RESOLUTION ADOPTED.

At a Meeting of Protest in Gananoque. Moved by F. J. Skinner, seconded by Hugh Wilson, "That the citizens and ratepayers of the town of Gananoque, do hereby record their protest against the action of the license commissioners of the district of Leeds in their recent action in declining to grant the two shop licenses for so many years granted to licensees in the town of Gananoque. That in the opinion of this meeting there were no proper grounds justifying such action. That no complaint or request had been made by any substantial representations asking for the same. That situated as we are as a summer town with large numbers of campers and tourists, as well as for the convenience of residents in this district, it is desirable that such licenses be granted. That we believe that the vast majority of the ratepayers of our town desire that such licenses be granted. That the course of the license commissioners in this matter meets with our strong disapproval. That a copy of the resolution I went to J. R. Dargavel and to Hon. W. J. Hanna, carried unanimously.

WOMAN WOUNDED IN FIGHT AT CONEY ISLAND.

A Singer in One of the Music Halls There—Went to New York to Study Opera—Louis Fogel, Jealous of Her, Killed Her Two Companions. New York, May 15.—The crowd in South Brooklyn hotel at Oceanic Walk and the Bowery, followed by the screams of a woman about 8:30 o'clock, last night, and an instant later two men staggered into the bar-room bleeding from bullet wounds in the head and toppled over dead.

In the hospital the woman regained consciousness and said she was Carroll Terry, a singer in the Imperial music hall at the Bowery and Thompson's Walk. She said she did not know the men who had been killed, but had accepted their invitation to have a drink and a ter to have dinner in the restaurant.

"It was Louis Fogel who shot me," the police say the woman said, "and it was he who killed my companions. He was jealous of me. I met him three years ago, after I had come to New York from a home in St. Catharines, Ont., to study for the opera, and had finally drifted to the Bowery for lack of funds. We lived together since then until recently, when I went away to Western New York to study for a week and got a place in a music hall. Fogel found me there, but I would not have anything to do with him, and he got angry."

No Knowledge Of Her. St. Catharines, Ont., May 15.—The dispatch from New York caused quite a stir in St. Catharines. The girl, Carroll Terry, is unknown to the oldest residents of the city, and the police authorities have no knowledge of such a person. It may be that the girl was travelling under an assumed name, but it seems rather strange that she would not get into communication with her friends here. Up to noon, to-day, no word has been received from New York.

THE OROQUET CLUB.

An Enthusiastic Meeting Held on Thursday. There was a largely attended and most enthusiastic meeting of the Croquet Club, at Mrs. Walter Macneil's on Thursday afternoon. In the absence of Mrs. Macneil, Mrs. Brownfield was put in the chair, and the business proceeded. Mrs. Montague Strange, the originator of the club, was unanimously elected to continue as its manager. This office is a combination of the presidency, the secretary's office and the treasurer's office, and the club feels that Mrs. Strange is the best one to fill the position.

Mrs. E. T. Taylor was elected an honorary member, by acclamation, and the following ladies were voted in to the seven vacancies: Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming, Mrs. Douglas Young, Mrs. D. Phelan, Mrs. Edward Torrance, Mrs. Percy Stevenson, Mrs. Jeremy Taylor and Mrs. H. E. Bustall. The club will thus be at its full membership of forty. Mrs. Noel Kent and Mrs. Richard Hooper retired from the executive committee, and this committee will now be made up of Mrs. Walter Macneil, Mrs. Campbell Strange, Mrs. D. Stewart Robertson, and Mrs. W. St. Pierre Hughes.

Mrs. Hooper made a suggestion which met with instant and unqualified approval. This was to establish a "party day" on the Tuesdays in June being selected. On this day the members will be at the disposal of two lawn-tennis courts to be drawn by lot, and they may invite whomsoever they will to play, the other club members being allowed to look on. If the idea proves as successful as it is expected to be, the affairs will continue throughout the summer, and will replace the tourna-ments. The first "party" will be on Tuesday, June 2nd, and Mrs. James Higgins and Miss Mowat have been drawn as hostesses.

MOST SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

Something of Finances of Brock Street Church. In connection with the annual report of Brock Street Methodist church, reference to which has already been made, it might be stated that the year was a most prosperous one, financially. The following is a summary of the different amounts raised by the church: Missions, $94; superannuation fund, $73; educational fund, $10; general conference, $12; union church relief, $5; Sunday School Aid, $2; contingent fund, $2; temperance fund, $2; Epworth League, $2; sustentation fund, $3; removal expenses, $40; Sunday school, $120; Young People's League, $40; Ladies' Aid, $336; ministers' salary, $1,000; all other purposes, $1,571; total, $3,312.

This sum amounts to about $30 from each family attending the church, or $12 from each member. In addition to paying all the debt, the church has a surplus to devote to the mortgage debt.

BONUS TO STREET RAILWAY.

The City is Paying the Company the Sum of $744.78. Last year the street railway company paid $4,468.65 to the city for power for its cars. As it is paying about fourteen per cent. less than it costs the city to manufacture the power, the cost to the city was $5,213.15. Hence the people of Kingston are loaning the street railway to the extent of $744.78, for power alone.

For A Spring Tonic. Try Carling's ale. J. S. Henderson, Brock street.

OFFICERS WERE ELECTED

At Methodist District Meeting on Friday Morning. The Methodist district meeting opened in Brock street church on Friday morning, with Rev. N. H. Sparling in the chair. In addition to the ministers already mentioned, the following laymen are in attendance:

Dr. A. P. Chown, Robert Meek, T. R. Carnovsky, E. J. Armstrong, city; D. J. Baker, Portsmouth; S. K. Tubman, St. John's; Thomas Sproule, West-Brook; S. Armstrong, Wolfe Island; B. Gordon, Glenvale; G. Leatherland, Latimer; J. Moorhouse, Batterspa; George Emery, Gananoque; Robert Dunagan, Gananoque; A. B. Cowan, Killbuck; John Davis, Pittsburgh; M. Truesdale, Hartington; E. M. Lawson, Sydenham; George E. Sly, Sealey's Bay; James M. Smith, Parham; Levi Storms, Verona; George Ennis, Perth Road.

The following officers were elected: Rev. R. Calvert, journal secretary; Rev. Thomas Meredith, statistical secretary; Rev. J. Piel and J. Moorhouse, auditors.

The following young men were recommended for college: John A. Waddell, George W. McIntosh, Frederick W. Bates, B.A., Jas. M. Shaver, B.A. Gordon Churchill and George W. Dustin were received as candidates for the ministry. Alexander F. Fokes, B.A., and F. W. Dauby, were advanced a stage in their probation.

The greater part of the morning was given over to the consideration of the various funds of the church. At the afternoon's session, the following delegates were appointed to attend the conference, on recommendation of the laymen's committee, which F. M. Lawson was chairman. The conference opens in Quebec the last week in May.

Sydenham street church—T. F. Harrison, A. Shaw and Dr. A. P. Chown; Queen street church, Capt. Crawford, W. J. Crothers and Robert Meek; Brock street church, W. H. Godwin, Dr. Nash and T. R. Carnovsky; Princess street church, R. G. Armstrong and W. D. Graves; Portsmouth, W. J. Baker; Wolfe Island, J. S. Armstrong; Gananoque, Thomas Sproule; Elginburg, Byron Gordon; Inverary, George Leatherland; Gananoque, G. Emery; Gananoque East, James Lloyd; Pittsburgh, A. B. Cowan; Killbuck, John Davis; Harrowsmith, James Walker; Sydenham, F. M. Lawson; Sealey's Bay, George Sly; Verona, Levi Storms; Perth Road, George Ennis; Parham, John Hamilton. Beavers—Elmer Davis, Joseph Lawson, George Peck, G. A. Bateman, A. F. Chown.

DEATH OF A CADET.

George Jackson Died in Montreal Friday Morning. Cadet George Jackson died Friday morning in the hospital at Montreal. He had been ill for some time, and for the past few weeks those attending him knew that the end was drawing near. The deceased had not completed his course at the R.M.C. when he was forced to leave owing to ill-health. About nine months ago, in a swimming pool, Mr. Jackson injured his back, and was confined to the hospital for some time. He did not fully recover from his injury, and later had to undergo an operation. He recovered sufficiently to return to college, but only for a short time, when his health broke down and he was taken to Montreal about three months ago and was in the hospital ever since that time.

The deceased, who was twenty years old, was the only son of the late George Jackson, who died in North Bay about eight years ago. Upon his father's death his mother moved to this city, where she has resided ever since. Cadet Jackson went through the Collegiate Institute here before entering the college. The news of his death was received at the college with sorrow by all the cadets, as he was a prime favorite with them all. Students and professors alike feel his loss keenly. The sincerest sympathy of a host of friends is extended to Mrs. Jackson in the sad loss of her only child. The remains will be brought here and then taken to Amherst Island for burial.

AT THE BIJOU.

A Melodrama of Europe and South Africa. The attraction at the Bijou to-day and to-morrow is a drama "The Baron and the Actress." The drama tells of the adventures of an excellent English girl who is obliged to support her father by singing in a German music hall. The scene changes from Berlin to south west Africa and includes a battle with bushangers. John Robert Davis sings, "I Couldn't Make a Hit With Molly."

Men For The Ministry.

The great need of the Presbyterian church for men for the ministry was dwelt upon by Rev. Dr. D. MacFayish at the meeting of the synod of Toronto and Kingston. "How is the church going to live?" he said, "when from all the theological colleges in Canada less than forty men will be graduated this year, and we need nearly fifty to maintain the present ranks of the ministers and officers of the church, not to speak of the much-needed extension of home and foreign mission work? The church is not preparing for the future. We are putting men and splendid equipment into our theological colleges, but we are not putting in students."
