

SULTAN RUNS

He Was Defeated by Usurping Sultan.

IS HOTLY PURSUED

HIS FORCES PRESSED BY LOCAL TRIBES.

Several Raids Were Killed in the Engagement—Some Reports Say That Abdul-Aziz Has Been Taken Prisoner—Others That He is in Refuge in French Zone.

Paris, Aug. 24.—Government advices received last night confirm the report from Tangier that the forces of Abdul-Aziz, the recognized Sultan of Morocco, have been defeated by Mulai Hafid, the usurping sultan. The advices further say that Abdul-Aziz, who is now in full retreat, in the direction of Tabla, is being hotly pressed by local tribes. Several raids were killed in the engagements and others were captured. A mass of conflicting despatches have been received here, from Morocco, relative to the conflict and the reported capture of Abdul-Aziz by the followers of Mulai Hafid. One report says that Abdul-Aziz is a prisoner and another that he has taken refuge in the French Zone at Chania.

Through French Sources.

Paris, Aug. 24.—A despatch from Gen. D'Annunzio, commanding the French troops in Morocco, states that several of the Shovivia tribes plundered the flying army of Abdul-Aziz. The latter displayed great personal bravery but this had no result on the enemy. The artillery was useless and the gunners fled, taking the mules with them. Men killed each other in a wild attempt to procure mounts and escape. Tribesmen attacked the remnants the entire day and Abdul-Aziz, himself, was threatened.

IMPORTS GOING UP.

The Tide of Trade Believed to Have Turned.

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—During the past fortnight the Canadian imports have taken a jump, which indicates that the tide has turned, and the decline which has persisted for the past two months has been checked. It is predicted that the customs revenue will steadily swell again. The falling in the imports, and consequently in the revenue, was very great, and was due to two facts: The imports of two years ago were phenomenal, showing that the merchants had stocked up as never before. Then came the business decline throughout the country and the merchants were unable to dispose of their big stocks.

It is well known that the business conditions in Canada became easier some time ago, but the customs stocks were being disposed of. Apparently this has been done in a large measure, for orders for more goods have been placed abroad, and these goods are now passing the customs. While the imports of this year will not be up to those of two years ago, still the total will by no means be as bad as the first four months indicated.

LOST THIS SEASON.

Two Big Freighters Were Badly Damaged.

Cleveland, Aug. 24.—So far this season six small vessels have passed out of existence, but not a single freighter of any size has been lost. The lake navigators have been lucky in that respect, as the boats that were total losses carried very little insurance. The underwriters, however, have been called upon to pay some pretty big repair bills. The steamer H. P. McIntosh, which was sunk in the St. Clair river by the steamer M. A. Hanna on July 7th, was out of commission about five weeks, and repairs on her will cost between $10,000 and $20,000. It took about ten days to make repairs on the Hanna.

The insurance people were hit pretty hard when the new steamer D. B. Meacham, stranded on Passaic Island, Lake Superior, on her first trip. The big freighter is in the superior dock of the American Shipbuilding company, and repairs on her will not be completed until the middle of next week.

Vancouver, B.C., Aug. 24.—The first wedding in this country between a white woman and a Hindoo was performed by Rev. H. M. P. Clifton, rector of St. James' church, the bride having been for several years an attendant. She was Mrs. Annie Wright, an attractive-looking woman in the early thirties. She has a daughter of nine or ten years of age.

The groom was Joseph Munchi Singh. Mrs. Singh says: "My husband has been in British Columbia for ten years. He is thirty-six years of age, well educated and speaks and writes English very fluently. He is a good man.

"Some of my relatives objected to the marriage, but my brother, who has lived in Vancouver for twenty years, knows my husband well and approved of the match."

Prior to their marriage the pair had been engaged for ten years.

RUM AND CASH

Used Extensively in the Colchester Election.

SHOCKING TALES

TOLD AT THE ELECTION TRIAL AT TRURO, N.S.

Bayne Was Busy in the Interest of Stansfield the Conservative Winner—An Immense Spread of Fire Water Through the District.

Halifax, Nova Scotia, Aug. 24.—After the Colchester election, last November, the chief conservative organ, the Halifax Herald, proclaimed in blood-red letters on its front page: "The clean, straight, manly liberals of Colchester have spoken loud and clear: They set the seal of their stern condemnation on the immorality, the debauchery and the corruption of the interloper masquerading as liberal." It also published a picture of John Stansfield, the conservative standard-bearer, who, with the aid of the clean, straight, manly liberals of Colchester, has broken the links of the solid eighteen years ago.

On the first day of the inquiry, now in progress, ten witnesses swore they had received from Bayne, the universal provider and active friend and worker for John Stansfield, in the district of Five Islands, $100 in money and ninety-six bottles of rum. This was an average per man of $16.66, and sixteen bottles of rum. In the county, Stansfield received 2,586 votes. If the average was maintained Stansfield's election required 5,172 gallons of rum (putting the bottles all as pints), although some favored individuals undoubtedly got those of greater capacity, and about $43,100 in money. This was the method of calculation adopted by Chief Justice Fletcher in the Shelburne and Queen's election petition two years ago.

All this evidence has been brought out with the greatest difficulty, Bayne and his friends corralled the witnesses for the prosecution on the eve of the trial, conducted them to Bayne's "throne room," at the Stanley hotel, treated them lavishly with liquor, and then turned them over to W. B. A. Ritchie, who had a talk with them, but in spite of this result of the second day's revelations may be summarized by John C. Jamieson, mail-drover, got $5 from Jamieson, brother of John, got $5 and advice to see Mr. Ritchie to talk matters over. George Corbett, hosekeeper at Five Islands, got two barrels of liquor from Halifax, addressed to Mr. Bayne and took them to his hotel in Five Islands, advised to see Mr. Ritchie and talk it over. Noble Morrison was a crowd with Mr. Bayne at Corbett's hotel, had some whiskey, and was advised to see Mr. Ritchie and talk it over. Howard Aches had drinks on election night, advised to see Mr. Ritchie and talk it over. George McClelland, fire flasks from Bayne. Walter Atkinson found a two-gallon jug in the barn, advised to talk it over with Mr. Ritchie. Allan Durney, five bottles from Bayne, advised to talk it over with Mr. Ritchie. Edward Barkhouse got liquor from Bayne, advised to talk it over with Mr. Ritchie. Gilbert Corbett, carefully attended jugs in Atkinson's barn. Owen Lewis found a basket of whiskey at his front door. Mr. Ritchie and talk it over. Howard Walls got drinks from the "jug in the barn," talked it over with Mr. Ritchie. Thomas Morrison got six flasks and two bottles from Bayne.

SEEKING ANNULMENT

Of Concessions Granted British and French People.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 24.—A despatch received here from Constantinople says the Porte has asked the Turkish ambassador at London and Paris, to enter into negotiations with the French and British owners of concessions, recently granted by Turkey, with the idea of bringing about the annulment of these privileges by mutual consent. The present Turkish cabinet considers that these concessions, secured under the old reign through bribery and roundabout ways, are invalid. In case the owners of the concessions in question refuse to relinquish the matter will be submitted to the Hague.

Miss McCue noticed the sudden disappearance of the man, and became suspicious. She found him crawling from the office on hands and knees, and the drawer empty. He gave up the money when threatened, and escaped while she was prevented from giving the alarm by one of the women.

FOUND SUNKEN CRIB.

Lindsay Men Make Discovery in Lake Scugog.

Lindsay, Ont., Aug. 24.—Some thirty or forty years ago great quantities of oak and elm timber were cut and squared in this district and floated to Quebec for shipment to England. Whenever for any reason, such as low water, or a dispute as to price with the prospective buyer, it frequently happened that cribs were held over for several seasons, the result was loss by sinking.

For a number of years past there has been a tradition among old timer men in town that a fortune awaited the discoverers of a sunken crib of white oak timber said to have gone down in Goose Lake or in the bay near Pleasant Point, Sturgeon Lake.

Various parties have been taking soundings, and last fall a Kingston man employed a diver, but without result. About three weeks ago Bert McGrath, Dave Watson and W. Raymond happened in the vicinity of Bruce's Island, Lake Scugog, while raising sunken logs, and a fishing line fouled on a snag, which proved to be one of the lost cribs of white oak logs.

The discoverers at once took into their confidence I. E. Weidman, who visited the spot in a tug, satisfied himself as to the bona fides of the case, and then proceeded to back the discoverers in the matter of preliminary expenses. Half a dozen men were sent to the scene, along with one of Rustard's stump-pullers, and it is reported that the work of salvaging the huge sticks of timber is proceeding apace. The value of the "find" is estimated all the way from $15,000 to $65,000.
