The question as to whether the ounty council or the Kingston township council is responsible for the maintenance of the York Road from Kingston to Westbrooke, has not yet been settled. A decision of the courts has yet to be handed out. W. F. Nickle, solicitor for the county, told the county council, on Friday, that it was impossible to say how the decision would go. The law provides for no such contingency as had arisen as the result of the county abandoning a toll road and leaving it for the township to care for, as a township goad.
