know how to conduct an excursion, and that Kingston is appreciated is demonstrated by the record excursion, numbering 950, that arrived Saturday

Among the excursionists were notice Judge Britton, David Kemp, Rechab Tandy, J. M. Sherlock, Henry C. Fowler, Thos. Claxton, John McLeod, B. N. Davis, and Rev. E. A. Chown. A most commendable feature of the excursion was that the poor unfortun-ate Kingstonians now living in Toronto, were remembered and brought home without money and without price.

MILLION-DOLLAR HOTEL.

Splendid New Hostelry Opens at

Rochester, Aug. 12th. On August 12th, the new Hotel Rochester at Rochester will be thrown open to the travelling public. Its com-pletion gives to Rochester the most magnificent, up-to-date, modern hostelry of the entire up-state region. Indeed, Hotel Rochester provides the traveller with every comfort and luxury obtainable at any New York City hotel. Every device modern invention has created for making a hotel stay enjoyable has been placed at the disposal of the Rochester's guests. Each of its 300 rooms is fitted with a private bath, and, rooms is fitted with a private bath, and, rooms the hotel is absolutely fire.

tion of this enterprise is largely due to treal, May Wax's trainer and driver. the foresight and energy of Walter B. Duffy, president of the New York and Kentucky Company, with headquarters at Rochester; who is also heavily interested in many of Rochester's leading manufactures. Associated with Mr. Duffy are George W. Sweeney and E. M. Tierney. Mr. Sweeney is widely known to the travelling public as the genial director of the chain of hotels ambracing blotel Victoria New York:
