HAD HEARD ABOUT PEN.

But Charles McCrae Had No Fear of Entering.

Well, boys, I guess this will be the last good breakfast I will have for some time.

Doing ample justice to a meal which had been ordered for him at a local hotel by the sheriff, who had him in charge, Charles McCrae, sentenced at Walkerton to three years for theft, made this remark to some of the constables at the police station, this morning. He spent the night in the cells, and was awaiting his removal to the big prison.

You know I have heard a great deal about this penitentiary," added McCrae, "they say that they are very strict, and that the prisoners have a very hard time. But I don't care, this is not the first prison for me. I served in penitentiaries in the old country, and I guess I have been over the ropes all right."

McCrae is one of the trio of burglars who went through a jewelry store in Port Elgin. Constables found part of the stolen jewelry in a field near Chesley. When arraigned before the court, McCrae pleaded guilty.

MR. KIRBY IS COMING

NEXT FRIDAY REGARDING STREET PAVING.

City Engineer Craig Will Interview Him in Ottawa To-Morrow—The Procedure That Will Be Followed.

City Engineer Craig goes to Ottawa to-morrow to interview Mr. Kirby, of Kirby & Co., regarding the city council's acceptance of his street paving proposition. The engineer had a talk over the telephone, yesterday, with Mr. Kirby, and the latter will be here on Friday to take up the matter with a view to going ahead with the work as soon as possible. A canvass of property owners in the business section of the city has first to be made so that it may be known at once how many blocks are to be proceeded with. Two-thirds of the property owners in each block must sign the petitions before the work of paving under the local improvement plan, can be proceeded with. The larger number of signatures for the paving, the cheaper it can be done.

It is likely that the first blocks to be undertaken will be Brook street, from King to Wellington; Wellington, from Brook to Clarence; Clarence, from Wellington to King, and King from Clarence to Brook. Before Princess street can be touched, an arrangement will have to be made with the street railway company regarding a new road-bed and new rails. One of the street railway directors has stated that the company will make all necessary improvements to its road if the city decides to pave the business streets.

After Mr. Kirby has secured the necessary signatures of property owners along a number of blocks, plans and specifications, and also price will be prepared, and submitted to the city council for its approval, so that the exact cost to the city and the property owners will be known before the work is begun.

WINDOW WAS BROKEN.

Drunk Made An Attempt to Go Through It.

Edward Burke, a young man, found out to his sorrow, in police court this morning, that it does not pay to get drunk. He was very drunk when passing Arthur Field's shop, lower Prince street, about ten o'clock last night, and endeavored to get into the store through the window, instead of the door. He then met with a heap of trouble. He had an idea that he could see the knob of the door, and made a grab for it, but as his arm stretched out, there was a smashing of glass. The window was a wreck, and the same word could be applied to himself. Constable Naylor appeared on the scene, and Burke was placed under arrest. His hand was cut as a result of his encounter with the window.

"I'm guilty, all right," said Burke when accused of being drunk and disorderly.

"Five dollars and costs or one month," remarked Magistrate Farrell.

A Quiet Wedding.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Rev. J. B. Boyd, B.A., Pine street, on Wednesday, May 29th, when Miss Ella Jane Dawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dawson, of Fells, was united in marriage to Henry Thomas Jones, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Reives, Livingston avenue, Kingston. The bride wore a white silk blouse, trimmed with chiffon and applique, and wore a very becoming hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will take up their residence on King street. Their friends wish them a happy and prosperous married life.

A Grand Success.

The Nursery Rhymes concert, given by St. James church, on Monday night, at Wolf Island, in aid of Trinity church, was a grand success. The hall was packed, standing room being at a premium. The choir members were given a delicious supper at the close of the concert.

MAYOR'S SON DROWNED

JOHN NEWTON, DESER ONTO, THE VICTIM.

The Boy's Body Found in the River—The Stricken Father and Other Doctors Worked Over the Body in Vain.

A sad drowning accident occurred, at Deseronto, on Saturday afternoon, when "Jack," the thirteen-year-old son of Dr. Newton, mayor of the town, met a watery grave. A passer-by discovered the boy's clothes lying on the shore, but could find no trace of the lad. The clothes were recognized as young Newton's, and a search made for the missing boy. He was found lying on the bottom of the river. The body was hastily recovered, and several physicians, including the stricken father, worked for hours in a vain effort to bring about resuscitation. The deceased was well developed for his age, and popular in the town. The people of Deseronto express deep sympathy with Dr. Newton in his sad loss.

When given up as drowned, he was brought back to life by his efforts and skill after hours of hard labor, and it is hard to realize that though he saved others he could not save his own. Young Newton, after leaving his companions, had started for home alone. It is thought that the water tempted him to indulge in a plunge. The cause of his drowning, however, will probably never be explained. A sister of the deceased graduated from Queen's University several years ago.

At Belleville, during a "Zezira" performance, Director H. J. Booth was hit across the jaw by a lead swinging club. He was made unconscious for a few minutes, but soon recovered and went on with his duties.

Improved By Pointing.

The city buildings have been vastly improved in appearance by the pointing that has been done to the outer walls during the past year. The good work still continues, and is being well done. When completed, over a thousand dollars will have been spent on pointing. City councils of past years sadly neglected the civic buildings. It remained for the councils of 1901-1905 to restore them.

Ho, For The Cape!

Cape Vincent has decided to celebrate the glorious 4th of July, and invite their Kingston friends to join them in the big hubbub. No doubt, United States Consul VanSant will be there, and make another attempt to blow off a finger with a big dynamite fire-cracker. The consul tried this trick two years ago.

Not From The Sky.

Canadian Freeman.

Later on the ins and outs as to the final result of Mr. Pense's defeat will be made known. The majority of nearly 400 against him must have come from a source, other than the sky, therefore defeat under such circumstances has not decreased his popularity.

Awaiting The Scarifier.

The city engineer's department is awaiting the arrival of the road scarifier, ordered several weeks ago. When it comes, the work of rebuilding the roads will be proceeded with in earnest. Park avenue will occupy the attention of the works department for a couple of weeks yet.

Base Season Began To-Day.

The open season for base began today for the law-abiding. For others it began as soon as spring opened. It is reported that last Saturday, two persons caught no less than a hundred black bats within sight of the city. This, however, can scarcely be credited.

PRES. ROOSEVELT'S NAME

Will Be Presented to Republican National Convention.

Chicago, June 16.—Chicago put forth her best this morning in the way of weather conditions. Early in the day the crowd began to move towards the Coliseum. There is just enough decoration on the building to beautify it without interfering with ample light and ventilation.

The five most important planks of the Republican platform, formulated by President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft, and now in the possession of the prospective members of the resolution committee of the national convention for consideration are the planks on trusts, anti-inflation rate, tariff revision and currency. Opposition to the tariff plank seems to have disappeared absolutely on the ground that the party has irrevocably pledged itself to tariff revision at a certain time and along indicated lines.

As to the railroad plank the opposition will be keen on the declaration in favor of federal supervision of the issuance of stock and bonds, but this phase of the fight has as yet remained under cover. The currency plank pledges the party to continued development on that subject and this pledge, it will be claimed, is already in process of fulfillment in the existence of the currency commission.

The promoters of the Roosevelt boom movement claim they have secured the services of a delegate from a state other than Alabama, which will be reached early in the roll call to present the president's name to the convention.

Governor Hughes will not direct the withdrawal of his name for the presidential nomination.

Ohio, New York, Indiana and Iowa delegates express no favor of any candidate for the vice-presidency. Ohio because the Taft leaders don't wish to be in the attitude of dictating New York because advocacy of Sherman or Low or any other New Yorker might impugn the loyalty to Governor Hughes; Iowa because the state wants Dooliver to remain where he is in the event that the Taft plank of state politics; Indiana because long distance persuasion has not induced Mr. Fairbanks to change his attitude toward the first and second places on the ticket.

Ex-Governor Odell is promoting the anti-Sherman campaign. He believes that the congressman is not entitled to receive the honor of second place from the New York delegation because of his attitude toward the republican organization in the state on various occasions.

If the nominee should be Cannon or Hughes or Knox or Fairbanks or anything else will be lost to Texas for the mohair already has been made up into trousers according to Secretary Taft's measurement.

A telegram announcing the fact that the trousers had been expressed from Washington was received by Colonel Lyon and he immediately began the preparation of a proper reception. The programme is yet imperfect, but it will include the exhibition of the trousers at the Coliseum if Taft is nominated. The Texas delegation will ask to
