FOOTBALL TALKED

THE O.R.F.U. MAY HAVE A KINGSTON TEAM.

Queen's Will Be Again Active and Will Seek For Better Honors Than Last Year—A Coach Probable.

The fall is drawing near and football is beginning to be the topic of conversation. Kingston will likely be represented by two senior teams again this year as the Limestones will likely enter a team in the O.R.F.U. senior series. Queen's is not idle by any means and the men in charge of the team will have a good bunch out this year. It is understood, on good authority, that the university will, at last, have the services of a coach, a good professional man who understands his business. Captain Arthur Turner has been looking after this matter and it is likely that a Hamilton man will be secured for the team. The use of a coach is not that Queen's requires. There is plenty of material and only needs being moulded into shape by expert hands. Some new men will enter this year and among them are one or two very good ones, who have broken a broken crack shaft. It was understood last year that "Nick" Bawlf, the great full back of the Ottawa College team, would be here, but it is not finally known whether he will attend Queen's or not. A couple of good ones are coming from Hamilton for the college team. The Limestones should also begin to get busy before many weeks have passed and not wait until the last minute as was done last year. There is plenty of material here for a good team and the boys should get together and do something.

Kingston Yacht Won.

A Kingston boat won the races at Champlain Bay, yesterday afternoon, in the twenty-two foot class. The boat, owned by Messrs. Hora and Waddell, won out easily over the American boats. She was sailed by Messrs. Hora, Waddell and McFarland. Telegrams were received in the city, on Thursday evening, announcing the victory and the yachtsmen were very much pleased.

Are Very Interesting.

Two athletic events will be pulled off at the athletic grounds, to-night, by the Y.M.C.A. One event was postponed from Wednesday night. A large number attend these races and sports and they are very interesting.

Labor Day Sports.

Matters regarding the Labor day sports, were advanced another stage, last night, at a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council. The road race promises to be a big feature, and the other sports being arranged will attract a great deal of interest.

May Have Polo League.

Now that the roller rink is going to open, the boys are again thinking of roller polo, and in all probability a league will be formed. Belleville has a rink and two or three teams will be organized there.

Taken To New Hampshire.

May Wax will not race at Montreal this week, but has been taken to Woonsocket, N.H., where she will make her next appearance. The mare is going fast this year.

Sporting Notes.

Sir Thomas Lipton's offer to come over again for the America's cup is a reminder that the Canada's cup is still in Rochester, and we would respectfully suggest that the ex-master of that good ship La Souris, alas! long since dismantled, forthwith build a boat and instruct some club to challenge on his behalf.

The executive of the New Ontario Baseball League, controlled by two Fort William teams against one from Port Arthur; threw out Port Arthur's win in a game which ended in the eighth inning on account of rain, and declared three Port Arthur players ineligible, so that Fort William teams will now be left to play off for the championship.

Hard times have not hit the baseball clubs of the Eastern League, or any of the larger clubs, according to the official attendance. It was thought that the Toronto club would lose money by going over to the island. But this has not been the case. President McCaffery stated recently that the gate receipts were in advance of last year's receipts at this time.

"Jim" Colforth, the light promoter, is trying hard to clinch a match between "Tommy" Burns and Stanley Ketchell, the middleweight champion. He wired to Burns in Australia a few days ago, asking him if he would fight Ketchell. Burns sent word back that he would, providing Ketchell fought Philadelphia Jack O'Brien first and defeats him. Ketchell says he is willing to take on O'Brien, but does not like to do so, on account of O'Brien's queer fights on the coast.

Reproducing The Siego.

Special efforts have been made this year to produce a spectacle at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, August 31st to September 11th, on a scale that will send everybody away marvelling at its magnitude and realism. "The Siego of Sebastopol" will be faithfully represented on a stage 750 feet by 300 feet, with 1,000 performers, and with the largest stretch of scenery ever placed on any stage. It will be upwards of 700 feet wide by 65 feet high at the highest point.

Hotel Proprietor's Daughter Given

On the days of the Old Boys' Celebration a side show consisting of a snake charmer and a sword swallower were in the city and did a good business. They stopped at a down town hotel and kept the snakes in a covered basket. They had about a dozen different kinds of all good size and dangerous looking. After the celebration the men left and as they had no snake too many to carry around, one was left in a bureau drawer at the hotel. Two days later the daughter of the proprietor went to put something in the drawer and putting in her hand grabbed the cold, slimy body of the large crawler. Needless to say she was given a very bad scare and it was some moments before she recovered from her fright. The snake was captured and put in a box where it will be kept out of harm's way until disposed of.

WAS AT THE BURIAL.

A Statement From a Citizen About Sad Event. Kingston, Aug. 13.—(To the Editor): May I just say a word with reference to one or two letters I have read in your paper as to the burying place of Lieut. Roberts? P. C. Davies is quite correct as to the place of burial which is Chiveveley, in what is now a cemetery, just outside the railway station. Lieut. Roberts was wounded at the battle of Colenso when Long's guns were captured and practically all the men killed, but he was not buried at Escourt, as "One Who Was There" states. Chiveveley Station adjoins the battlefield of Colenso. I make this statement knowing it to be correct as I was within a few hundred yards of the guns when Lieut. Roberts was wounded. I also assisted in burying him a few days after the engagement.—JAMES A. SCOTT, late sergeant E. Surrey Regiment.

HAD A LIVELY TILT

AT THE MEETING OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

When Question of Granting Medical Officer An Honorarium of $500 Came Up—Dr. Evans Walked Out and Left Board Without Quorum.

The question of granting an honorarium of $500 to Dr. Bell, the medical health officer, caused quite a lively tilt, at a meeting of the board of health, yesterday afternoon, and as a result, the board adjourned without taking any action. Another meeting of the board was called for this afternoon.

The question which caused all the trouble was brought up after some minor matters had been dealt with. At the last meeting of the board, it will be remembered that "the matter of granting the medical health officer the sum mentioned was discussed, but no action was taken. It was to have been discussed at another meeting called for Tuesday afternoon, but no meeting was held, as a quorum could not be secured.

When the matter came up at yesterday's meeting those present were Chairman Corbett, Dr. Etherington, Dr. Evans and John Lemmon. A letter from Dr. Bell was read, in which the latter referred to the twelve cases which he had to attend to at the isolation hospital. The doctor pointed out the extra amount of work this brought about, and left it with the board to say whether or not he should receive extra pay for his work. He pointed out that in 1903, when there were only three cases in the isolation hospital to be cared for, that the sum of $331.67 had been expended for medical attendance.

Dr. Etherington moved that no action be taken in the matter at the present time, but his motion was not seconded. Dr. Evans immediately arose to discuss the question, when Dr. Etherington interrupted by stating that if there was no motion to be made in regard to the matter, that he did not intend to stay at the meeting all afternoon, to hear it discussed.

"I do not think that it is right that I should be choked off in this manner," said Dr. Evans. "But you have no motion," said the chairman, "and there should be one. I am not choking you off."

"But that is what I would call it," added Dr. Evans. "Surely the matter can be discussed. I have been on this board for three years, and we have always been given the privilege of discussing any matter. We do not need to have a motion, as we have not been following parliamentary procedure. We have always been given a certain latitude."

Dr. Evans walked out of the committee room, stating that if he could not have the privilege of speaking on the question, he would retire from the meeting. "I move that we adjourn then," said Dr. Etherington, and as there was not a quorum with the members left, the meeting broke up rather hurriedly.

Later in the afternoon, another meeting of the board was called for this (Friday) afternoon. Engineer Craig submitted reports on drainage cases before the board at its last session, and the city council will be asked to carry out his recommendations in each case as follows: Re condition of three houses on George street, that sewer be given proper drainage, work to be done under local improvement act; re drainage for house at 22 Ontario street, that nine-inch tile sewer be constructed under local improvement act; on Miss Lena's communication, that she construct drain on James McOulla's complaint about condition of Nos. 146-148 Bay street, of six-inch tile, at her own expense.
