Anty Drudge's Fountain of Youth.

Mrs. Weary—"Oh, dear! I wish I could find what d'ye call 'im's Fountain of Eternal Youth. Hard work's making me old."

Anty Drudge—"Bless you, there's a fountain of youth you can find—and that's Fels-Naptha soap. It's a great lightener of work and would not only do your washing in cool water quickly without hard-rubbing, but it would make easy all your household cleaning. I use it—and I don't feel more than sixteen."

Does dirt mean drudgery to you?

Yes—if the only way you know to get rid of dirt is by the hot water, ordinary soap and elbow grease method.

No—if you let Fels-Naptha dissolve the dirt in cool or lukewarm water—without boiling, without hard-rubbing.

Fels-Naptha has done away with hard work and boiling in washing clothes just as other modern inventions have done away with home spinning, tallow candles and hand sewing.

Why don't you let Fels-Naptha do the hard part of your washing?

The easy directions are printed on the back of the red and green wrapper.

SEVEN ROOM COTTAGE OF THE GAMBREL ROOF STYLE.

Designed by Charles S. Sedgwick, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

This cottage without the basement and with shingled exterior is estimated to be built, exclusive of heating and plumbing, for $3,000. The design is well adapted to a warm climate and with a good basement would be equally good for a cold climate. The average size of the main floor, exclusive of the main piazza, is 32 by 30 feet, the height of the stories 9 feet and 8 feet 6 inches. One leading feature in this cottage different from many designs is the central entrance and hallway leading direct from front to rear and both doorways opening into screened piazzas; this will be found to be very pleasing in warm weather, allowing free circulation of air through the centre of the house.

The large living room on the left is cut off in octagonal form at the corners, giving fine outlook, plenty of sunshine and good ventilation. At the rear of this room and connecting with it through a wide columned archway is a den above with seats on either side and windows at the rear, with central glazed doorway opening into a screened porch; this feature is a very pretty device in connection with the main living-room. The dining-room opens at the right, opposite the living-room, and connects through a passageway with a kitchen at the rear. It has recessed china closet. These two principal rooms and hallway are finished in Washington fir or hard pine stained and a good hardwood floor to correspond. The second floor comprises four good sized bed-rooms, each one provided with a large clothes closet, the stairway of the first story landing in the centre of the second floor, making a very symmetrical and convenient hallway opening with windows and glazed door onto a rear balcony, the second floor finished in natural pine, with hardwood floor.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

The exterior of the house is designed to be shingled throughout. It would also look very well if the gables were finished in rough cast cement on metal lath; this would add slightly to the cost. In painting this house a good suggestion would be to stain all the shingles on the first story a light cream color, making the shingles on the roof dark green and the shingles in the gables light green and all the sash white. Paint the chimney tops light cream same as the body of the house; this combination will give a very pleasing effect.

Hay Is Ontario's Hope.

Ontario's crop is no cipher in the sum of this nation's prosperity. Showers and sunshine in the right proportions until after harvest will produce a crop having a money value of perhaps $275,000,000.

Hay is perhaps the greatest single item among the secrets of Ontario's greatness. A yield of 5,471,387 tons of hay will be worth at moderate prices $50,000,000. A shortage of 792,762 tons in the hay crop last year meant the disappearance of a $12,769,716 item from the credit side of the books of Ontario agriculture.

Defect Of The Day.

Montreal Herald. The story of destitution and despair told in the case of a young woman who tried to end her life is sad enough in itself, but is made all the more so by the fact that there is no need for such experience if girls were taught to be useful at the work their mothers did. To think that girls are starving in Montreal, where people willing to pay well for it cannot get help with the housework.

PSYCHINE PRONOUNCED SI-KEEN THE GREATEST OF TONICS FOR HEALTH AND ENERGY

WHAT IS HEALTH?

The ordinary acceptance of the term "health" is freedom from disease, but it means this and more. You may not actually be in the grip of disease, and yet be far from healthy. Your system may be weak and run down, and your vital organs unable to perform their functions. A person in this condition easily falls a prey to disease germs, which always attack the weak places. Psychine, Dr. Slocum's Great Health Remedy is Nature's Greatest Tonic. It builds up the entire system as no other remedy can, and renders it proof against these terrible disease germs that are so deadly in their effects. Bacteria or disease germs cannot live in the system with Psychine.

PSYCHINE CREATES AN APPETITE

LIFE WAS A BURDEN. NOW ENJOYS LIFE.

Miss Ella Muriel Wood of Brantville, Ont. says: "Two years ago I was going into a decline, I could hardly drag myself across the street. If I went for a drive I had to lie down when I came back. I was too weak for anything. My father urged me to try Psychine, and I must say the results are wonderful. Instead of a little pale, hollow-cheeked, listless, melancholy girl, I am to-day full of life. I can now enjoy any sports or an evening party with anyone, whereas a few months ago I could not struggle to church, 40 rods from my home."
