TOWN OF GANANOQUE

ACCIDENT TO A BASEBALL PLAYER.

Two Prominent Business Men Had a Street Fight—Bolt Company Closes Down For a Time on Account of Black Times.

Gananoque, July 4.—George Baker, King street, well-known in baseball circles, while unloading a car of freight onto his dray, this morning, met with quite a severe accident. He slipped while lifting a large box and fell between car and dray, with the box on top of him. His right leg was badlyrenched and he was bruised and cut up about the head and body.

Two prominent and well-known business men of the town got into a bit of an altercation in the west end, Thursday evening, and being unable to arrange the matter satisfactorily that way, made use of their fists in such a manner as to disfigure each other to such an extent that they could not show up at their places of business, yesterday.

An English family living in the east end got into an altercation with a neighboring family last evening, and to settle the affair the local police had to put in an appearance and threaten to arrest the troublemakers.

The Toronto Bolt and Forging company has closed down its works for a day or more on account of lack of orders, and their waterworks being overstocked.

The river traffic, yesterday, at the town wharf was the best of the season. The government supply boat Reserve with the Prescott in tow, which has been here since Saturday afternoon last, left yesterday morning.

Arrangements are being made to have the wooden wharf at the river front raised sufficiently so there will be no further difficulty in the regular boats landing in future.

Gananoque Inoculate team went down to defeat in Brockville by a score of five goals to nothing.

Mrs. Clarke Allen, Main street, spent yesterday with friends in Kingston. Frank Hurd, Kingston, who spent a short time this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hurd, Charles street, has returned home. Mrs. F. Hurd is remaining for some time.

Frederick McDonald, Meton, who has been spending a few days with friends in town, left for home, yesterday. Miss Sheets, of Ottawa, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Sheets, Stope street, for a short time. Miss Hunter, of Kingston, spent the past few days with friends in town. Mrs. Frederick Arthur, of Montreal, for many years a resident in the town, is spending some time here with relatives and friends.

Miss Flora Elder, Kingston, who has been visiting with friends here for a short time, has returned home. Mrs. Reid, Kingston, spent a short time in town this week. The guests of her cousin, Miss Wilson, Stone street. E. X. Delnois, King street, spent, yesterday, with friends in Kingston. Robert Murchie, John street, left, yesterday, for Montreal, and took passage on the Virginian for Scotland, where he will visit at his old home, "the Briggs O' Ayr."

Charles Macdonald, who has been spending the past ten days in Denver, Col., has returned home. Mrs. Edward Hall and daughter, Mrs. William Wilkinson, St. Catharines, are visiting with friends and relatives in town. Mr. and Mrs. George Abbott, Bristol, Conn., arrived in town during the past few days to spend the summer on Hay Island. Mrs. Robert Lipman, of Smith's Falls, is spending some time here, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leander La France, North street.

HALSTED DEAD.

He Was One of America's Great Editors.

Cincinnati, July 4.—Murat Halsted, one of the leaders in American journalism, died here on Thursday, in his seventy-ninth year. At his bedside was his wife, his son Robert and one daughter. Mrs. Arthur Stone, Meret Halstead had been failing in strength for several months, and yesterday suffered from cerebral hemorrhage.

The sudden death of his son Marshall a few months ago was a severe shock to Mr. Halsted, and it is believed to have had a direct effect on his health. Albert Halsted, another son, is American consul at Birmingham, England, and the other members of the family are scattered throughout the country.

Mr. Halsted was one of the great editors of the last half of the nineteenth century, and one of the strongest tributes to his incisiveness as a writer was in 1889, when his nomination by President Harrison to be American minister to Germany was rejected by the U.S. senate because of articles he had published charging corruption to some members of that body.

He was a native of Butler County, Ohio. In 1836 he became connected with the Cincinnati Commercial, becoming chief editor in 1865. Nearly twenty years later this paper was consolidated with the Gazette and he was editor-in-chief of the combined newspaper until years afterwards, when another consolidation was effected, new owners securing control. For a time he was editor of the Brooklyn Standard Union, and during the last ten years has figured largely as a German war and also in the Spanish-American war he added to his reputation in that line.

For fifty years he attended and reported all republican national conventions.

PLAYING HOT BALL

SIXTY-THREE STRIKEOUTS IN 19 INNINGS GAME.

Remarkable Ball Game at Kemptonville in the Ottawa Valley League Series.

Kemptonville, Ont., July 4.—The Oxford, of Kemptonville, were again victorious in the Ottawa Valley baseball series, when they defeated the Carleton Place nine at Kemptonville by four to three.

The game was the longest on record in the history of Kemptonville baseball, there being nineteen innings. The pitching on both sides was nothing short of phenomenal, sixty-three men being struck out at bat, of which Callaghan, Kemptonville's pitcher, is credited with thirty-three, and Ashton, Carleton's pitcher, with thirty.

After the sixth innings a Carleton man reached the home plate, while the Oxford were successful in being struck out only two men home. From the second to the nineteenth the Oxford had ten men left on bases, Carleton Place thirteen.

Six men got to first on balls.

Only two long hits were made, a three-bagger by Bradford, of Carleton, and a two-bagger by McPherson, of the Oxford.

White Linen Princess Gown.

There was a panel front and back to give the princess effect. The skirt was plain and finished by a deep hem, but the bodice was ornamented by bands of black linen, soutache braiding and scarfs of white princess lace, which were under slashes in the linen.

THEATRE BLOOD IN HER.

Girl of Sixteen is to Play Juliet.

London, July 4.—The youngest actress to play Juliet on a professional stage is Miss Leah Bateman-Hunter, a girl of sixteen, who is to appear in the matinee which Miss Bateman (Mrs. Crowe), is giving at the Kingsway Theatre in aid of the Dental Hospital.

It is not given to every one to jump from school to the professional stage in a successful manner. Miss Bateman-Hunter, however, is a girl of sixteen, but only a few among them Lady Martin (Helen Faucit) have been in their teens when they acted Juliet.

Indeed, Juliet usually marks the zenith of an actress' career, instead of its very beginning, as in the case of Miss Bateman-Hunter. Last autumn she was still at boarding school.

A reporter found her resting yesterday afternoon after a busy rehearsal. "I think it is everybody's dream to play Juliet before a London audience," she said. "I cannot believe I am really going to do it."

"My principal idea is the absolute childishness of Juliet. She is not a woman—she is a child all through. She never holds on to one thing for more than a minute. She has all the inconsequence of a child."

Miss Bateman-Hunter has the blood of the theatre in her. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Crowe, famous for two generations as an actress, whose father bought the Lyceum Theatre to give Irving a chance. And like her grandmother, who started acting at five years, she showed her interest for acting at an equally early age. She would recite things which she could not possibly understand, putting the right tones and expressions on her phrases.

Some women are so fond of antiquities that they would make bric-a-brac of the ten commandments.

Dollar Bills By Weight.

Kansas City Star.

"Dollar bills are worth almost their weight in gold," a bank president said the other day to a depositor.

"Yes, I suppose they come in handy for change and are easy to carry," the depositor replied, absently.

"No, I was speaking literally," the bank president said. "We got into an argument in the bank here the other day as to how much a dollar bill weighed. A $20 gold piece weighs 540 grains. We found that twenty-seven crisp new $1 bills weighed the same as a $20 gold piece. We tested some bills that had been in use and found that it took but twenty-six of them to balance the gold piece. I suppose that twenty-six used bills gather an accumulation of dirt in passing from hand to hand that weighs about what one new bill does."

Kill Little Ones.

At the first signs of illness during the hot weather months give the little ones Baby's Own Tablets or in a few hours the child may be beyond cure. These Tablets will prevent summer complaints if given occasionally to well children, and will promptly cure these troubles if they come unexpectedly. Baby's Own Tablets are absolutely safe. Mrs. E. LeBrun, Carleton Place, says: "Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine I know of for regulating the stomach and bowels. I think no mother should be without this medicine." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c. a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

DISEASES IN ORCHARDS.

Reasons Given For Apple Trees Dying.

Mr. McNeil, of the fruit department at Ottawa, in writing about his attendance at orchard meetings in Ontario, says:

"I was fortunate enough to be able to attend three meetings last week. I spent the forenoon visiting as many orchards as I could reach, and the afternoon was given up to our meeting in some suitable orchard. I was very much impressed with the fact that it would pay well to have some one who would visit these orchards, and point out the mistakes that are being made and the causes for some partial failures. For instance: I found that in the Colborne-Brighton district ten or fifteen per cent. of the old trees were dead or dying, and that the owners were attributing this loss to every cause but the right one. There were three or four diseases and combination of diseases which accounted for winter killing, defects, collar rot and canker; third, the oyster shell bark louse, often, indeed usually, in combination with both these causes; and then there were a variety of insects that were doing more or less damage. The unfortunate thing is that the orchardists themselves have no clear conception of what is the matter with their trees. They apparently have been content just to let them grow and pick the fruit."

Councils Meet On A Mountain.

Cardiff, July 4.—The Myrnyddistyl and Blaenau (Monmouth) district councils met yesterday on the side of a mountain to consider the question of the approach to the Nine Mile Point station on the London and North-Western railway. The meeting, chaired by a chairman, though there was no chair, and the members stood around him in the fashion of the Gorsedd circle.

Clearing It Up.

"To which is a man most closely related," said the genealogist, "his first divorced wife's second husband or his present wife's first divorced husband?"

"So far as I can see, one tie is about as close as the other," said a thoughtful friend.

"So I should say," said the genealogist, "but Billy Bowen must have figured out a difference. Anyhow, when his first wife's second husband died he went to a ball game, but when his present wife's first husband died he went into mourning. I can't understand that."

"I can," said the thoughtful friend. "Billy's present wife was on the point of divorcing him so that she could remarry her first husband. Now that he is dead she has decided to stick to Billy."

"Ah," said the genealogist.

The Breathless Model.

When Sir Luke Fildes was painting his famous picture, "The Village Wedding," he employed a rustic to pose as model for the bridegroom. Soon after the artist had begun to paint the model turned deadly white. "Are you all right, sir?" asked Sir Luke anxiously. "Nav," said the man, "I be all right, zur." However, the painter made him rest awhile, but when he resumed work a little later the unfortunate "bridegroom" became even paler than before, and in serious alarm Sir Luke ordered "the fellow" to be taken to the hospital. "It's nothing at all except the 'olding of my breath so long," replied the model. For some extraordinary reason, he had imagined that it was necessary for him to refrain from breathing all the time he was having his portrait painted.

Will You Try An L. C. Smith Typewriter?

We do not belong to any trust and nobody dictates the PRICE we sell at or HOW we shall sell.

That's OUR business.

We sell our machine strictly on its merit.

All the writing on the L. C. Smith is always in sight, and direct in the line of vision. The WRITING LINE IS INDICATED, and the FEEDING POINT IS POINTED OUT so that the L. C. Smith is just WHAT WE CLAIM—a perfect VISIBLE typewriter.

The typebar and hanger are the heart of a typewriter, that means they are the most vital part—a weak typebar means a weak typewriter. Show us a typebar-bearing that is narrow and has no wearing surface, and it tells us that under hard wear such a typewriter will not retain its alignment, and sooner or later will get out of order.

On the L. C. Smith the bearing is wide and the bar heavy, and will stand years and years of hard work.

And remember THIS IS the machine we want to place in your office or trial and examination AT OUR EXPENSE. It doesn't cost you a penny to try it.

Then again, with the L. C. Smith one machine is equipped to do all kinds of work—better writing, invoicing, billing, tabulating, figures, stencil cutting, without touching the ribbon and heavy manifolding anything that any typewriter can do. The L. C. Smith will do—and more.

You can lift the platen, or writing cylinder, right out and put in another in a second. You can write in two colors, and you do not have to touch your ribbon from the time you put it in the machine till it is worn out.

You can do all these things, and many more, and do them better than you can with any other typewriter.
