CLERKS ROB EMPLOYERS OF BIG SUM.

Laurier's Ship of State is the Best For the People-A Vancouver Paper Modulated Its Criticism

pecial Correspondence. Vancouver, July 2.-One of the most ungenerous, as well as most despicable acts of wholesale thievery, standing without a parallel, in Vancouver, and perhaps not having one earthed here.

For some time past the large whole sale hardware firm of McLennen, Mc-Feeley & Co. have reluctantly been grounding a suspicion that they were being robbed by their employees, and finally they put detectives at work around, and entangled in its meshes, several clerks. When they found that they were caught the clerks weakened confessed their guilt, and it is said that one young man, who is of a respectable family in the middle west, and so much ashamed of himself that he made an attempt to com

The clerks had been working conjunction with some of the teamsters in the employ of the M. T. Co., which made their operations com- 5c WONDERLAND 5 paratively easy. Three of the clerks, as well as the guilty teamsters, have

That these young men are only putting into actual practice the teaching which is openly given to them on the street corners at the present day, which teaching seems to meet with no interference from the laws of our land is plainly apparent, but that they would select the firm of McLennan. McFeely & Co. for their operation is beyond understanding, because this firm above all others, has always been known to have been a friend of labor and has always treated its employees the utmost consideration. In deed it is well known and generally conceded that the "cause of labor, which is held up before us so much at the present day, has no better nor truer friend that R. P. McLennan, the manager of the big concern which labor has just robbed. The bigness of the man and his method of treating with his employees cannot be better shown than by the fact that he is prepared to stand his heavy with no farther satisfaction than the dismissal of the offenders. He fases to prosecute, stating that he believes the young men will be amply ished by their shame.

The political entanglement is no more and more complex, and the horizon shows signs of a terrible many a day. The proverhial which is always said to precede, has lready been felt throughout the land. The people are standing and waiting, many are fearful of the results.

some are becoming alarmed. I do not believe that there is any cause for alarm; neither do I believe we have another ship capable of being rigged and manned and captained, which will give the same security as he one whose captain is Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The man or newspaper that tries to besmirch him, or describe him other than a statesman of the highleast. It is true that the speed the ship of which he is the captain has slowed a pace, but this need not cause any great consternation. She is capable of just as great speed and safety as ever. All she wants is overhauling and the barnacles cleaned Our great ships crossing the brine could not maintain their wonderful speed if they were not scraped occasionally to prevent the barnacle from fastening himself to her, and it is with the ship of state. If send material there which proves to a barnacle, and which interferes with the progress and safety of the people and their interests, then it duty, when the proper time sense, or an intelligent public, The suggestion is preposterous.

A certain Vancouver daily which on the strongest side, whichever side that may be, started out 'some time ago to champion the cause the Borden-Foster party, and opened its columns to ridicule and caricature Sir Wilfrid. Its subscribers were heard from, with the result that the car tone modulated. "The wind bloweth where it listeth."
