

REPUTATION IN FURS

Quality is the main thing in furs. A mistake in buying at the wrong store will be a source of constant worry.

Furs are of an such description as to save labor, skins and qualities can be so manipulated as to imitate rare and costly skins. The only safe way is to buy from a store established and reputation, whose judgment is known to be correct, and whose standing in the community is beyond question.

We guarantee you absolutely against misrepresentation of any form. All we ask is that you consider us your guide in the standard of qualities and values.

MEN AFTER WORK
WANT TO GET JOBS ON THE LAKE VESSELS.

The Moors Elevator is Ready to Receive Grain—The Water Never So High As Now.

That there are plenty of men out of work is shown by the fact that every boat coming in the harbor, is visited by unemployed.

"We have men come on board looking for work at every port," said a marine man this morning.

There are so many men to be had at present, that drunkenness will not be tolerated. One grain vessel arriving in port this morning, discharged several of the crew, because they got drunk while the vessel was at Port Colborne. Another member of the crew was given his walking ticket because he fell asleep while on duty. He had been given six hours sleep, and in less than an hour after he went on duty, he was found taking a quiet nap in a secluded part of the vessel. He was told that when the boat reached Kingston his services would be no longer required. A new man was taken on here.

DO NOT WANT HIGH RATES.

Injunction to Stop Foresters' Increase.

A despatch to the Toronto Globe from Rochester says: "A temporary injunction was granted by Justice G. A. Benton restraining the supreme court of the Independent Order of Foresters from increasing its insurance rates pending the action brought on that point by Henry J. Simmola of this city. The matter of increasing the rates for insurance in this fraternal order was taken up at the convention in Toronto last week. Under the present order it will be impossible for the order to put the increase into effect."

JAMES T. SUTHERLAND.

Develops His Business to a Great Extent.

The Boot and Shoe Recorder has the following:

James T. Sutherland, who has been connected with Clark-Hutchinson company since 1901 in a selling capacity, is to be congratulated on having developed a business on his territory to the extent that an assistant has had to be provided for him so that he might continue to pursue the plans for further development and still be in close touch with the entire trade.

Covering the Dominion of Canada and all of the large cities in the south, from Baltimore, Md., to Key West, Fla., it would appear to the layman that the possibilities of trade in this vast territory, were limitless, and so they are, but to those who know, it is a recognized fact, that in this particular territory there are some very natural obstacles to overcome, but which, once removed, act as an aid, rather than otherwise, in establishing proper relations between the parties at interest.

"It must, therefore, be especially gratifying to find, that by concentrated effort and perseverance, a splendid development in this territory has been made possible which should result very satisfactorily to all concerned.

"With this assistance, James will be enabled to continue the plan of development which has already produced excellent results. Mr. Sutherland is noted for his fund of rich Canadian wit and humor, and very often when business is at hand, his friends (and he has a host of them), will be pleased to learn of this result of conscientious effort on his part, and wish him continued success."

A Startling Statement.

Canada is much more blessed with good water supplies than old world countries, yet with their over-crowded populations attention to the purity of the water supply gives London itself a position away ahead of Kingston on Lake Ontario. It cool weather took place on the 20th inst. at 6:30 p.m., at the residence of I. M. The ceremony was performed in the drawing room beneath a drapery of foliage and flowers, in the presence of a number of their Canadian friends, who have been much attached to them during their short residence in Canada. The bride was becomingly attired in a white mill princess dress, trimmed with valenciennes lace, wearing a bunch of real orange blossoms, and was led into the room by the host, I. M. Mayell. After the ceremony the party adjourned to the capacious dining-room, where a dainty lunch was served and toasts were drunk to the bride and groom.
