THERE WAS A SORROWFUL SCENE IN COURT.

A Married Man Fled to Detroit president, and Hugh Blain, Toronto. With the Twenty-Year-Old Niece of His Wife's-Given Stiff Sentence

Detroit, Mich., June 19 .- Frank Taggart, the Canadian from near Brant ford, found guilty of bringing Mabell Gwendolyne Webb, a twenty-year-old English girl, into the United States in violation of a federal law, was sen tenced to six months in the Detroit House of Correction and to par a fin of $200. This sentence was much lighter than might have been imposed Mass Webb was in court when sentence was passed and showed emotion. Taggart and the girl clung to each other, both weeping until separated by the court officials. Mrs. had to be assisted from the room. She upbraided the girl, who is her niece and had been visiting at the Taggart's previous to the elopement for her perfidy. Miss Webb will be ported to England and Taggart Canada as soon as his sentence served. The Taggarts were married in Toronto, fourteen years ago. Mrs. Taggart says her husband converted all his property into cash and left her penniless when he and Miss Webb
