WAS ANIMUS

That Actuated One of the Commissioners

SAYS COL. GOURDEAU

DENIED ALL THE CHARGES SO FAR MADE.

Commander Spain Lost His Note-Book—Col. Gourdeau Never Suggested He Could Advance Peoples' Interests With the Department.

Ottawa, June 19.—All interest in the royal commission of enquiry into the charges against the marine department, the sitting, yesterday, was marked by an outspoken statement by Col. Gourdeau, deputy minister, accusing of animus against the department.

Col. Gourdeau denied, in toto, almost all the charges of maladministration and dishonesty made against his department, and claimed that the commissioner had not tried to get all the information which could be given him.

The examination of A. W. Owen, chief accountant, was resumed. In reference to the purchase of sulphuric acid from Mr. Ayer, on account of an advance of $150 made him before delivery of the goods, Mr. Owen stated that he had been on the patronage list and the department had dealt with him for years. The department knew nothing of the Wingate Chemical company, his principals.

Mr. Watson—"Did you ever see any irregularity in Commander Spain's accounts?"

Witness—"I had no knowledge of such."

"Have you ever found any inaccuracies in statements certified to by the deputy?"

"I have not."

"The auditor-general states that he had no confidence in the certificates of J. F. Fraser. What about that?"

"I cannot understand his making such a statement. I always thought Mr. Fraser a proper official."

"What about Mr. Gregory, of Quebec?"

"Some of his accounts were all right, but others were not to my thinking."

Commander Spain was recalled in view of statements made, Wednesday, by the auditor-general. The auditor had stated that in 1905 the commander had padded his accounts to the extent of $800 in 1904 and 1905 he had been continuously away from Ottawa. When he returned he had lost his note book and could not definitely make up his accounts. The minister, Mr. Prefontaine, had told him to make his accounts up as correctly as he could and attach an affidavit, stating that the book had been lost. This he had done, and the auditor's department had returned it on account of a couple of errors. These were revised and a new account put in. The reduction, he thought, amounted to $400 or $500.

"The auditor-general said you got half the refund from the deputy?"

"The auditor is incorrect. I got nothing whatever from the deputy in this connection. I never received any money whatever from him for official charges."

The deputy minister, Col. Gourdeau, prefaced his evidence by a vigorous statement to the court in which Com-

KILLED THEM

Said That Men Were Slain in a Boat.

LIKELY BAD BLOOD

THE MURDER REPORTED NEAR TO SELKIRK, YUKON.

Major Snyder, Advised of a Tragedy and Learned About the Men Going By Boat to Selkirk—What is Likely to Have Happened.

White Horse, Yukon, June 19.—Major Snyder, of the mounted police, has received news of a murder on the river, a short distance below Selkirk. The telegraph came from Dawson, the White Horse is out of order and the news came via Valdez, the United States cable. The message is as follows:

"Ned, Elliot, arrived in Dawson, in boat No. 113 alone. He had been seen on the river with two others on the way down. The sound of shooting was heard by other small boat passengers on the river bank below Selkirk."

Inquiry by Major Wood as to who left here in boat No. 113 showed that Ned Elliot, Neil Anderson and David Bergeman left in the boat on May 16th.

The murder probably occurred five or six days later as that time would be required to run from here to Selkirk. Whether the murder was for the purpose of robbery or the result of a quarrel is not known. The names indicate that all were Scandinavians, Norwegians or Swedes, people not given to quietly obeying orders. The supposition is that the close intimacy of travelling for several days in a small boat engendered strife and bad blood, which culminated in murder.

BOYCOTT STILL ON

Hong Kong, June 19.—The boycott against the Japanese is still strongly maintained. The government has prohibited meetings at restaurants called to discuss the question of self-government and similar subjects.

TAFT CHOSEN

And His Selection Was Made Unanimous.

Chicago, June 19.—At 5 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, Secretary of War William H. Taft, was nominated by the Republican State committee for the presidency of the United States by the following vote:

Taft.....	702
Fairbank.....	40
Cannon.....	58
Fowler.....	16
Lafollette.....	25
Hughes.....	67
Roosevelt.....	3
Knox.....	38

General Woodford, of New York, as (likely as) Senator Lodge, permanent chairman of the convention, announced the result, and as quickly as the cheering which greeted the nomination ended, hopped upon his chair and said:

"At the request of Governor Hughes and under the instructions of the united New York delegates, I move that the nomination of William H. Taft for the presidency now be made unanimous."

Senator Penrose, Pennsylvania, Senator Beveridge, Indiana, and William O. Emery, Georgia, the colored delegate, who seconded the nomination of Foraker, also seconded the nomination of secretary Taft.

The nomination was made unanimous. The convention then adjourned to Friday, when a candidate for the vice-president will be nominated.

ALICE VERY ANGRY

HAD TO DOFF MERRY WIDOW AT CONVENTION.

Immense Hat of President's Daughter Obscured View of Others on the Platform.

Chicago, June 19.—Nicholas Longworth is boss in his own house, despite the persistence of certain newspapers in referring to "Mrs. Nicholas Longworth and her husband." He demonstrated it at the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth were seated in the front row on the platform. She was handsomely dressed in a gray-green gown, with long white gloves and a Merry Widow hat.

Twice an assistant sergeant-at-arms came up to her and asked her to remove her hat. Mrs. Longworth refused in tones that sent the thermometer down ten degrees.

At this point Nicholas intervened. He leaned forward and said, "You had better take off your hat, my dear."

"I won't," said Mrs. Longworth, and she said it with a snap.

"Come," said Nicholas, in a less complaining tone, "take off your hat."

"I won't, and you shan't make me!" retorted Mrs. Longworth hotly.

"Yes, you will," said Nicholas, raising his voice so that he was heard by a half a dozen people in the neighborhood. "Don't make a scene, Alice. Take off your hat."

Mrs. Longworth said nothing, but looked mutinous, and her eyes darted angry flashes.

"Alice," said Nicholas, "I want you to take off your hat."

Alice's hand rose involuntarily toward the Merry Widow and then fell into her lap again and clenched itself.

"Are you going to take off your hat?" said Nicholas.

The hand rose again and pulled out a hat pin. The Merry Widow landed in Alice's lap. For the rest of the convention's session her smile was frozen.

Man Pulled Trigger With Aid of Umbrella.

Edmonton, Alta., June 19.—Richard Davies, aged forty-eight years, who came to Edmonton about four months ago from the Ottawa Valley committed suicide yesterday. He accomplished his death by means of a long Enfield rifle, over which he bent, and pulled the trigger by aid of an umbrella.

Despite the fact that the bullet went clean through his body, and left a gaping wound in his back, the unfortunate man lived for over two hours, and was conscious a good part of the time.

SYNDICATE PURCHASES RANCHES.

Vancouver, B.C., June 19.—An English syndicate has purchased the ranches of Joseph Collet, John Moore and James Aird, in the Nicola Valley, at a cost of between $300,000 and $350,000.

THE PATENT LAWS

HOPE TO GET THEM UNIFORM IN COLONIES.

A Committee of the Imperial Secretariat Will Ascertain the Views of the Self-Governing Colonies.

London, June 19.—In the House of Commons, yesterday, responding to Joynton Hinks, who asked if proposals might not be made to the Canadian government of a reciprocal character, affecting the validity of patents in both countries, Winston Churchill said a committee of the imperial secretariat will, in accordance with the resolution, adopted at the imperial conference, ascertain the views of the self-governing colonies on the question of the uniformity of patent laws. In the meantime the government could not approach any single colony. Comments were made on the fact that a lapse of twelve months sees nothing done to carry out the conference's resolution. The Morning Post pointed out that the method, outlined by Mr. Churchill, is dilatory and not called for by the conference.

REPLY OF DR. MACKIE TO PROF. ROSS ON QUEEN'S QUESTION.

He Shows That the Theology Professors Would Receive Pensions—Recess For "Keeping Abreast of the Age."

Kingston, June 18.—(To the Editor): I have no desire to repeat the disagreeable but I desire to be courteous to my very courteous friend, Professor Ross, whose letter appeared in your issue of yesterday.

The professor says that had the petition which he supported been granted no financial advantage would have accrued to the professors in theology.

My answer to this is a quotation from the petition which he supported: "In any case as the theological professors would not participate in the benefits of the Carnegie Foundation they might be pensioned out of the funds raised by the recent endowment."

This is surely a proposal for an annuity for Professor Ross, an annuity from funds raised for other purposes.

To my statement that four young men were added to the ministry of the church as the fruits of the work in Queen's divinity hall, the professor replies that seven finished their course. This then is the full showing—seven young men received from the church a free education in theology for three years, and only four have entered the ministry. Of the remaining three I know that one who entered college seven years ago to study with a view to the ministry has turned aside to journalism. The fact, therefore, confronts us that the ministry of the church does not get even the few that enter the divinity hall.

3. When Professor Ross proceeds to reveal the cause of this paucity of divinity students he enters on new ground and I shall not accompany him. It is quite probable that enquiry will be instituted in the proper place when the cause which he assigns, namely St. Andrew's congregation and such like congregations—and all causes discovered or suspected will be carefully examined, seems to me only right that St. Andrew's congregation, to which an annual appeal is made for financial support to the divinity hall, and which never turns a deaf ear to such appeals, should know the exact position of things and should have an opinion as to whether or not, with regard to Queen's divinity hall, the church is reaping what she sows.

5. I perceive and enjoy the professor's humor when he says the recess of six months is devoted to keeping abreast of the age—Yours, etc., J. MACKIE.
