AT AN OLD AGE

Nelson Grooms, Richmond Township, is Dead.

LEAVES A FAMILY

SEVERAL PROPERTIES IN NAPANEE CHANGE HANDS.

A Quiet Wedding Was Performed a Few Evenings Ago—Gas Again Turned on and Shops Lighted Up—Glad to Have It Again.

Napane, Aug. 8.—Nelson Grooms,

Richmond township, one of the oldest and most respected residents, passed away, on Thursday morning last, in his eighty-fifth year. He was the eldest son of a family of nine, three of whom survive, Elijah Grooms, Richmond; John Grooms, Sombera, and Mrs. Jacob Smith, Richmond. He had six children, two of whom died in infancy and one when he was twenty-seven years of age. Three survive, Z. A. Grooms and Ira E. Grooms, Richmond, and Mrs. W. R. Canham, Ottawa. He was twice married. His second wife survived. The remains were interred in Mount Pleasant cemetery.

James Killian has purchased George Fitzpatrick's residence, Thomas street, and will occupy it shortly.

Mrs. (Rev.) W. H. Montgomery, Nassau, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. P. Gordian. Mrs. M. J. Davern has purchased the brick house on Thomas street, next to Mrs. J. D. Ham, and will occupy it shortly.

A quiet wedding was solemnized, on Wednesday last, when Miss Celia Vandervoort became the bride of Herbert File, North Fredericksburg. The bride and groom are well known and very popular. Rev. W. H. Elmsley performed the ceremony at the residence of the bride's parents, South Napane.

Miss Maggie Barrett, Toronto, is renewing acquaintances in Napane this week. Alfred Burrows, wife and two children, are guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Burrows.

The shops and residences were illuminated with gas, last evening, the first in over two months. The quality of the gas was pronounced good, and much satisfaction was expressed by our townspeople at again being

A Farmer Deafened, Tarred and Feathered.

Rushville, Ind., Aug. 8.—Beaten almost to insensibility by White Caps,

and covered with tar and feathers,

John Tribbley, a well-to-do farmer, was found bound to a tree, yesterday.

Tribbley said he had been taken from his home by eight masked men.

Shortly after the finding of Tribbley it was learned that the White Caps had visited the nearby home of Miss Jessie

Smith, with whom he is alleged to have been on too friendly relations, broke in the windows, and left a note warning her to leave the country with her father, under penalty of death.

Tribbley said he also had been ordered to leave within thirty days.

Officers are working on the clue that some of the most prominent farmers, in the township are implicated.

AMBITION APPLES TREE.

Borne One Crop and Preparing For Another.

Thousands Island Park, N.Y., Aug. 8.—The unusual sight of an apple tree in full blossom during the month of August is an attraction which draws many in the direction of the yard of Arthur Kemp.

The strange behaving tree was planted

last spring, and is fully six feet high. It blossomed during May and Mr. Kemp tickled the first crop of apples last Saturday, and is enjoying some juicy pears this week. A second harvest will probably be gathered from the ambitious tree.
