OUTLOOK MOST PROMISING.

It is admitted that the Whitney government made some mistakes—it is even confessed that the events of "that last awful week" are worthy of condemnation—but it is not conceded that the people have wholly lost confidence in the administration.

Well, there is no doubt that the prestige of the party has suffered extremely. There is no question that the feeling is running as keenly against the government to-day as against the late government three years ago, and after a reign of thirty-three years. There is, therefore, no telling what may happen. The fear of the party in power is shown by the plea that "it should have another chance."

The liberal candidate in this city has certainly had the advantage of some remarkable change of public sentiment. The administration is either not as popular as it was, or its candidature in this election has failed to secure the confidence of the people as he was expected to do.

In any case the liberal candidate is the gainer. In no election in which he has participated has the feeling of the electors been more cordial and sincere, and the outlook for his success was never more promising.

Mr. Donovan, of Brockville, asked to accept the Kingston anti-bribery agreement in the coming election, says he has learned that the agreement did not work out satisfactorily. No! Well it was the proposal of W. F. Nickle and D. M. McIntyre and the only dissatisfaction we hear of it is that the bye-election did not give the seat to the tory candidate. The agreement in that respect proved a boomerang.

HON. DR. PYNE'S PROFANITY.

Only one paper—and that, singularly enough, the one which announced its devotion to the higher principles of journalism, and to the exhibition when necessary of genuine independence—has undertaken to justify the profanity of Hon. Dr. Pyne. The Whig has repeatedly pointed out that this man is entirely unfitted for the office which he occupies. He has not the virtues which one would expect to find in the minister of education; not the graces of a man of refinement, nor the speech of one who is intellectual in his attainments. He has been, and is still, simply a ward-heeler, glorying in the talk of a party boss, and boasting that he will see that not the smell of local patronage goes to the grille, and if they do not like his style, they can go to the devil!

The ministers of education in Ontario in the past have been richly endowed, mentally, and they have not been able, like Dr. Pyne, to refer to his satanic majesty with theunction that comes from long acquaintance. Truth to tell no one who values refinement will find excuse for the indignities to which Hon. Dr. Pyne has lent himself. Mr. Whitney is sometimes brusque and forceful in speech, but he is not standing out as an exemplar, and not degrading his thoughts to be embodied in the school books of the day.

The minister of education is, or ought to be, a pattern unto others, and one fails to see why he should, on any account, become involved in license and patronage scandals, and descend to language at once coarse and vulgar. His office demands the deportment, dignity, and bearing which he unfortunately does not possess.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The conservative party in Toronto is in a state of eruption. The Gamey scandal is breaking out again in West Toronto.

Conservative cabals and conspiracies are becoming common at Ottawa and Toronto. What is the matter with the party anyway?

The dictator in the council and its finance committee is hearing about things that do not look so well when submitted to a public examination.

It looks as if the federal conservatives are doing their best to drive Col. Sam Hughes out of the party. He is not a machine politician, and for no others is there any room in the party fold.

Fancy Col. Hughes' bribed with the office of president of the Dominion Rifle Association, as Sir Frederick Borden's nominee. Only a conservative member of parliament, Mr. Fowler, can see the infamy of it.

Another attempt is being made, by federal legislation, to limit the consumption of cigarettes by the small boys and girls. The law applies to "both sexes," so that it is assumed the boys are not the only erring ones.

The conservative candidate is realising that he is not so far from criticism as he supposed he was. By the time this campaign is over his words and works will be pretty accurately appraised.

A Methodist district meeting in St. Catharines has declared that "license inspectors of Ontario are not any better than wooden Indians." The point of the comparison is not very apparent.

Mr. Borden's speech on the Ross rifle was very brief and very mild. He was one of the eighteen who voted for the resolution of censure, an evidence in itself that the party is pretty well ashamed of the alleged scandal.

It may be just as well not to say anything more about the hole in the county case until after the nomination day. Dr. Spankie is not saying much, but he has a case that will stand examination.

The idea that no one but the editor can ask a question, or point a query, in the newspaper is a very ancient one. Some of the brightest and most original things in the metropolitan press appear in the news and local columns.

Campbell, the poet, is not apparently a practical politician. And yet, as a departmental clerk, he must see and hear a great deal that are educational in their effects. He has been criticized for his speech in Kingston, but he will survive it. Poets must be forgiven for saying uncommon things.

The Whig has been accused of doing Hon. Mr. Hendrie, of Hamilton, a wrong in crediting to him the sentiment that if the Ambitious City wants favours from Mr. Whitney it should support his nominees. The words seem to have been used by another, but the Times says Mr. Hendrie was present and offered no objection. The Whig gladly makes the correction.

The British House of Commons declined to permit the introduction of a bill to provide for flag-flying on Empire day. In England they think most of the loyalty that grows without law-book help.

FIREWORKS IN CHURCH.

The People in St. Mary's Scared on Sunday Evening.

As vesper in St. Mary's cathedral were completed on Sunday evening, and as the congregation was preparing to leave, some one threw some ground fireworks on the floor of the choir gallery. The fireworks exploded and caused a terrific noise in the cathedral. The people, especially women and children, were badly frightened, and Rev. Father Hanley had to come down from the altar to restore confidence. The perpetrator of the sacrilegious act is unknown, nor can anyone say just where the fireworks came from. The people may have been left on the floor for people to walk over.

Honor To A Kingstonian.

The executive of the Grand Encampment of Ontario, I.O.O.F., met in Toronto on Friday, May 22nd. Among other duties performed was the filling of the vacancy occasioned by the death of W. Bushel, of Windsor, the late senior warden.

The junior warden, Bro. Morry of Ingersoll, was advanced to the office of senior warden, having resigned that to which he was elected at the last meeting of the Grand Encampment, and to the office of junior warden, R. Meek, Kingston, was called unannouncedly.

The honor coming unsought by Kingston's representative is the more appreciated. It will lead eventually to higher honors, a seat in the sovereign grand lodge.

To Hold Matinees.

The Kingston Gentlemen's Driving Club will hold matinees on July 1st and August 1st. The club conducted a fine racing programme yesterday and are very proud of the results. Dr. Waugh is president of the association, and Charles McKay is secretary.

The death occurred of Mrs. Susanna Cress Fisher, mother of Hon. Sydney Fisher. Mrs. Fisher was born in Montreal in 1822, and married in 1843. Her husband, now in his ninety-third year, and two sons survive.

TOWN OF GANANOQUE

C. W. MARTIN FELL AND BROKE HIS LEG.

B. Timberlake Had His Thumb Nearly Severed—W. J. Wilson, Liberal Candidate, is Candidate of Winning.

Gananoque, May 26.—C. W. Martin, South street, met with a severe accident, the latter part of the week. While going over a ledge of rocks down to his boat-house, just east of the town, he fell and broke his leg.

B. Timberlake, son of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. William Timberlake, had his hand badly gashed by a large glass dish falling on it. The thumb was almost severed. No serious results are anticipated.

Contractor Wilson has his forces at work on Brock street and is pushing the water works extensions along. Work on the granolithic walks will be started shortly.

The coal schooner Jessie arrived on Saturday morning with a cargo for Taylor & Green, and cleared for Oswego, Monday evening.

The Gananoque High School baseball team went over to Clayton on Saturday afternoon to try conclusions with the team representing that village. A good game the Gananoques trimmed their opponents eighteen to two. The West Ward team, of Gananoque, from the St. Lawrence League, trimmed the Clayton team nine to five. At end of eighth, Clayton refused to finish the game.

A. A. Welsh, proprietor and owner of the Gananoque Inn, accompanied by R. Rough, have arrived from Montreal and settled down to work making ready for the opening of the Inn at an early date.

W. J. Wilson, the liberal candidate for South Leeds in the local legislature, returned on Saturday from a trip through the rear of the riding, and is quite enthusiastic over the prospects in the rear. Organization work is rapidly developing in the rural sections and he feels confident that the liberals have the opportunity of their lives to send a man to Toronto as representative. He has appointed Dr. Ferguson J. O'Connor as his financial agent for the campaign. The local liberals have rallied to the work and secured the rooms of the drug store, for use by their committee, and have settled down to earnest hard work, and if victory does not rest on the banners of the good old liberal party, it will not be on account of lack of energy and downright hard work.

Miss Anderson, of Toronto, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Reid, King street, during the past week. Jabez Coombs, First street, spent a short time during the past few days in Kingston. Miss Janet Crouch, teacher of the Ives local public school, is spending the holiday here with her mother, Mrs. William Crouch, Princess street. Karl Green, who has spent several months in Toronto in attendance at business college, is holidaying here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Green, St. George street.

Mrs. B. O. Britton, King street, who has been spending the past two weeks with relatives in Toronto, has returned home.

Miss Annie Shaneman, Tanner street, who has been spending the past few months at Russell, Man., the guest of her brother, Russell Shaneman, manager of the Merchants Bank there, has returned to town. William S. Yule, for a number of years a prominent business man of this town and for the past few years located at Owen Sound, is spending a short time in town the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Yule, King street. The Misses Kenney, of Jones' Falls, spent the past week in town, the guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John McArdle, First street.

City League Games.

Two city league games were pulled off in the cricket field on Saturday afternoon, one junior and one senior game. In the senior series the Irishmen defeated the R.C.H.A., thirteen runs to seven. This gives the Irish men two wins this season. The game was a good exhibition and was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators. In the junior series, the Victorians II defeated the Crescents, thirty-two to two. This game was quite one-sided, the Vics, having things their own way. The Vics played a strong game for the Victorians, allowing only three hits during the game.

A Fire Horse Dead.

Last evening the fire horse at No. 2 station, which was ill for the past fortnight, was shot, as it was beyond recovery. The animal was a good one and worth $200. To-day Mayor Ross, and Robertan and Veterinary Nichols met to make a report upon the case for the city council, in view of certain statements that have been made.

Bunions No Joke.

Not to the man who has to move about, but a slight application of Putnam's softens the thickest tissue and cures the bunion quickly. Just as good for warts, bumps and callouses is Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Use no other.

Will Kill Germans.

Paris, May 25.—Mula Hadid, the usurping sultan of Morocco, is quoted by the correspondent of the Matin, as saying that he would, if necessary, have several German subjects killed in order to secure the intervention of France's rival in Morocco.

The Lakewood, N.J., Citizen says:
"It is with more than passing pleasure that we announce to his many friends in this and adjoining counties that Howard Van Sant, American consul to Kingston, Canada, has again been promoted and with it goes an increase of salary."
A man in Arkansas has stated that Mrs. Guinness, the LaPorte murderess, is alive and has received a letter from her since the burning of her house.
The Allan line steamer Predator, from Glasgow, arrived at Quebec on 26th.

NEWS OF DISTRICT.

The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario.

Rev. J. P. Wilson, Belleville, has been invited to the pastorate of the Lindsay Methodist church.

Norris West, Brockville, has disposed of his farm at Glen Duell to Joel Moore, of that place.

Rev. W. H. Emsley, Napanee, is the district representative on the stationing committee of the Bay of Quinte Methodist conference.

Rev. Peter Nichol, Presbyterian minister of Tottenham, Ont., has accepted a call, unanimously tendered to him, by the congregations of DeForestville and Crofton.

Rural Dean Beamish, Belleville, was given $245 by St. Thomas' congregation, to assist in defraying his expenses at the Pan-Anglican convention in London, Eng., for which place Mr. Beamish will sail on 29th inst.

Lorne C. Mallory, son of G. W. Mallory, Malorytown, has successfully completed his senior year at the Philadelphia Dental College, Philadelphia, Pa. He is now entitled to all the privileges of the degree of D.D.S.

News Budget From Klyneshoro.

Klyneshoro, May 23.—Although seeding is slow in this vicinity, prospects of crops look good. Meadows never looked better. Gordon Maxwell, teacher of Mahon's school, made a decided improvement in the school grounds on Arbor day, by setting out a half dozen young maples, and making a neat flower bed. Robert Walker, who lost a span of valuable farm horses by lightning some weeks ago, purchased a team to replace them in Perth the other day, for $350. Mrs. Archie Riely, who has been on the sick list, has quite recovered. Her son, Master Willie, is quite ill at present. Miss M. J. Healy, Gates' Lane, paid a flying visit to her cousin, Mrs. E. T. Hoffmann, last week.

Robert Kay, of Michigan, with his wife and child, have come to settle on the old Ray homestead in Beaverton. They have rented the house lately occupied by Thomas Maloney. They will live in it until such time as the contractor will have their new house erected on the Ray farm. The old place has not been inhabited by any of the family for years; the young people will be quite an acquisition to the neighborhood. There has been a magnificent bald-headed eagle seen several times in this locality since last January. He has been seen twice within the last week, along the bank of a brook flowing through the farm of Mark McNamee, Beaverton. Patrick Maloney, Beaverton, has gone to live in the House of Providence, Kingston.

Must Wear Duck Overalls.

New York, May 26.—A special from Middletown to the Sun says: "The orders issued by the board of health of New York City, requiring that all persons who milk cows must wear white duck overalls and jackets, otherwise the milk will not be allowed to enter New York, have pleased the majority of the milk producers in a predicament. Much of the milking has heretofore been done by the wives and daughters of farmers, all of whom now declare that they will never don the overalls."

The farmers think they cannot afford to dispense with their female help, and they are at a loss to know what to do.
