NOT YET SETTLED

As to Responsibility For York Road Repairs.

The question as to whether th county council or the Kingston township council is responsible for the maintenance; of the York Road from Kingston to Westbrooke, has not yet been settled. A decision of the courts has yet to be handed out. W. F. Nickle, solicitor for the county; told the county council, on Friday, that it was impossible to say how the decision would go. The law provides for the result of the county abandoning a toll road and leaving it for the township to care for, as a township road, The situation was a most peculiar
