THE CITY AGAINST ITSELF.
The Power and Light committee has decided to appeal to the council on the assessment question. The city assessor has an eagle eye, and he detects usually any improvement which is susceptible to the assessment law.
He is certainly most impartial in his service, and having assessed the private citizen, as the act permits, it is only to be expected that he will touch the power department as its importance deserves.

The committee takes exception to the increase in the assessment this year, and asks the council for relief on the ground that it cannot stand the additional burden. Were the gas and electric plants the property of a company it would take revenge upon the council and people by making them pay the increased taxation in higher rates. Catch a private corporation, with a due regard for profits and dividends, submitting to anything which meant a reduction in its assets over expenditures.

The city is not in a position to retaliolate upon itself. It cannot increase the rates for light and power to the general consumer, since that proceeding at the present time would put an unwholesome check upon the patronage the department is seeking to encourage. It cannot charge higher rates for street lighting, since that would make this branch of the public service intolerably expensive, and at a time when the people have been talked into a desire for better things.

The only hope, apparently, is to get a level assessment for a fixed sum for a number of years. Can it be granted without the people's consent? It is a legal question, but it is not one which should give unnecessary worry in this hot weather.

The government's act in moving the crops last year, when it started the farmers and grain buyers in the face, has been condemned by the Foster faction. But Mr. Fielding says he would repeat his act, under similar circumstances, and the sentiment will be generally applauded.

A LIMIT TO OUTRAGE.
The Montreal Gazette regards the delay in passing the estimates as an evidence of the government's incompetency. In December these estimates were brought down, and if one peruse the "diary of parliament" he will see how the conservative opposition have obstructed. Every time the house went into supply some one had a grievance or a scandal to ventilate. Anything for the purpose of delay, and that purpose was indicated by Mr. Foster in January last, when, in answer to the appeal for urgency, he said it was one thing to ask for supplies and another thing to get them.

Again and again the house has been reminded of the stress that prevailed in the country because funds were not provided, and the opposition turned a deaf ear to the statement. The obstruction became rank and offensive in March, and has been continued to this day. The minister of militia complained that the permanent force was suffering for want of its pay, and a miserable percentage of the usual allowance was passed. The minister of customs begged for the relief of his two thousand employees, and for a time he was refused relief. The minister of militia cancelled the camps and the ter-centenary celebration, because he had not the funds, and there there was a vote and a loosening of the purse strings.

Day after day the motion to go into supply was carried, and not an item of the supplies passed. Why?
The rules of the house permit of motions on all sorts of subjects, inquiries, questions, disputes, debates, and weeks have gone practically in wordless talk. The limit has been reached.
The closure must be applied, and the liberal government cannot do better than take the steps to have it put into operation without delay. In no other parliament in the world would the outrages of an opposition be tolerated as they have been in Ottawa this year.

The naughty naughty synd of Toronto. It has appeared in so bad a light, by the reports in the papers of its proceedings, that the reporters will be excluded hereafter. The "scare" headings wounded, but there would not be "scare" headings if there were not "scare" language used.

TAFI OR BRYAN--WHICH?
The most irritating thing that the enemy can say of the Taft nomination is that it was arranged by Mr.
Roosevelt, and that the platform of the republican party is the work of his hands. It is a great personal compliment which the president should very much appreciate. It may be that Mr. Roosevelt regrets that, when nominated four years ago, he was rash enough to say that he would not be a candidate again, but it is certain that having said it he has been man enough to stand by it and allow no influence to change his mind.

And who is better qualified than the president to prepare a programme which can invite favourable comment in an election campaign? He has practically shaped the course of legislation during his two terms of office.
He became the bolder with experience, and during the last term forced congress to do as he dictated, and with the satisfaction of knowing that the people endorsed his action. The people do not always like a dictator, or rather the politicians do not like him to realize this. So has Roosevelt, but the bigger man, with a longer period of service, has commanded a recognition which so far has been denied the other man.

But the platform. Did you notice how persuasive it is? There is to be tariff revision--after the election; a more elastic currency system, so that there will be no more tie up in the banking business; changes in the law so that the inter-state commission will not be quite so hard on the railways; further legal protection for railway employees; the extension of the water ways, development of the rural free delivery, improvement of the army and navy, and a renewal of the merchant marine. Will all this be pacifying in its character? Let it be remembered that the trusts, the railway companies, the great corporations are all on the defensive. All have been threatened with Teddy's big stick, all have looked the money bags and been forbidden to hand out election contributions.

This is to be a pure election, the only one that has been run by the republicans, and it is not remarkable that some of the men who attended the Chicago convention and cheered for Taft have some misgivings as to the result of a brush with Bryan. The democrats are not advertising themselves as purists, and the fact is not without its significance.

EDITORIAL NOTES.
The Commons is likely to lose some of its most desirable members. They cannot stand the waste of time which has followed, or attended, the interminable talk of the opposition.

The Methodists in conference condemn the three-fifths clause in the Liquor Act; the Anglicans, in synod, approve. An evidence of the delightful experience that will follow church union day.

The profanity of Mr. Fyeh, one of the civil service commissioners, is said to have shocked some of the marine department's officials. And truth to tell, they needed shocking, though not in that particular way.

A discussion occurred in the commons on who made the North-West, politically. Mr. Foster had an idea that his party had a large hand in the business, but he was thinking, probably, of his land deals.

The Ontario Alliance is asked, by the Pioneer, to "become very much alive, and to develop strength within their own political parties. Has the Alliance abandoned the formation of an independent temperance party?

Mr. Brodeur is the first minister in forty years who has attempted to revise the marine department and he is found fault with. Some of his critics, knowing what they approved when in the government, are rank hypocrites.

There is what the Montreal Star calls "reciprocity of boodling" in the Montreal council. One party helps another, with the understanding that it will be helped in return, and as a result the city is plundered. Is there no cure?

The leader of the opposition in Quebec, Mr. LeBlanc, is out of the house, the recount of votes showing that he did not poll a majority of them in Laval. Beaten by a former street car conductor is an honor or a dishonor, which?

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS
No Wonder.
Saskatoon Phoenix.
No wonder the conservatives can win elections in Manitoba when they take such pains to prevent their opponents from registering.

Men Wanted West.
Hamilton Herald.
In the east there is still an "unemployed" problem. In Manitoba there is a demand for 25,000 farm workers and 5,000 female workers. How to connect the workers with the work is the problem.

Where They Differ.
Syracuse Post-Standard.
Taft has the moral earnestness of Roosevelt without his impulsiveness, and blends the characteristics of the soldier, the jurist and the statesman as does no other man in this generation.

Borden's Dilemma.
Guelpth Mercury.
If Robert Laird Borden could only find some nice, deep, fathomless hole in which he could drop Foster, Foster, et al, he would be the happiest tory in Canada. By gads, they stick closer than a brother.

A Worthy Pair.
Ottawa Journal.
While Governor Hughes, of New York state, pushes through anti-betting bills in the legislature, his dad starts in with revival meetings in New York city. This double-barrelled family gets at the devil both legally and morally.

A Great Outlook.
Montreal Herald.
Five million acres under crop, half of it in wheat, the promise of the best crop in history, present work for 25,000 more men and 5,000 more women; that is the cheerful budget from the Canadian West. They may keep the bullets coming as fast as they like.

History Repeats Itself.
Kincairdine Reporter.
History will repeat itself in Ontario as it has done elsewhere, and the party now nothing more than a remnant will rebuild upon its basic principles and sooner or later, in these days of fluctuating public opinion have an opportunity for service on the treasury benches.

To Blame Himself.
Hamilton Spectator.
Boy, never as we have been able to understand the St. John bank case, has not been deserted by his friends at all. On the contrary, he deserted his friends. If the charges against him are true he can have no claim upon anyone for friendship. It is in such kindness to seek to make easy the lot of the man who, with full knowledge of its consequences, chooses to play fast and loose with the laws upon which the safety of the commercial life of a community depends.

RESENTED BY LIBERALS.
Measure by Premier for Suppression of Crime.
Madrid, June 20.--The coalition liberal and republican parties held a meeting at the Princess theatre to protest against the bill modifying the law which punishes crimes committed in the act of explosion. The speakers were loudly applauded by the assembled crowd. There were no incidents, although great precautions, imposed by fear, had been taken.

The liberal and independent parties form a "bloc" against the bill, and meetings will be held all over Spain to protest against it. It is believed that the bill will not be discussed, but that some excuse will be found for adjourning parliament for the holidays, when the bill is laid on the table of the house. If the bill is submitted to discussion a difficult position will ensue.

The present campaign against the project is energetic, and even violent, but without regrettable incidents so far. All public opinion, even that of the conservatives, leads to the belief that the project is a lamentable mistake, as terrorism does not exist over Spain except in Barcelona, where it is only perpetrated by the band of Bull.
All ranks of the liberal party party against the project, and its approval impossible, and if Senor Maura insists on discussing the bill a crisis is imminent.

Life must have been a failure to John C. Wright, of Boston. Maura ninety-one years old, and Mary, his wife, three years younger, for they hanged themselves the other day. It might have been thought they were old enough to know better but--the heart knoweth its own bitterness.
The marriage of Miss Mary Helena Carnegie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
A. B. Carnegie, Gapanoque, to Ernest Lake Spencer, will take place quietly, June 24th.

The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario.
Garrett Vanalstine, Napanee, stricken with paralysis, still continues very low.
William Rowe, Brockville, caught an eight-pound muskungee and got his picture in the paper.
Prince Edward county will spend $50,000 on its roads; the county provides $35,000, the government $15,000.
William Ballance, Camden, shows rye six feet nine inches long. He has seven acres of this fine rye.
The store of Frederick Heath, Portland, was burglarized on Friday last and the contents of the cash drawer, nearly $5, taken.
Lying on a sofa in his house on Waupos Island, Patrick Sheehy, was found dead late Sunday. Death was due to heart failure.
Thomas Sutton, of Marmora, is in hospital with his left hand badly shattered. He was handling a revolver and didn't know it was loaded.
Mrs. Robert Kain, Westport, died on June 18th, aged ninety-five years.
She was one of the oldest residents.
She leaves two sons, Thomas and James.
At the home of Albert Sheffield, near Athens, on Wednesday, his daughter, Miss Mary Sheffield, was united in marriage to Ernest Collison, of Sealey's Bay.

A resident of Prince Edward county for forty years, Andrew Dempsey, passed away, on Friday, at his home in Bloomfield, aged eighty-nine years.
Death was due to old age.
It will be sad news to the friends of Ross Thompson, of Madam, to learn that the sight of the eye, injured a few days ago, by the explosion of a ginger ale bottle, is permanently destroyed.
William Mitchell, formerly of Prescott, died at the residence of his son, Frank Mitchell, at Potomac, Cal., on June 14th, at the age of seventy-three years. Death was due to cancer of the throat.
Waiver Lawson, son of John Lawson, V.S., Almonte, lost his life while bathing, on Thursday, in the river.
He was aged twelve years and was trying to save his younger brother, when the accident happened.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Ostrander, Milford, found Mrs. W. B. Scott's gold watch lying in the middle of the new road through Greenbush. Many rigs had been known to pass over it. It was none the worse, still running.
A pleasing event took place, Wednesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Miller, Crossby, when their daughter, Leah Eliza, was united in marriage to Milton B. Rose, Wau-pos.

On June 19th, Mrs. H. D. Beach, formerly Miss Ida Hutton, passed peacefully into rest. Ida was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Hutton, thirty-three years ago, and lived all her life in Brockville. Her husband and three children survive. Blood-poisoning was the cause.
Mrs. John Hosey, an old resident of Napanee, passed away on June 16th, at Olean, N.Y., at her grand-daughter's, Mrs. Charles Fanning's.
She had lived in Napanee nearly all her life. She leaves three grandsons, John Hosey, James Hosey, and Walter Hosey, and two granddaughters, Mrs. Charles Fanning and Miss Ola Hosey. Service was held in Olean, N.Y., and burial at Napanee.

Gown Of Checked Cotton Voile.
The frock illustrated was in the original, in white cotton voile checked across with lines of green. The yoke and collar were of tucked muslin and valenciennes lace, and the undersleeves were also of muslin and lace. They shirred bands of the voile outlined the yoke, and between these bands a wide band of white fllet insertion was introduced. From the lowest hand outlining the yoke a fringe of small white balls was used. The skirt was finished about the bottom by two wide bias bands.

The Glean Of Purity.
Note the glasses in which we serve soda. After each time used they are thoroughly washed with hot water, rinsed, dried and polished. It is of course added to one's satisfaction to drink from a glass like that and is also visible evidence of the cleanliness that we enforce in every detail of soda making. Wade's Drug Store.
