

THE ROYAL SOCIETY

HELD MEETING AT LAVAL, IN QUEBEC.

In Honor of Champlain—Lieut. Col. McNamara in Command of the British Naval and Military Veterans, of Boston.

Quebec, July 21.—The Royal Society of Canada held a meeting at ten o'clock this morning in the convention hall of Laval University in honor of Champlain. It was attended by the governor-general and most of the official guests to the tercentenary festival. An address was read by the president and the presentation of new medals took place.

Lieut. Col. W. McNamara, late of the 15th Royal Irish Regiment, now commanding the British naval and military veterans from Boston, Mass., at present quartered at the Auditorium in company with Lieuts. Erling and Clancy, had an interview with Lord Roberts yesterday who was very pleased to meet them again. The trio had served under "Bob" during the South African war. Among the visiting veterans, there is one who was engaged in the Crimea. Lieut. Erling, who is attached to the British consulate at Boston, served all through the siege of Mafeking, and just two days before peace was proclaimed he was wounded in both legs.

On Col. McNamara's staff are the following: Gen. Goodale, U.S.A., A.D.C.; Capt. Goodale, Major L. Chey and Capt. Wilcox, Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.; Col. Lowe, Hartford, Conn., and a distinguished party from Boston. The ablest colonel in command is a young man going on the good side of forty, and is proud of his charge. The veterans will remain in the city until the end of this week.

That the people of our great Canada would recognize that the tercentenary celebration is of a national character, is testified by the fact that the city councils of Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., have both sent their mayors, Alexander Bethune and Dr. Lewis Hill respectively, to Quebec, the municipality bearing the cost of their long trip. These gentlemen arrived in the city yesterday and are guests at the Chateau Frontenac.

The Second Day.

Quebec, July 21.—The second day of the tercentenary celebration was an uneventful one, everything awaiting the arrival of the Prince of Wales.

The accretions to the crowd in attendance were very noticeable, even the train arriving in the city bringing full quotas of passengers, of whom many had difficulty in finding accommodation in the already crowded city. The performances, to-day, took very much the shape of full-dress rehearsals, and the results were such as to show that the state presentations will be worthy of the occasion for which they were organized. The main attraction for the crowd was the city itself in the naval glee it has been decked out in for the celebration. The great features were the first formal performance of the "Christophe Colomb" and the performance of Felicien Davids' symphonic ode, "Christophe Colomb," both of which were well attended. In fact, the crowd at the pageant was a surprise to the management, close upon ten thousand people attending. There was also a very large audience at the first performance of "Christophe Colomb."

Already sufficient people have arrived to assure the success of the celebration, while enough are coming to make certain that it will be much more than ordinary success. The main difficulty which has been so far experienced was due to the breaking down of the city water supply, a difficulty which the city is accustomed to, but which proved very annoying to the visitors. A break developed in the main water pipes, late in the night, which almost entirely suspended the supply. Different sections of the city received a supply at intervals through the old pipes, but the supply was scant.

Coming at such a time, the break in the water pipes caused much annoyance, the hotels being deprived of the supply for their guests. This morning the position of affairs was worse, and not only were visitors unable to get enough water for baths, but in many hotels the position was so bad that there was not enough water for drinking purposes. In the military camps the scarcity of water was felt much more severely. The camp on the Levis side of the river was particularly fortunate, since they had the regular supply from the town of Levis, while those relying upon the Quebec municipal supply were cast upon the resources of the river and such wells as they could find. However, this difficulty was ended, and gradually the city water supply was resumed, first in the lower town and then in the higher districts and the camps.

The Rain Held Off.

Too much water in the heavens and too little in the city mains threatened to make the day an unfortunate one for the celebration. While the city suffered through the short supply of fluid, rain came down in big drops several times during the afternoon, and when the crowd were seated on the stand at the pageant grounds at five o'clock it seemed only a matter of a few minutes before the downpour would come. The rain held off in a surprising manner, however, and the performers and their costumes were saved the drenching that would have had disastrous results. Half way through there was a light shower, and those in the front of the stand secured back for refuge under the roof in the rear. The rain, however, lasted only a few minutes and the performance went on without interruption.

The first performance of the military tattoo, given by the assembled Canadian forces, was given this evening on the grounds of the Quebec Amateur Athletic association. Practically all the troops represented at the tercentenary took part in the military pageant, the various detachments comprising 500 men each.

On Thursday the troops will all assemble on the Plains of Abraham for a rehearsal of the royal review. On the conclusion of the parade the troops

A MURDER CASE OF MYSTERIOUS TYPE.

A Young Woman Shot and Instantly Killed in Irving Square Park in Brooklyn—The Murderer Left a Difficult Case.

New York, July 21.—A pretty young woman, apparently twenty-four years old, neatly attired and of refined appearance, was shot and instantly killed in Irving Square park, Brooklyn, early to-day, by a murderer who escaped. Every possible means of identifying the woman was made. Her umbrella bears the name of a New York departmental store. The body was found in the boiler room adjoining the shelter house of the park twenty minutes after the girl was slain, but so skillfully had the murderer laid his plans the police admit that he left for them one of the most mysterious cases with which they have been called upon to contend in many years.

The Prince of Wales.

The arrangements for the arrival of the Prince of Wales, to-day, are as follows: He will reach Quebec on the 23rd at two o'clock, and will be greeted with salutes from the warships and the citadel. Official visits will then be made to his royal highness by the lieutenant-governor, the governor-general and Lord Roberts, who will be followed by the premier of the province, the representative of the Lieutenant-governor of the province of Ontario, the lieutenant-governor of the province, and the chairman of the battlefields commission and the officers of the military staff in command of the military forces here. He will land at four o'clock at the King's wharf, where an address of welcome will be read by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, after which he will proceed to the citadel, the streets to be lined with troops.

At the special command of the Prince of Wales, the guard of honor of a hundred men will be furnished by the 3rd B.C.O.R., of Ottawa, of which the prince is honorary colonel. They will meet the prince at the wharf.

Everything is in readiness for the arrival of the prince and the formal opening of the festivities. The decorations are complete, and military units are in readiness, the warships are arrayed in order along the St. Lawrence, and the city is full to repletion with visitors. There is every indication that when his royal highness lands on Canadian soil he will be greeted with the greatest demonstration that this, Canada's oldest city, has ever seen, and one worthy of what is really the three-hundredth birthday of Canada.

Mayor Garneau, who will extend the civic welcome to the Prince of Wales on Thursday, welcomed Prince Arthur of Connaught to the city in 1906, a similar honor to that enjoyed by his father, His Highness Prince Arthur, who, as mayor, greeted the Duke of Connaught on his arrival in the ancient capital in 1870.

THE TUNNEL TROUBLE.

The Americans Rushing Work on Canadian Soil.

Chatham, Ont., July 21.—Herbert S. Clements, M.P., says, respecting the present state of the Windsor-Detroit tunnel controversy, which he stirred up recently: "After stirring up the matter in the house, a letter was received from the United States department, having the matter in charge, saying that it had extended the same rights and privileges to Canadian firms. But in work of that kind, Canada never gets a chance. American contractors get ninety-nine chances where Canadian contractors get only one. When the matter was exposed the tunnel people moved all their forces from the American side to the Canadian side of the tunnel, hoping to get as much as possible done before being held up in the matter. The matter will likely remain as it is at present."

HAD FINGERS CUT BADLY.

While Trying to Save Lover From Suiciding.

Detroit, Mich., July 21.—While preventing her sweetheart, Robert Coombs, from committing suicide by cutting his throat, last night, Miss Flora Cook, Toronto, was severely wounded on the left hand. Coombs is a chef at the Hotel Oxford and, last night, he returned to his room intoxicated. It is said Miss Cook took him to task and declared that she intended to leave him. Coombs locked the outside door and took a razor from the dresser and attempted to draw it across his throat, when Miss Cook grabbed him. The first two fingers on her left hand were nearly amputated. She was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where her wounds were dressed and Coombs locked up. She will not prosecute.

19 PASSENGERS KILLED.

By the Disaster to a German Steamship.

San Francisco, July 21.—It is reported that nineteen passengers are killed aboard the wreck of the German steamship Annabiss, which is pounding to pieces on the rocks off California, between Santiago and San Manuel. Four tugs have been despatched from this city to rescue the imperiled people. A terrific sea is running and there is great danger that the wreck will go entirely to pieces.

Defend Rockefeller.

Atlanta, Ga., July 21.—At the meeting of the Atlanta Baptist Ministers' association there was a chorus of cheers when Dr. John E. White, pastor of the Second Baptist church, defended John D. Rockefeller. "John D. Rockefeller has always been a good Baptist," he declared, "and a good philanthropist. I think it is abominable the way he is treated. We all know that Mr. Rockefeller is not the demon he is painted."

Cheese Markets.

Jubilant Over Rain.

Keelville, July 20.—Farmers are jubilant over the fine rain that fell Friday and Saturday. It came in good time for the grain and root crops. The potato bug is giving the farmers a lot of trouble this year. Many from here attended the Orange celebration at Jones' Falls, on the 13th. John E. Boyd has his new barn nearly finished. It is one of the largest barns in the township. Harold Sleeth, the carpenter, deserves great praise for the good workmanship and the comparatively short time the work was done in. A little girl has come to stay at Eton College. Mrs. J. Stanley has been under the weather. A slight cold, which is making its rounds here. Mr. and Mrs. John Banks visited at Seely's Bay on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon, Jr., spent Sunday at William Sleeth's, Royal Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Wellburn, Pittsburg township, and Charles Clark's, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Knapp and daughter, Carrying Place, and Robert Duff, Rockwood Hospital, Kingston, at J. E. Anglin's. David Sleeth has traded horses with Everett Caird. J. E. Anglin and wife attended the large dinner party given on Big Island by Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Lake, proprietor of the Granite house, Battersea. Mr. Lake took the party in his motor boat. Our cheese factory is doing good work, this year; a good supply of milk, and the best cheese that goes on the market.

Lady Sprained Her Wrist.

Bethel, July 17.—A. Salsbury and Walter Higgs attended the celebration on Saturday at Roblin. About sixty of the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Salsbury spent a very enjoyable evening last week dancing. Mr. Wellington Perry and Mrs. Fred McWilliams spent a day recently at Mrs. Wesley Curd. Mrs. Cranston, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Curd, fell the other evening and sprained her wrist very badly. Thomas Hamilton and Miss Fies, Newburgh, called at Mr. Salsbury's on Sunday evening. The evening was all year could be desired for the law social at J. B. Alcombrack's. Mr. Randall had the misfortune of having a fine young horse get its feet fast in a rock hole and it is hurt so badly they fear they will have to shoot it. Miss Lizzie Mannion is home from Sydneyham. Mr. and Mrs. Lupton, of Sydney, Hay Bay, were over Sunday visitors at John Jayne's.

Could Not Pass The Examination.

Youth Companion.

A dilapidated specimen of a man stopped a Kansas City merchant on the street, one morning, and asked for a cash donation. "Mister," he said, in a plaintive voice, "I haven't had any work to do for more'n a month, an' I'm powerful hard up."

Exciting Time on Train Coming From St. Catharines.

Niagara Falls, July 21.—The passengers on No. 8 Grand Trunk Express had an exciting time between St. Catharines and the Falls. Francesco Sabello, ticketed through to France, became violently insane, tearing off his clothing and stabbing himself with a big jackknife in the abdomen, inflicting nine wounds, one very severe. The passengers, not being armed, did not interfere. He was secured by the train hands. The company's physician then attended him. He had American naturalization papers, which secured his admission to American territory, where the authorities took charge of him.

SUCCESS OF A BATTERSEA CHILD AT ENTRANCE.

Her Father Must Buy a Piano Now That She Has Been So Successful—Other Battersea News.

Battersea, July 21.—The garden party, under the auspices of the Battersea, Methodist Church, which has been held last Friday night, on F. Ball's lawn, had to be postponed on account of the rain. The ice cream was disposed of by the ladies on Saturday night to the crowd of people gathered in the village. Another attempt will be made to conduct the social this week.

The recent beautiful rains have gladdened all hearts, even of those who were unfortunate enough to have a lot of hay cut down. But the delight of those who were through having their crops ruined by rain for help was beyond compare.

The recent horn-blowings in the papers over smart entrance pupils from other places, constrains us to give ours a little too also. One of the successful pupils of our village school is little Alice Jamieson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jamieson. This bright and clever little lady is just nine years of age and has been attending school about three years.

When Miss Todd assumed charge of our school, two and one-half years ago, she was then in the first book. Her rapid advancement in a child so young who can equal or beat this. Perhaps the pleasantest feature in connection with the little girl's success is that it has won her a piano from her father, who had promised her one when she passed the entrance, but which he thought she would put him in for it so soon. He is at present absent in the west, and did not even know she was going to try the examination this year.

S. J. Lake and wife, of the Granite house, gave a complimentary excursion to the lake and its launch Homer to about twenty of their friends recently, including a picnic and dinner on one of the islands, which was greatly enjoyed by all. George Matthews has erected the frame of his new barn, which will be a fine structure. C. Bennett is erecting his new residence on Factory street.

Fergus Jardine has improved his house by a new roof and a coat of paint. The number of fishing tourists from the United States, who have been stopping at the Granite house, this season, has been unusually large. Rural visitors have also been very numerous of late, and include the following: Dr. E. J. Lake and family, of Kingston, and friends from Pictou, at Dr. S. K. Lake's; T. Duncan, Queen's College, at Isaac Lake's; Miss Lena Eby, city, at W. H. Jamieson's; Mr. Morley and friend, Harrowsmith, at W. Kirkpatrick's; Mrs. T. E. Hughes and Miss Norma, city, and Mr. and Mrs. Hyde, of Rochester, at Isaac Holder's; Mrs. and Miss Ruthven, Elgin, and Misses Adams, Newboro, at G. Matthews'; Miss Georgia M. Urquhart, at Charles S. Bay's; S. Knapp's; Miss Paul, city, at F. Balls'; Mrs. B. Sheldon, of Essex, at James Hughes'; F. W. Vanlue and family, late of Kingston, and R. A. Vanlue and wife, Smith's Falls, at C. M. Vanlue's.

Dr. S. Arthur, Scranton, Iowa, accompanied by his father, J. Arthur, Latimer, called on old friends here last week. O. R. Sears, Montreal, spent part of his vacation with his parents here. Mrs. J. L. Sears is visiting with her daughter at Thornburg, and Bridgeport. The Organum of the place attended divine service on the 12th inst., and heard a strong sermon from Rev. Mr. Shorten. Mrs. Sheldon rendered the solo, "I Walk With Him," etc., in fine voice. If the names of any visitors are omitted it is an oversight.

Bruce and Jennings have arrived at W. R. Toll's and will spend some time rustating on the shores of Loughboro Lake. Miss Alta and Albert Johnston and Norman Freeman successfully passed their promotion examinations at Sydneyham High School. Mrs. H. McConnell is home and will remain for a time. J. Shepherd, after an absence of ten years, is home again visiting the scenes of his boyhood. W. Johnston is remodeling his kitchen. D. Stoney is doing the work. Mrs. A. Hart, of Saskatchewan, is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. W. J. Hart, at Dr. and Mrs. S. W.
