THEY ATTEMPT MURDER

TRY TO PUT FOREMAN ON A CIRCULAR SAW.

Story of a Desperate Attempt at Revenge in the Columbia River Company's Sawmill at Golden, B.C.—Hindus Put to Flight.

Vancouver, June 2.—A visitor from Golden reports a ferment caused there by the attempt of Hindu employees of the Columbia River Lumber company to murder the white foreman by throwing him on a circular saw. Four Hindus, he says, disobeyed instructions regarding lumber being shipped. The foreman, a Frenchman, hot-tempered, reprimanded them severely and threatened to discharge them. Seizing him, they were carrying him to the big saw. A young white man came on the scene, picked up a slab, laid out three Hindus and the other turned and fled.

THE LATE JOHN HANLEY.

His Death Was Sudden—Was Here on a Visit.

The death of Capt. John Hanley, which occurred in the Hotel Dieu hospital, on May 31st, removes another of the old residents of Kingston who occupied a prominent place in the minds and hearts of all those who came in contact with him, and who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He was for many years prominent in business affairs in Kingston, and left some years ago to reside with his daughter in Watertown. On May 24th he returned to the city to visit old friends and to renew acquaintances. On Monday he was suddenly stricken, and passed away on Saturday noon, aged sixty-nine years. His kindly and sympathetic disposition won for him many friends who will sincerely mourn him. Surviving him are three daughters: Mrs. N. F. Breen, Watertown, N.Y.; Mrs. A. Powers and Miss Margaret Hanley, Langdon, North Dakota. The funeral took place on Tuesday to St. Mary's cathedral, where a solemn high mass was sung for the repose of his soul. Gentle hands laid him quietly to rest by the side of his dear wife in St. Mary's cemetery. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Thomas Sullivan, P. Daley, James Hogan, T. Keenan, T. Gallagher and P. Devlin, all close friends.

Unitarian. REV. C. W. CASSON.

Salvation by Character.

There can be no salvation save that wrought by good life. Whatever may be the theory of supernatural intervention and the acceptance of a professed religion, it is plainly manifest to all that it is only the kind deed and the pure thought and the love-life that impart to us power and peace. The only salvation that saves is that which is based upon the development of character by the wise choice of the right action. Salvation is not a colonial elevator; it is a ladder up which a man must climb rung by rung. There is no other way to reach the top.

Address, Rev. C. W. Casson, at 25 Boston street, Boston, Mass., for the literature.
