particle of skin left on her body, the blood oozed out just anywhere, and we had to wrap her in silk and carry her on a pillow for ten weeks. She was the most terrible sight I ever saw, and for six months I looked for er to go to her mama, but thank God and his agents, she is alive and well to-day and she will be three years old the seventh of December and has never sad a sign of the dread trouble since. I used every known remedy to alleto witness. Dr. C—— gave her up and then I went to C—— F—— and got Dr. B—— and he and Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment saved her. He recommended the Cuticura Remedies. or said we were right in making use of them. As nearly as I can remember, we used eight cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment; but you must take into consideration that hers was an exceptional case, for an old and good doctor said that it was the worst case that had come to him n forty years. I have always hinged on Cuticura Soap to keep her skin soft and give her a pure complexion. James Smith, Wood and Metal Pattern Maker, Box 234, Buena Vista, Va., Oct. 14 and 22, 1906."

Of the 123 counties Smith had carried in 1906 he lost 60. His opponent, Joseph M. Governor Smith came into power on three great issues, prohibition, the radical regulation of railroads, and negro disfranchisement. Of these, proibition has been enacted into law, the railroads have been made to step lively by executive action, and the disfranchisement of negro voters has been put into a constitutional amendment which is to be voted on in October of this year. Some observers see in the lefeat of Smith a repudiation of all his policies, and one member of the legislature who voted for the prohibition law announces that on the first day of the next session he will intro- a charming design for a linen or ra- soreness by using Peck's Corn Salve. duce a hill for it's repeal.
