CRUMLEY BROS.

FROM THE COUNTRYSIDE.

In Critical State.

Lombardy, Aug. 6.—John Gardiner, sr., an old and respected resident of this vicinity, was stricken with paralysis, on Monday last, and is in a critical condition. Misses Elsie and Georgie Nichol, of Toronto, were guests, last week, of Mrs. Herbert Frayn. A large number of Lombardy people attended the Presbyterian lawn social at Rideau Ferry last night. Mrs. Hudson, of Athens, is visiting her nieces, the Misses Klyne. Mr. and Mrs. Perry and little son, of Smith's Falls, spent Sunday last at Mrs. Robert Patterson's. M. J. Moran, of Chicago, is visiting his family here. Among those who went to Westport yesterday on the yacht Arrahwanna were: Rev. Mr. Meek, Mrs. Miller, J. Hamer, Thomas Millar, Mrs. O. Wright and Miss Marion, Misses Annie Hamer, Marie Dooher and Helene Dooher.

A Great Convenience.

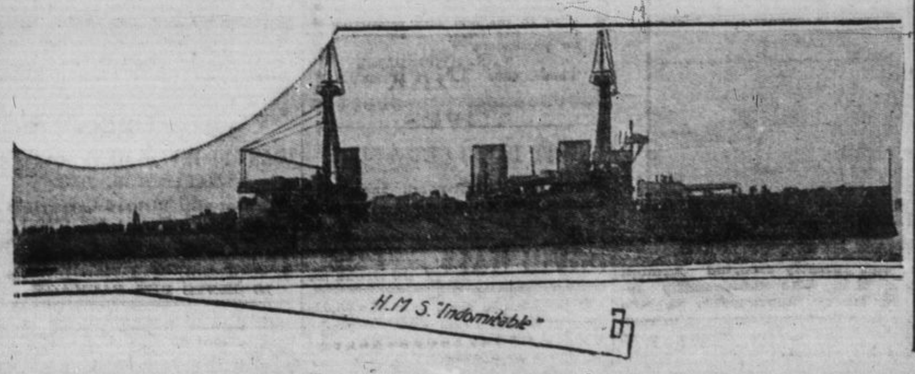
Yonge Mills, Aug. 6.—Mrs. D. Herbison and children returned to Brockville after a week's stay with friends here. Miss Allie Bellamy, nurse-in training at a Brooklyn hospital, spent a few days last week with Miss Jessie Purvis. Mrs. Edward Scott and Master Hubert spent a couple of days at Lansdowne. A number of our young people have gone into camp above Union Park. Miss Blanche Trickey, Winchester, is the guest of Miss Myrtle Gibson. Miss Jennie Vanalstine, Collins Bay, is visiting friends here. R. B. McGregor and Mr. Donald, North Hammond, N.Y., were calling on friends here recently. Katie Purvis is spending a few days in Brockville. Our new station is a great convenience to the people.

Sunbury Notes.

Sunbury, Aug. 5.—Farmers are cutting their grain crop and report that it is not up to the average. The hay crop has been secured and the condition it was housed in is prime. The price of cheese is going up and the quantity of laceal fluid received is decreasing. So the dairymen will not profit much in the end. The copious showers that have fallen from time to time have been agreeable for the growth of ensilage corn, which now promises well. The Presbyterian service was largely attended on Sunday evening, Rev. Mr. Stewart preaching an excellent sermon. A number of our stalwart youths will leave in a few days for the harvest fields of the great west. The Salvation Army corps here has a fresh officer, and regular meetings are now held. J. W. Anglin was a guest in the village on Monday and returned home to Seeleyville the day following. Our butcher trade is now in a prosperous condition; a number of butchers are now on the route and everybody is eating meat, so they say. J. Gordon, injured by a horse, is now quite smart and will be around in a few weeks now. The Presbyterian Sabbath school picnic held last week was a success. A large number attended the funeral of the late John Nicholson held on Monday.

100 Years Old.

Klyneshoro, Aug. 5.—The death occurred in Kitley township on July 12th, of Mrs. Martha Robb, aged one hundred years in June last. The deceased lady was born in County Monaghan, Ireland, in June, 1808. She came to this country when quite young, where she married. She had a family of fourteen children, only three of whom are living, Mrs. Nelson Parker, David Robb, on the homestead in Kitley, with whom she lived since her husband's death, and William in the United States. She has a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren, who gathered at the old home for the funeral. The old lady was a Presbyterian in religion. She was a woman of high ideals, a sunny disposition, and endeared herself to many. In personal appearance she was handsome; she was small of stature. Mrs. Hutton, Toledo, is her sister, and she is the only surviving member of her family. She was highly respected and loved by the older residents of the community. Rev. W. J. and Mrs. Drummond, and children, are home from China, where Mr. Drummond has been a missionary for several years. They are spending a pleasant vacation with Boyd Drummond of Klynesboro, also many other friends who are pleased to see him and his family in their midst once more. Miss Elida McAndrews has just returned from Ottawa, where she has been spending her vacation. Master Willie Rielly is on the sick list. The crops were never better.



NEWBURGH NOTES

THE CHURCH SERVICES WERE WELL ATTENDED.

Rev. Alfred Gandier Was in the Presbyterian Pulpit—Late Personal Notes—Narrow Escape From Drowning.

Newburgh, Aug. 6.—Quarterly meeting was held in the Methodist church, on Sunday morning last. The largest congregation in some years was present, the outside churches being well represented. The quarterly board of the circuit met in the church parlor on Monday afternoon. Rev. Alfred Gandier, pastor of St. James' Square Presbyterian church, Toronto, spending a short holiday with his parents, Rev. J. and Mrs. Gandier, preached in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. Miss Lorena Patterson returned home from the Kingston general hospital last week. Mr. and Mrs. Shannon, Centreville, spent Sunday at Dr. Beeman's. F. D. Moore is painting in Enterprise. Rev. J. M. White, Enterprise, spent Thursday, of last week, in the village. Miss Geneva Burdette, Montreal, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Pomeroy. Miss Vera Benn, Richmond, spent Sunday with her grandmother, Mrs. Shorey. Miss Stella Kennedy was the guest of Mrs. McDonald, in Yarker, last week. Miss Cicely Kennedy is visiting relatives in Enterprise.

The Talent System has the attention of the members of the mission band of the Methodist church at present. Each member is given a certain amount as a starter and what is made with that amount depends on the individual. Some are selling popcorn, and some picture post cards, while some of the girls got together and sold lemonade, on Saturday afternoon. Certainly these young people are deserving of a large patronage.

Miss Clara and Miss Emma Shorey are visiting in Richmond and Canifton. Miss Jean Duff, Kingston, is the guest of Miss Helen Finkle. E. W. Stickney, Merrickville, spent Sunday with his family here. The Misses Knapp, Kingston, are the guests of Miss Lena Madden. Miss Mary Beeman is visiting Miss Maud Anderson, Napanee. Miss Millar and Miss Young, of Prescott, are the guests of Miss Potter.

The annual picnic of the Presbyterian Sunday school is being held, today, in Galbraith's Grove, Varty Lake. Miss Pearl Nesbit, the new organist of the Methodist church, arrived home from Shelbourne, on Friday of last week, and assumed her new duties on Sunday morning. E. S. Edwards and family, Deseronto, spent Sunday with W. B. Dunn. Dr. J. H. Wade, high chief ranger of Eastern Ontario, I.O.F., and G. N. Brown, D.D.S.C.R., will visit Court Newburgh at the regular meeting, on Tuesday next.

Frederick Miles, formerly of this place, now of Peterboro, nearly lost his life, last week, in a brave attempt to save his companion from drowning. The two were swimming in Lake Chemong, when the one took cramps and called for help. Miles went back to his aid, but was pulled under water three times by the drowning companion. The latter sank and Miles was taken unconscious to shore. Later, when he recovered, he dived for the body, and was successful in recovering it, but life was extinct. Miles' many friends in Newburgh sincerely hope that nothing serious may result to him. He is still under the doctor's care. Master Douglas Chant and sister, of Webbwood, are spending their holidays with their grandfather, Rev. J. H. Chant.

THE LATE JOHN TERRILL.

He Was One of Picton's Leading Citizens.

Picton Gazette.

The death of John Terrill occurred at his home on Sunday, 2nd inst. As his fellow-townsmen know Mr. Terrill had been invalided for about two years, and unable to leave his home for some months. For a few days before his demise he failed rapidly, and, after considerable suffering, quietly passed over into the other life.

Mr. Terrill was born in the township of Murray on November 23rd, 1831. His parents died when he was only a lad of seven years, hence he was compelled at a very early age to depend upon his own efforts for his success in life.

Having acquired a good education for those early days he became a successful teacher. For a number of years he filled that responsible position in the Friends' school, long situated near Bloomfield. Later he taught in Picton until the very early sixties of last century when he turned his attention to the business of market gardening. In this he was eminently successful. In fact he was the pioneer in that line of business in Prince Edward—a line that a number of others have since taken up with very gratifying results. Mr. Terrill founded and conducted for many years the well-known business of J. Terrill & Sons, now so ably managed by his youngest son, John E. Terrill.

Mr. Terrill was married to Miss Jane Hubbs Southard on the 27th of October, 1859. Their children were all sons:

David S. Terrill, Picton; Alfred M., Calgary, Alta.; A. S., Chicago, Ills., W. V. Fairford, Alabama; J. A., Picton.

Mrs. Terrill passed away on the 9th of October, 1902.

A few years later he married Mrs. Sarah Garratt, who survives him, as do all of his sons.

Although originally a member of the Society of Friends later on Mr. Terrill united himself with the Presbyterian church, of which he was a worthy elder at the time of his death.

For many years he was prominently connected with the municipal affairs of our town. He was many times elected to a seat in the council, where his excellent judgment and valuable business experience enabled him to do much for the interests of our town.

He became a member of the Free and Accepted Masons in 1867 and was worshipful master of the Picton lodge in 1871. The building now occupied by the fraternity was erected in that year.

In the passing of Mr. Terrill another of the old-time citizens of Picton has gone; another of those sturdy, strong characters and clear-headed men who did so much in their time to lay the foundations for our present comforts and prosperity.

The People's Forum.

The man who makes no beginning gets no farther. You must keep moving with progress or you will slip back.

To-day judicious advertising is as essential to a business as works are to a watch. Works are pretty useful in a watch. It wouldn't go without them, would it? Business won't "go" very much without advertising. Consider the merchants who are doing the biggest business in Kingston to-day—they all advertise. And it pays the small dealer as it does the large.

What Is Left.

Do you also ask, "If you take away the Bible and the Saviour, what is left?" And I answer that all of truth and religion are left. If you take away the clothes from a man, you have the man left. If you take away the clothes with which tradition has clothed the truth, you still have the truth, the naked truth. And all of religion that has vanished as a result of scientific search and mental struggle, is not the essential part. Religion truth, power, love, life, all remain just as truly as ever. The Bible gives way to a bigger and better one, and salvation is revealed as of one self.
