WHAT WHIG CORRESPONDENTS TELL US.

The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario—What People Are Doing And What They Are Saying.

Godfrey Glimpases.

Godfrey, Aug. 12.—The farmers are busy harvesting, but report crops very light. A severe hailstorm passed over this vicinity on Friday night, but, fortunately, little damage was done. A number from here attended in the excursion to the North-West James Howes, on the sick list, is recovering. Mrs. James Hill, visiting friends in Harrowsmith, has returned home. Miss J. Sigworth, Misses Maud and Gerie Hill spent a few days in Harrowsmith last week. F. Howes, Jr., spent Sunday at Tichenbros. Visitors: Mrs. H. Campbell at James Hill's; also E. McKnight; R. Watts at F. Howes'; G. Kennedy and family, Cole Lake, at A. Kennedy's.

Lawyer Donnelly's Visit.

Janetown, Aug. 11.—A. and Miss A. Earl, Temperance Lake, were guests of Miss Blanche Horison, on Sunday last. Mr. and Mrs. H. Franklin spent Thursday last in Kingston. Several from here took in the excursion, on Friday last, to Cape Vincent. Harvesting is now the order of the day. Messrs. Frederick and Norris Ferguson will take in the excursion to the North-West shortly. Lawyer Donnelly, Kingston, is spending a week or so at the guest of his brother-in-law, William Hall. W. W. Hall is on the sick list. Miss Evelyn Earl, Warburton, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Purvis. Miss Kath; Bernish, Merrickville, is the guest of Miss Edna Summers.

Items From Mississippi.

Mississippi, Aug. 12.—Farmers are very busy sowing their wheat. A heavy crop this season. Campers are having much pleasure at Grace Landing on the Mississippi river for a few days. A few from here took in the picnic at Oso on Wednesday. Visitors: Miss Annie, Kingston, visiting her home here; Miss Maggie, Nicol and Miss Allan, of Perth, at J. D. Allan's; Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Storms, Wilton, at H. McTimmons'; A. Gibson at T. Erwin's; Nelson Gibson at his home here; Miss Margaret Crawford, Kingston, spending a few days with the Misses Erwin. Blueberry crop is very good around here this season; also seems to be good prospect for blackberries.

Stella Scintillations.

Stella, Aug. 11.—The heavy rains of the past few days will help the fall pasture. This will be greatly appreciated. J. S. Neilson has received his supply of coal for the winter. The English church ice cream social, held on W. H. Mostry's lawn, on Saturday evening, passed off successfully. Mrs. T. Johnston, who went west about a year ago, has returned and taken up residence in Stella. R. J. Marshall met with a slight accident on Saturday evening. While driving in the village another buggy collided with his and he was thrown out on his shoulder, injuring it slightly. Miss A. Miller has returned to Belleville after spending a few days at the friends here. Visitors: Mrs. A. E. Sanders and son, Kingston, at John Sanders'.

Rockport Ripples.

Rockport, Aug. 12.—A number from here took in the excursion to Capetown per steamer Missisquoi on Wednesday last. Mr. and Mrs. R. Poole were the guests of Mrs. John Carnegie on Sunday. Miss Ida Ferguson has gone to Wilstead to spend a week with her friend, Miss McNeilly. Charles Lambert is on the sick list. Miss Ben Hopkins spent Sunday at Ivy Lea, the guest of Mrs. Bert. Ley. Mr. and Mrs. A. Seaman and little daughter, Clayton, N.Y., spent Sunday here. Miss Lena Brimley has returned home after spending a week at Kingston. Misses Wallace Seton and Miss Laura McCammon, Ganungape, also, Mrs. Lear and Miss Anna Lear, Poole's Resort, were the guests of Mr. Kahnts last week. Charles Williams is on the sick list. Mrs. W. Root has returned home after spending some time at Webwood.

Had A Garden Party.

Lombardy, Aug. 13.—Mrs. M. Long and daughters, Misses Myrtle and Gem, of Ottawa, visited friends here last week. Ernest Doohar, Lanark, is spending a few days at his old home. Vincent Ryan, Smith's Falls, is a guest of John Sinnott's. The successful students for the normal school entrance, from this vicinity, were Misses Louise and Ruth Meek, and Rosalia O'Meara, the former two taking honors. Mrs. Nevills, Ottawa, is here to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Covell. A successful garden party was held here, last Monday night, under the auspices of the ladies of the Roman Catholic church. The church grounds were well lighted and presented an attractive appearance. An excellent supper was served. The dancing platform proved an attractive feature. The ice cream and candy booth did a rushing business. Receipts amounted to $150.

Fermed A Lodge.

Latimer, Aug. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Painter, Kingston, were the guests of M. B. Traves on Sunday last. Miss M. Glasford is spending a few days in Kingston. M. Cochrane is home from Pittsburg. Miss Luella Traves is visiting her friend, Miss Jessie Stewart, Harrowsmith. W. Taylor and sister, Pearl, returned home from Opinicon, on Friday, where they had spent a few days. Mrs. Ketcheson, Belleville, is visiting her friends in this vicinity. Messes E. Edwards and N. Lyon are in the city for a few days. Rev. Mr. McIntosh, Perth Road, at J. Taylor's. Our boys are very busy some evenings, practising football on their football grounds, at Buttertut Grove. Congratulations to Miss Luella Traves and F. Darling, who have been successful in their final examinations. Miss Pearl Taylor left for her school at Harlowe on

I WILLIAM H. BESWICK, CABINET Maker and Upholsterer, of 423 King Street East, late of 215 King Street, have no connection whatever, or never had, with the said William H. Beswick, of King Street, Windsor, Ont. (Signed) W. H. BESWICK.

Notes From Denbigh.

Denbigh, Aug. 10.—Rev. C. Beer, Ottawa, is for a number of days, at the Lutheran parsonage, and assisted Rev. G. Daehsel, last Sunday, by delivering an excellent sermon on foreign missions at the forenoon service, and an equally impressive and suitable address on home missions in the afternoon. The pastor and gentleman was well remembered by the older members of the congregation, as he visited Denbigh once before, nineteen years ago. Rev. G. Daehsel intends to accompany his guest on a short visit to their conference, Rev. G. Braekelbush, of Eganville, and C. Zaruke, of Pembroke. Master Frederick and Walter Hoffman, sons of Rev. E. Hoffman, of Berlin, Ont., who for about a month enjoyed a visit here, intend to return home and resume city life again to-morrow. Misses Louise and Myrtle, of Ottawa, are home for a good visit at the father's, C. Stein, and intend to remain about one month. Messrs. George Fritsch, of Renfrew, and David H. Yeoman, of Sudbury, have also arrived here with the intention of spending some time with their parents and friends. Mrs. H. B. Brown, of Rochester, N.Y., is favoring her brother, Charles F. Wienecke, and her many friends in this vicinity, with an extended visit, and enjoys a change from the noisy and exciting life in the city to a sojourn in our quiet neighborhood very much. The missionary services held here last Sunday were the occasion of many outside visitors favoring Denbigh with their presence. The following are a few of them: At H. Glasser's, Mr. and Mrs. A. Klatt and Mrs. H. Lestler, of Raglan; at E. Oetzel's, Mr. and Mrs. J. Weiland and Miss Emma Weiland; at O. Klein's, Messrs. Charles Marquardt, Sr., and Jr., at Ad. Fritsch's, Charles B. Marquardt and Miss Wanda Marquardt; at St. John's, Mr. Schichtel, with son and daughter, Charles Weiland, Sr., and Jr., Mr. and Mrs. G. Lentz, Messrs. Charles and Aug. Gerlich, William Stoelck, all of whom reside in the township of Raglan.

Because letters from his sweetheart, who returned to Hungary two months ago, did not reach him, and his friends jokingly advised him to get another girl, Vegetich Handlik, New York, twenty-one years old, hanged himself.

"Strong and active" that's how you feel after taking the Red Cross brand Beef, Lamb and Wine. Sold only at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store, 50c, not 75c, there.

DEPARTMENT OF RAILWAYS AND CANALS.

LACHINE CANAL.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

SEALERS TENDERS, ADDRESSED to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for concrete walls and widening of Canal at Lachine," will be received at this office until 10 o'clock on Monday, the 31st August, 1908.

Plans, specifications and the form of the contract to be entered into can be seen at the office of the Superintendent of the Department of Railways and Canals, 2, Place d'Armes, Montreal, on and after Wednesday, the 12th August, 1908. Parties tendering will be required to accept the fair wages Schedule prepared by and approved by the Department of Labour, which Schedule will form part of the contract.

Contractors are requested to bear in mind that tenders will not be considered, unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms, and in the case of firms, unless there are attached the actual signatures, the names and the occupation and place of residence of each member of the firm.

An accepted bank cheque for the sum of $20,000 made payable to the order of the Minister of Railways and Canals must accompany each tender, which sum will be forfeited, if the party tendering declines entering into contract for the work at the rates stated in the offer submitted.

The cheque thus sent in will be returned to the respective contractors whose tenders are not accepted.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

By order,
L. K. JONES,
Secretary,
Department of Railways and Canals,
Ottawa, 10th August, 1908.

Newspapers inserting this advertisement without authority from the Department will not be paid for it.

Do you know that Pear's soap has been advertised for over fifty years?

We often hear of one making a mistake, but did you ever hear of one continuing in error for over fifty years? Those people stopped all advertising for a year not long ago as an experiment. They wanted to see if it would pay. They stated publicly afterwards that it took three years to get back to their original sales, and it cost them not only the year's appropriation held back, but much more. Advertising is the keynote of all business success. Are you looking after the cardinal feature of your business? Phone our ad. man.

THE PARAGRAPH PULPIT

Unitarian.
REV. C. W. GASSON.

Knowing Oneself
The highest gift of religion is the confidence it can give one in one's own power and possession. When Whitman said, "I know I am August," he showed that he had attained to this high position. It is not in any sense a superficial conceit, but a deep grounded knowledge based upon the verities of spiritual life. The one who possesses it enters that "peace that passeth understanding." He is not moved by every or any surge of circumstance. Strong, self-possessed, having firm grip of reality, fearing no foe and knowing that no power in this universe can make him afraid, life loses all its terrors and has for him only joy.

Address, Rev. C. W. Gasson, at 25 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., for the literature.
