the hair at the root, causes falling hair, and of course, finally baldness. For years there have been all kinds of hair stimulants and scalp tonics on the market, but there has been no permanent cure for dandruff until the discovery of a preparation called Newbro's Herpsicide, which destroys the dandruff germ. Destroy the germ, the effect will cease to exist, cause the dandruff germ and you'll kill the dandruff, no itching scalp, no falling hair. Sold by leading drug stores. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpsicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Sold in two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. W. Mahood, special agent.

NEWS OF DISTRICT.

The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario. The Holton Lumber company, Belleville, has been incorporated with a capital of $10,000. A Clifford Steacy, Elizabethtown, and Mrs. Ethel Smith, Elgin, were married on Monday. At Brockville the St. Lawrence is overflowing docks and boat houses hitherto unknown to be inundated. Robert Froyell, charged with the theft of a sum of money from William Sparrow, Huntington, was acquitted on Monday. Robert Brown, Keswick, has two white Leghorn hens which laid 431 eggs in the thirty days of the month of April. William Neilson, veteran resident of Elizabethtown was engaged in driving a nail into a piece of hardwood, when it suddenly rebounded from under the hammer and striking Mr. Neilson in the eye, inflicted an injury that will destroy the sight of the optic.

THE PARAGRAPH PULPIT

Unitarian. REV. C. W. CASSON.

Dare to Doubt. Dare to doubt! Refuse to accept any statement as truth until you have given it thorough test by your own thought. Test it, analyze it, question it, doubt it. It is your right as a rational being. Insist upon your rights in this, as in all else. If it fails to stand the test, reject it. It cannot be truth to you. It has no claim on you. You have no claim to it. Whatever you survive the doubt and the questioning and the test becomes truth to you by virtue of that fact. The acid bath of doubt destroys only the brass of falsehood. It can but prove the reality of the gold of truth. Dare to doubt!

Address, Rev. C. W. Casson, at 25 Beaton street, Boston, Mass., for the literature.

At St. Paul's church rectory, Brockville, on Monday, Miss Eliza Shaw, of the Township of Yonge, and John Hamblen of the Township of Lanark, were married.
