

FOR FLOOR AND WINDOW

We want to talk to every woman who is a PARTICULAR house-keeper.

Got the best of news for her—about crisp, filmy curtains, that will make her windows beautiful—and about soft, rich rugs, to make her floors attractive.

We've just unpacked a fascinating assortment of lacy draperies, and of sheer curtains that are sold by the yard, the most enjoyable selection we've ever shown.

"Enjoyable," because much of daintiness may be yours for very small sums. Whether you wish superb draperies for your parlor, or simple sash curtains for your kitchen, you'll find them here for slight expenditure.

AND THE RUGS!

Every size and style is here—little rugs for odd corners—or to cover a worn spot—and large ones, to cover an entire floor.

Quiet, in soft blended shades, or as brilliant in design and coloring as you wish.

THE PARAGRAPH PULPIT

Unitarian. REV. C. W. CASSON.

Face The Light. Face the light! Dare to look the truth in the face. Front toward the light, or otherwise you will only walk in your own shadow. Do not hesitate to investigate anything and everything new. If others prefer the shade and the light reflected, do not be swayed by them from your nobler purpose. Welcome light from any source and always greet the brightest ray most gladly. Remember, that the light comes not from the past, but rather from the future. The Bible is a beacon, but God's truth is a sun, rising above each modern day. Front the future!

Address, Rev. C. W. Casson, at 25 Beacon street, Boston, Mass., for the literature.
