YOUNG WOMAN MAKES BIG HAUL OF WEALTH.

Boldly Steals Securities Worth $100,000 From Railway Van at Station.

Liverpool, June 11.—A fashionably dressed young woman at Manchester successfully engineered one of the most daring robberies in the annals of crime in the province. She escaped with a haul of about $100,000 worth of securities, but was arrested at Liverpool, yesterday, with the stolen property in her possession.

The arrested woman was immediately handed over to the Manchester police. It is stated she has refused to give any information which will lead to her identity.

Cool daring is the feature of the story of the theft, which took place at the Cheshire Lines railway station on Monday morning. The Liverpool train was being got ready to leave the station, when a woman and man had four parcels placed in the guard's van. It appeared that the guard did not see the parcels placed in his van, and there was nothing to show to whom they belonged.

Some minutes before the train was due to start, a smartly dressed young woman approached the guard and informed him that she expected "some friends to catch the train. She intended travelling with them, but if they did not catch the train she would require one of the parcels that had recently been placed in his charge.

When the guard was about to wave his flag for the train to start on its journey the young woman rushed up to him and asked for the package which she had previously selected.

The guard did not entertain the slightest suspicion. Indeed, he had little time to make any inquiries. The parcel was handed to the stranger, and a porter was instructed to carry it to a cab. This was done, and the young woman told the cabman to drive to the Mosley hotel. On the way, however, she must have changed her directions to the driver, because shortly afterward she was seen on the platform of the London road station with the package in her possession. She was asked by the officials there if she required any assistance, but she replied that she did not.

Meantime, the owners of the package, who were breaking their journey to Liverpool at Warrington, discovered their loss. They had been travelling together, and had recently been staying at the Midland hotel, Manchester. The missing package contained securities worth $100,000, some valuable furs and a quantity of jewelry.

POLICE FIGHT 200 MEN.

Hold on to Prisoners They Had Arrested.

Paris, June 10.—Twelve detectives and police in uniform had to fight for their lives at Boulogne-sur-Mer, just outside Paris, against the organized attacks of 200 dangerous criminals. Six prisoners who had been arrested yesterday were on their way, under the guard of the twelve men, to the Boulogne police station, when 200 of their friends, who lay in wait, threw themselves on the guard with great savagery, kicking them and using heavy sticks.

The police, who had their prisoners securely handcuffed, formed round them and beat off their aggressors until help arrived. Five of the twelve policemen were badly hurt, but none of the prisoners escaped.

HEROIC RESCUE.

Every Shred of Clothing But His Cap Ablaze.

Paris, June 11.—An outbreak of fire occurred, yesterday morning, in the basement of a washwoman's shop in the Rue de Berry, and the first and second floors of the house were soon ablaze. Suddenly some one shouted that a woman was still in the basement. A policeman tore away the grating of the basement and dropped in. After ten minutes he appeared again with the woman in his arms.

Every shred of his clothing except, curiously enough, his policeman's cap, had been burned, and fell from him as he emerged. The brave man, who received an ovation, is to be decorated with the military medal.

NINETEEN GORED BY BULLS.

Disastrous Day to Toreadors and Others in Spain.

Madrid, June 11.—Bull fighting was disastrous all over Spain on Sunday. Nineteen toreadors and others engaged in the rings, were tossed and gored by the bulls. Two cases occurred at Tetuan, near Madrid; four at Barcelona, two at Seville, five at Saragossa, three at Cadix, one at Murcia and two at Valencia.

One of the Valencia victims was the famous Lacro Puente, who was retiring from his dangerous profession after having made a fortune. His condition is serious.

An Appeal To The Prince. Cardiff, June 11.—The Newlyn fisherman, salesman and buyers have resolved to appeal to the Prince of Wales, as Duke of Cornwall, to use his influence to stop Sunday fishing, as it is "against the law of God and the good custom of the port, detrimental to the fishing industry and especially harmful to the local fishermen, who want only a fair field and no favor."

PATHEPIC DEATH.

Kills Herself Because Daughter's Condition is Hopeless.

St. Petersburg, June 11.—The wife of Baron Meirer killed herself yesterday at Casarloo Selo, owing to the hopeless condition of her only daughter, a girl of seventeen.

The doctor had stated that the girl could not recover, whereupon her mother left the house, stating that she would not survive the death of her child.

Two hours later she was found dead in the park, having taken poison. A letter addressed to her husband, which was found in her pocket, asked the baron's forgiveness, and stated that she could not survive the death of her child.

The girl died last evening, and the bodies of mother and daughter will be conveyed to Nice, as both had often expressed their horror of being buried in Russia.

LION ATTACKS A BOY.

Mother Beats Off Brute With Her Hands.

Paris, June 11.—The twelve-year-old son of the lion tamer La Goulue, who was formerly a popular Paris dancer, was severely bitten by a lion in his mother's menagerie this afternoon.

The menagerie was on show at the gingerbread fair in Paris, and La Goulue had sent for a photographer to photograph her and her boy in the lion's cage. Just as they were posing the lion leaped at the child and bit him on the left arm.

"La Goulue rushed at the brute and forgetting all about her whip, beat it off with her bare hands, forcing the enraged beast back against the bars of the cage. She and her child then escaped from the cage in safety.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde or light hair denotes affection and delicate hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character, far from it. The disposition of the average baldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Saisourand of Paris, France, innoculated a rabbit with dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

Destroy the cause—you remove the effect. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes, 50c. and $1. G. W. Mahood, a social agent.

You can break up all sickly habits by occasionally using the health suggestions transmitted by Beecham's Pills.

Bigger Profits to Policy-holders

It is easy to see why a policy in this Company is an excellent investment as well as a protection.

Last year, the new business amounted to $7,081,402—a gain over 1906 of $1,577,855. Yet the operating expenses were about the same as last year.

For the last five years, the actual mortality was only 47% of the amount expected. And the interest income exceeded the mortality by $198,103.

With an expense ratio to income smaller than its competitors, with a yearly expanding interest income, and a favorable death rate, it is but natural that The Mutual Life of Canada is earning more profits, which go to the policyholders in reduction of their premiums.
