

Why not the "Banner"?

If there is a new spring bed to buy, at least examine the "Banner." The "Banner" is the spring bed that is permanently comfortable, because it is the bed that will last a lifetime.

The "Banner" is the spring bed that is easy and restful, because it is the bed that fits the body from head to foot.

The "Banner" is the spring bed that never stretches—never "sags"—never loses its shape—never creaks or rattles.

The "Banner" Spring Bed at $8

is the cheapest you can buy because it gives the best service. It is the perfect spiral spring bed. It is made of the best quality of oil tempered steel spirals, which retain their springiness permanently. Flat steel bands on edge bind the spirals together, and these in turn are fastened to angle iron sides. This makes a strong, rigid, noiseless, restful, easy bed.

At least, SEE the "Banner" Spring Bed. We leave the buying to your good judgment of quality and value. This trademark goes on all "Alaska" Brand Guaranteed Springs, Mattresses and Pillows. Look for it, always. 14

A FINE GARDEN PARTY HELD BY THE CHILDREN OF MARY.

In the Archbishop's Palace Grounds—It Was Splendidly Patronized—A Large Sum Was Realized.

On Thursday evening the Children of Mary held a garden party in the Archbishop's palace grounds, and never was a garden party held in the city more largely attended, or more successful in every way than this one was. During the afternoon it began to look like rain, but soon cleared up and perfect weather prevailed for the affair.

Early in the afternoon, the people began to attend and from then until 10:30 o'clock the grounds were constantly taxed with the large number of people who kept going and coming. At the supper hour large tables were laid in the centre of the grounds and here over 250 people had supper.

The Old Oaken Bucket lottery table was in charge of the teachers of St. Mary's school, assisted by Miss B. Duley and Miss M. Anderson. The home-made table was looked after by Miss O'Connor, Miss M. Hanley, and assistants. The soft drinks were in charge of Miss Givens and Miss Roche, and "Aunt Sally" was carefully guarded by Miss N. Hanley.

The different tables were in charge of the following ladies: The Old Oaken Bucket lottery table was in charge of the teachers of St. Mary's school, assisted by Miss B. Duley and Miss M. Anderson. The home-made table was looked after by Miss O'Connor, Miss M. Hanley, and assistants.

Plain veiling, combined with checked veiling to match, was used for the gown illustrated, the model being in blue, with borders of blue and white checked veiling. The buttons used on the bodice were of blue enamel, but buttons made of the veiling could also be used. The skirt was trimmed with a four-inch band of veiling set on above the hem.

REMEMBERED HIM.

A Gift For Aid. J. J. Rigney From Many Friends.

On Friday last prominent and influential members of the Knights of Columbus, of Kingston, made manifest, in a pleasing manner, their well-remembered respect and affection for the late Aid. J. J. Rigney, on his return from his nuptial tour. They assembled at the residence of Dr. Morrison in large numbers, and in happy vein, to congratulate Aid. T. J. and wish him good luck in the days to come.

HAS RIVAL FOR VICTIM.

Follows Girl Who Supplanted Her, and Kills Her.

Toulon, June 12.—A real Corsican vendetta, yesterday, threw the population of Port-Dulas, a suburb of Toulon, into the wildest commotion. The deserted wife of a tailor named Rizzi, who had taken under his protection a pretty dark-eyed Corsican girl of nineteen, named Annecchino Paoletti, formerly in his service, smarting under the jere of the guilty pair at herself and her children, followed them into the street with a revolver, and discharged five shots, one of which passed through the girl's body. An annecchino expired shortly after receiving the fatal wound.

MEANING OF THE SLATE.

It's a Simple Way of Telling That the Shoe is True. "It's the slate-slate," was the terse way in which one gentleman described the original Slater Shoe of '69. There have been so many imitations of the Slater Shoe since its goodness earned for it an international reputation that the "Sign of the Slate" is an important Seal of Certainty. So long as one knows there are counterfeits issued the danger of deception is less.

DONE HARD WORK.

In Connection With the Republican Convention.

A. C. FISHER. A. C. Fisher, assistant secretary of the republican national committee, is one of the group of executives who have borne the brunt of the hard work connected with the Chicago convention. Mr. Fisher has had charge of the headquarters of the national committee for almost four years past, and during the past few months has worked night and day. Mr. Fisher is a native of Ohio, that nursery of politicians, and made his entry into national work in 1895 as one of the lieutenants of the late Senator Hanna. As confidential secretary to Hanna and the latter's right-hand man, Elmer Dover, Mr. Fisher gained an intimate knowledge of politics and public men that has stood him in good stead in his later career.
