

The Daily British Whig

KINGSTON, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 1908.

LAST EDITION

YEAR 75--NO. 185.

DRILL YOUTHS

Lord Roberts Urges This in Canadians.

SPOKE AT OTTAWA

IN REPLY TO A PLEASING CITY ADDRESS.

Believes It Absolutely Essential That Entire Male Population Should Be Prepared For Defense in Time of Danger.

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—Lord Roberts received a civic address presented by the mayor of Ottawa at Government House in the presence of 150 army veterans. Replying to the address Lord Roberts said he was deeply sensible of the friendly and even affectionate greeting he had received from the Canadian people.

He had, he continued, always wanted to visit Canada ever since he had commanded the Canadian troops in South Africa, and he was glad to notice the demonstration of Canada's growing military strength by the splendid body of troops assembled at Quebec. He hoped to return to Canada soon and see more of the marvelous fertility and resources of the country with which he was so impressed.

Lord Roberts urged the adoption in all the provinces of Canada of the system of military drill for school children now adopted in Nova Scotia. He believed that every youth should receive during his career at school between the ages of ten and eighteen a rudimentary course in military and physical drill, and that his military training should continue after he left school.

"In my judgment," he said, "it is absolutely essential, even at the present day, for the safety and welfare of a nation that the whole male population should be prepared to take their share in its defense in times of danger."

Speaking of the zest for athletic sports in Canada he said:

"I am a firm believer in their value if carried out in a true spirit and in moderation. But I hope that young Canadians will always remember that in athletics, as in all relations of life, they must play the game in the truest sense of that term. They must play for the sake of the game, preferring to lose it fairly rather than to win it unfairly. They must be ready not to grudge their opponents every fair advantage, and they must be prepared to lose with good temper and to win without boasting."

DAILY MEMORANDA.

See The bargains. In Summer Hats. At Campbell Bros' slaughter sale. Steamer Caspian to Thousand Islands, 10.15 a.m., to-morrow. Rideau Steamer for Clayton, Friday and Saturday, 6.15 p.m. Steamer America's trip among the islands, 2.30 p.m., Saturday. See Amusement Column for the four Moving Picture Shows and Park Vaudeville. Excursion, Str. America to Cape Vincent and Watertown, Saturday and Sunday. Bijou Theatre—The Land of (Kipling's) "Fuzzy Wuzzies." "Love in a Sack-Show." "Traveling." "Home to the City of the People." "Edgar Summer Sing." "Won't You Dance Home Sweet Home With Me?"

August 7th, In Canadian History. 1666—First ships built in Canada said to have been launched at Quebec. 1837—Seven lives lost by the falling of a suspension bridge at St. John, N.B. 1847—Seventy thousand Irish emigrants arrived at Quebec during the eight months ending with this date. 1867—Works were issued for a general election which resulted successfully for the Government in every Province except Nova Scotia. 1869—Royal assent given to the Act of Parliament placing the salary of the Governor-General at $20,000. 1882—William C. Van Horne succeeded Sir George Stephen as President of the Canadian Pacific Railway. 1890—Joseph Martin dismissed from the office of Attorney-General of British Columbia, and replaced by Alexander Henderson. 1900—Hon. Alfred G. Jones appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia. 1905—The Foresters' Orphan's Home, near Deseronto, Ontario, opened with appropriate ceremonies.

FANCY PLATES

Never in the history of this store have we shown so many styles of Fancy Plates, or so many pretty designs costing so little.

Rich Doulton Plates from 15 Cents to $2.00 Each.

ROBERTSON BROS.

For Every Variety of Dwellings. Lots, Etc.

In the city, including Farm Lots, in Western Canada in the best location. Apply to SWIFF'S REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE AGENCY.

SEALER & PICKLE BOTTLES

55c for quart, 25c for Pickle Bottles. Everything reduced for this month, at TURK'S Second-Hand Store. Phone, 705.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

The Very Latest Culled From All Over The World.

Hay and fruit crops are good in Western New York.

Cholera is rampant in the Madras Presidency in India.

An overdraft of $10,000 has been made by the Hamilton board of works.

Darius Wagle is the conservative candidate in South Essex for the commons.

William H. P. Callough, of Hamilton, is under arrest for a bigamy charge.

City Clerk Scully, New York, issued during the month of July 2,773 marriage licenses.

Howard Browne was sentenced at Hamilton to six months for neglecting his wife.

Five gold claims at Sturgeon lake have been purchased by United States operators for $25,000.

Laird, conservative candidate in Regina, Sask., has begun suit for libel against Hon. Walter Scott.

Lady Violet Elliot, now visiting at Ottawa, showed Earl Grey at Deschênes that she could milk a cow.

Robert E. Eastman, New York stock broker, was arrested in Chicago charged with obtaining money by false pretenses.

William Penny aged twenty-five, married, shipped from a log he was whirling in Muskegon Lake, Mich., and was drowned.

Thomas E. Edison, being now worth $1,000,000, has decided to stop working for profit, and hereafter intends to work for pleasure only.

William E. Dinn, stage manager of the vaudeville theatre at Erie, Pa., was electrocuted during a play by accidentally touching a switchboard.

Antonio Girouard, a Montreal youth awaiting trial on a burglary charge, slipped from his cell at the court house, but was caught after a sharp chase.

Sheriff W. H. O'Connell, of Helena, Mont., has been sued for the $13,000 taken from bandits who robbed a Great Northern train near Rondo last year.

Thoughtful protesting, that the city should give his neighbors a safe, Thomas L. Dirillbliss, who shot and killed Jacob Offerle in a quarrel over a spring, was held without bail at Oil City.

Mrs. Elizabeth Barnett, recently acquitted at Bay City, Mich., of the murder of Oscar Peterson, is reported to have escaped from the sheriff who had her in custody on a charge of forgery and to be hiding in the heavy brush around Saginaw Bay.

CONTRIBUTES $1,000

Washington, Aug. 7.—A voluntary contribution of $1,000 has been made by the American National Red Cross for the sufferers from the forest fires now raging in British Columbia. Secretary McGee of the Red Cross Society telegraphed the contribution to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, extending at the same time the society's sympathy for the sufferers.

The two-year-old daughter of Joss Shields, at Clay City, Ind., was left by her mother in charge of her father. She followed some ducks to a pond while the father slept, and was drowned in two feet of water.

At St. John's, Mich., John Allen and Walter Reynolds were asphyxiated by gas in the city reservoir, and William H. Smith, John Harley and Walter Polzin, a sixteen-year-old boy, were overcome while trying to rescue them.

To Renounce Society.

New York, Aug. 7.—Miss Marian Woolman, of Burlington, N.J., a Vassar graduate and member of an old Quaker family, has renounced society and in a few days will marry G. S. Hewitt, one of the officers of the Patterson corps of the Salvation Army. The honeymoon is to be spent in preaching and visiting the poor and the young couple will continue their work in the Army.

FELL FROM STAGING

MANY TRAGEDIES REPORTED IN NOVA SCOTIA.

Private Bitzner, R. C. R., Shot Himself at Halifax—Light-house Keeper Was Found Dead.

Halifax, N.S., Aug. 7.—The following fatalities are reported:

At Yarmouth, Edward Moseley, becoming intoxicated, died from poisoning. An analysis of his stomach will be made.

At North Yarmouth James Durkee fell twenty-five feet from a staging and received such injuries that recovery is doubtful.

Word has been received at North Sydney that the lighthouse keeper, Rennie, on Green Island, Straits of Belle Isle, has been found dead from a pistol wound. Rennie had been drinking.

The tragedy was discovered when the light was snuffed for two nights.

At Halifax John Bitzner, a private in the Royal Canadian regiment, last night shot himself through the head with a rifle, the deed being prompted by despondency over imprisonment for violating the regulations. He will die.

In St. John Mrs. Willis, leaving home to go down town, fell dead on the sidewalk from heart failure.

Your Friends Will Be Aboard.

The steamer America on Civic Holiday on her famous tour of the islands, 2.30 p.m., fare 50c.

NEW HANDS

The Strikers' Places Are Being Filled.

THREE HUNDRED

TAKEN ON AT C.P.R. SHOPS IN MONTREAL.

In Spite of the Pickets—Who Tried to Induce New Men to Stay Away—No Serious Intimidation.

Montreal, Aug. 7.—In spite of the fact that the C.P.R. were busy filling the places of the men who went out on strike, and the union had pickets posted all around, the company's Angus shops yesterday passed off without any disturbances of any kind. The men who went out are all still out, but there was a big crowd of unemployed mechanics besieging the office of the company and 300 new hands were taken on and set to work.

It is claimed that they are all skilled mechanics. The union pickets were at all of the twenty-one entrances to the shops, and they did their best to persuade the applicants for the jobs to go away without entering the office. They did not resort to violence and the large staff of special constables, who were parading the district, had no work to do beyond keeping an eye on the pickets.

The company says there are enough idle mechanics in the city to fill all the positions which are vacant, and say that they are taking their time, and choosing the men carefully so as to get only skilled mechanics. Those who are taken on now are satisfied they will be retained, the places of the strikers being filled. No more of the regular employees went out this morning, although the pickets met them as they were going in and tried to persuade them not to do so.

The men claim that there are sixty locomotives for the western trade in the shops being repaired, which cannot possibly be got out in time to move the wheat.

Telegraphers here say there is nothing in the rumor that the men are going out on strike. Telegraphers say they have nothing to strike for, and the great majority of them would not favor a strike. The officials of the union held another meeting to-day, however, and the rumor is still going the rounds.

Whyte's Statement.

Vancouver, B.C., Aug. 7.—William Whyte, second vice-president, said to-day:

"It is not our place to talk or act in the matter. When the constitution committee made its ruling I telegraphed Ottawa from Winnipeg and told them that their findings were not, from our point of view, a satisfactory settlement of the company's claims, but in order to carry out the spirit of the conciliation act we would agree to them. We did not precipitate the present situation and we are saying nothing about it."

CHURCH UNION.

Rev. W. H. Stacey Secures 35,000 Names to Petition.

Toronto, Aug. 7.—There are thirty-five thousand persons in Toronto who favor church union. This is the number secured by Rev. W. H. Stacey, who is circulating a petition. When fifty thousand church members here have subscribed to the principle the petition will be presented to the governing bodies of all the Protestant churches, including the Anglicans and Baptists, who so far have not entered into the movement. On Sunday afternoon, September 6th, a large meeting will be held in Massey hall, preparatory to the presenting of the petition.

Had A Fine Picnic.

Collins Bay, Aug. 5.—Patmaster R. J. McDonald, regarding the side-walk walks, which were badly in need of it. The English church people held a garden party in G. Marsh's grove, on Tuesday evening, but owing to the cloudy and rainy weather a small crowd was in attendance. G. Marsh and family, Portsmouth, were guests at G. Marsh's on Sunday. Also Miss Maud Marsh, Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting her parents here. Miss Emma Rankin, Miss Annie Vanlue and Miss Lorraine Smith, Westbrooke, are spending a week at Thousand Islands Park. Miss Mabel Howard returned home on Tuesday, after a visit with relatives in Bath. The Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday schools held their annual picnic at Lake Ontario Park, on Wednesday last.

Drove Nail Into Head.

Binghamton, N.Y., Aug. 7.—Frederick C. Niles, a prominent prohibitionist of Chango bridge, attempted suicide with a hammer and nail, yesterday. Niles had been suffering from nervous trouble and was attended by Dr. Frederick Foraker, of this city. The physician led the room for a few moments when Niles procured a hammer and a long nail, driving the steel in his brain with one blow of the hammer. The physician removed the nail and Niles is still alive.

The estimate of provincial receipts from succession duty for this year, has already been exceeded by $1,000,000.

Allert Brown, about fifty-nine years of age, was found dead in his room, at 181 George street, Toronto.

A. H. Rickard, ex-manager of the Bank of Hamilton, at Port Huron, committed suicide.

PROFIT AND LOSS.

This Account to Stand the Marine Dullness.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 6.—President Livingston, president of the Lake Carriers' association, does not expect much improvement in the carrying trade. He says: "My own opinion is that there will be little or no actual improvement before October 1st. The movement of crops will probably help the situation somewhat. I don't believe, however, there will be any time this year when there will be freight enough for all the boats of the lake fleet. We must wait until next year for any radical improvement. We must change this year up to profit and loss."

RUNAWAY STYLE.

Was Adopted By A Romantic Couple.

Mrs. Edward Beale McLean was before her marriage Miss Evelyn Walsh, the daughter of Thomas F. Walsh, the millionaire mine-owner. The wedding was originally set for New York, but the young people decided to take the matter into their own hands and try the unconventional runaway style.

The marriage took place on July 22nd, near Denver, where Mr. Walsh has one of the most pretentious and expensive country estates in the United States. The wedding came as a complete surprise to everyone, including the parents of both bride and bridegroom. The young couple simply drove to Denver in a motor car and were married without notice to anyone. Congratulations from society people all over the country and from abroad have poured in upon them, and, of course, parental forgiveness was promptly given and the young couple warmly congratulated. Mr. McLean is a son of John R. McLean, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

GAVE SEND-OFF

Lord Roberts Was Enthusiastically Cheered.

LEFT ON A SPECIAL

HE LOOKS FORWARD TO ANOTHER HAPPY VISIT.

He Was Sorry That He Could Not See Kingston and the Thousand Islands—But These Are Pleasures He Holds in Anticipation.

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—Last night 20,000 people crowded the streets of the capital while the "To-s" drove through them, leaving by special train for Montreal.

While here he expressed his regret at being unable to visit Kingston and the Thousand Islands, but he looks forward to another visit to Canada before he dies.

The cheering, last night, was very enthusiastic and three bands were out rendering music. Though he did not want any great reception, he practically got one for the crowds at the station and almost everywhere where large numbers of people gathered before him "played him" right to where he left his carriage to step into the train.

MADE FIRST DAGUERRETYPE

Assistant to Daguerre Dies of Old Age in St. Louis.

Waterbury, Conn., Aug. 7.—August Brassart, formerly of this city, eighty-nine years old, is dead of old age in St. Louis. He made the silver plate for Louis Jacques Mande Daguerre, a scientist of Paris, who made the original Daguerreotype, since succeeded by the type.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly smooth plate, Brassart volunteered to make one and succeeded. For years after Brassart made plates for Daguerre.

Mr. Brassart was born in Paris, June 12th, 1819. In his early life his time was spent in a workshop patronized by Louis Philippe. Here Daguerre found him, and in his early experiments, when at the point of failure because he could not get a perfectly