

THE 5 P.M. EDITION

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

Newspaper Paragaphs Picked Up By Reporters On Their Rounds.

Cabmen's phone 490. L. O. F. excursion, Wednesday; 14th band. William Swaine, piano tuner, orders received at McAuley's. Phone 778. Rubber baby comforters at Gibson's Red Cross drug store. Phone 230.

Bradley's City Delivery office removed to corner Brock and Division streets. Remember the excursion to Belleville August 26th, $1. Good to return on 27th, except train No. 4.

A meeting of the water works committee was called for this afternoon at four o'clock to open tenders for coal supply. Bertlett pears are now coming. Carnovsky has a good supply of the finest pear grown for any and all purposes.

Last night was rather cool for sleeping out of doors. One knight of the road was given protection at the police station.

A young man, under the influence of liquor, went to sleep on the sidewalk on King street, near Brock, early this afternoon and had to be taken to the lock-up.

Alid-John Carson has secured the contract to supply the Barrfield camp with hay, straw and oats. This is a large contract, as a great many horses will be in camp.

Rev. D. G. Marshall, of St. George's, Ont., occupied the pulpit at Cooke's church again yesterday, and delivered two fine sermons. Rev. Dr. MacTavish will preach for the first time since his vacation on Sunday next.

The party of Scotch agriculturists who were to have visited in Kingston on Aug. 26th, have found it inconvenient to do so and will go direct from Brockville to Guelph. They have a big trip ahead of them with limited time at their disposal.

On Sunday morning the pulpit in Sydenham Street Methodist church was occupied by the Rev. W. A. Hanna, of Sydenham, and in the evening, Rev. E. B. Lancelley, of Dundas Street Methodist church, London, delivered an interesting sermon.

"Castoria," the genuine, is sold at Gibson's Red Cross drug store. Joseph Guellette, Windsor, twenty years old, a son of Frank Guellette, station agent for the Grand Trunk railway at Stony Point, is held on the charge of stealing $600, the property of the railway. The young man is alleged to have confessed and returned $542 of the money taken.

H. Cunningham, piano tuner from Chikering's, leave orders at McAuley's Book Store.

A passenger train on the Central Vermont railway, which left Montreal, Saturday afternoon, was derailed between St. Lambert and Chambly while going at a good rate of speed. The engineer, fireman and another train hand were injured, but not fatally. Dr. Chase's goods are sold at Gibson's Red Cross drug store. Phone 230.

James Keir-Hardie, the British labor M.P., arrived in Montreal, on Monday on the Allan liner Hesperian. He was met by a large labor delegation and escorted to his hotel. He goes to Toronto and will attend a labor convention at Halifax, at which there is talk of forming a new labor party in Canada, closely affiliated with the English organization.

LADIES AT THE BIJOU.

Fine Programme For the Hotel Dieu Benefit To-Day.

The Bijou's big benefit for the Hotel Dieu, begins this afternoon with an unusually attractive programme.

Mrs. Joseph Swift and Miss Roman act as managers, and the usual staff will be replaced by members of the auxiliary, young ladies acting as waiters. The entire net receipts of the house during the two days and evenings will be taken for the purposes of the Hotel Dieu. The programme will include four attractions. The first is entitled "Under the Shadow of Vesuvius," or "A Day Among the Picturesque Neapolitans." This picture is of unusual interest, every part of it being full of the vivid life of Italy. The comedy is called "A Son-in-Law on Trial," or "How Jones Tamed His Mother-in-Law." It is a good one. Ralph Tatton Jones will read "The Story of a Broken Home," extracted from Enoch Arden, with colored illustrations. Edgar Summerby sings, "A Trip With Me to Luna."

The object is an excellent one. The programme is good and the attendance should be large.

See All The Islands.

By taking the steamer America's tour Tuesday, 2.30 p.m., fare 50 cents. Freestone Peaches, Green Gages. Fresh Tuesday. Edwards & Jenkin.

THEY WERE KIDNAPPED

TAKEN FROM HOME OF GRANDFATHER.

The Twin Lads Were Playing in Front of the House When Women Drove Up, Put Children in a Buggy and Drove Off.

Hagersville, Ont., Aug. 21.—About eight o'clock, this morning, the twin sons of Sylvester Dixon, of Milton, were kidnapped from the home of their grandfather, Dr. Peter Jones, on the New Credit reserve, about three miles from Hagersville. The children were on the road in front of the doctor's house when two women in a buggy drove up and put the children in the buggy and hurried away. It is supposed that one of the women was the mother who resides in Toledo, Ohio, and who has been separated from her husband for some years. A few months ago the father secured the children from their mother in a similar manner.

ENTER COUNTRY ILLEGALLY.

Party is Captured Near City of Ogdensburg.

Ogdensburg, N.Y., Aug. 24.—Six Chinamen from across the big river were beating it along the railroad track, near this city, looking for a hole to hide in and conceal their illegal presence in this country. The officers of the law, however, were hot-footed after them and caught them about four miles from the Maple City. It was Deputy Marshal Smith and Chinese Inspector Wright who made the arrest and took the Orientals back to the city lock-up. The officers had kept their eyes open while they waited for an attempt to be made by the horde of Chinese near Brockville and Prescott, who have been waiting for the chance for some time, to come over to the land dollars. They patrolled the bank of the river and caught their prisoners soon after they had landed from the boat that ferried them over. The boatman, however, was not caught.

BOMB IN JUNK.

Ogdensburg, N.Y., Aug. 24.—While melting lead junk at R. K. Truell's, a terrific explosion followed the throwing of a fresh lot of metal into the melting pot. Truell was struck across the building, both his legs were shattered, and one eye blown out. He will probably die. The interior of the building was wrecked and set ablaze. From the force of the explosion it is believed that a bomb of some sort was amongst the junk.

UNDER ASSUMED NAME.

Charge Made Against Man Arrested in Rochester.

Rochester, N.Y., Aug. 24.—George W. Doty, alias Dr. James Doty, a notorious scoundrel, is under arrest here on a charge of practicing medicine under a false certificate and assumed name.

Under the public health laws of 1884 it is felony to practice medicine under the certificate of another man, or under an assumed name. The police say that the original James Doty has been dead five years. They say, too, that while Doty says he was studying medicine in the University of New York he was a shoemaker in Troy, N.Y.

The prisoner came to Rochester in 1902. In September of that year he registered with the county clerk as a physician. He came here from Syracuse. The police got their tip from a letter written to the postmaster, which took the form of a complaint upon investigation it was learned that the prisoner was practicing under the name of James Doty, class of 1857, University of New York.

The police learned that James Doty was from Basking Ridge, N.J., and Detective Bennett was sent to that city to carry on the investigation. There he learned from the former schoolmates of Mr. Doty that James Doty was dead.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Throat Slashed With Razor—Windpipe Partially Severed.

Cape Vincent, N.Y., Aug. 21.—William Place attempted to commit suicide on Friday by cutting his throat with a razor. Doctors were summoned and found he had not severed any arteries but had partially severed the windpipe, and they considered his recovery doubtful. It will be remembered that he made an attempt on his life several months ago, while living at Chamont, by taking poison. Since that time he has resided with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Place, in this village.

Jumped From Baggage Car.

Belleville, Ont., Aug. 24.—Three tramps were riding the blind baggage from Toronto east when one of them jumped off as the train was going at full speed. His companions notified the authorities at Trenton, who went out and found the man, who said his name was William Trimble, of Toronto. His arm was broken, face badly crushed, and he was internally injured.

To Prevent Trouble.

New York, Aug. 24.—The engineers of the New York Central and the New York, New Haven and Hartford railway lines are, to-day, threatening to strike because of a proposal to submit a big wage cut. Grand Chief Stone and Superintendent Hurley, of their union, are on their way here to attempt to prevent trouble.

Also to Mrs. Henry Wade, Mrs. Paul, Mrs. Riggs, Miss Allen, Mr. Lailey, Miss Dix, for clothing, old linen and nourishment; to Mrs. Oshendoff for flowers; to a friend for Kingston directory. Miss Hurst is still busily in need of infants' clothing for very poor uses.

Seven Story Building. The Masters' and Mates' Association has had an energetic committee at work for some time looking for suitable property to build on a vacant lot a suitable place can be secured a seven storey building may be put up. The lower floor will be used for stores and the remainder for offices. It would be a good thing if this project went through.

Visits His Native City. Thomas G. Jones and family, of New York, have been here on a visit for the past few days, staying at the Randolph hotel. Mr. Jones is a native of Kingston. For the past twelve years he has been with the Welsbach Street Lighting company, of America, of which he is now cashier. That company lights the streets of the principal cities in the States of New York, Connecticut and New Jersey. New York, it has 65,000 arc lamps. Mr. Jones returns with his family to New York to-morrow. His brother, Charles F. Jones, formerly of the Kingston water works office, is a dentist in Elizabeth, N.J.

Walked Around. Quite an heated argument took place in front of the Whig office, to-day, between a citizen and a driver of a grocery rig. The rig was on the crossing and the citizen did not care to walk around the horse! He told the driver to move on and he refused, saying he had a right to stay there. The city solicitor happened along and the citizen called to him asking him, if he had not the privilege of asking the driver to move on. The city official replied that he had. To end the matter the driver went on reading the interesting items on the bulletin and the man walked around.

The Late Mrs. Herbert Rees. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rees, Princess street, received a telegram on Sunday afternoon, announcing the death, in Toronto, of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Herbert Rees. The news came as a great shock to the relatives here, as they had not heard that she was in ill-health. The late Mrs. Rees was the daughter of Joseph A. Rombough, Enterprise. Besides the sorrowing husband, three children, Mildred, Roscoe and Thelma, are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving wife and mother.

The deceased was well-known in the city, and the news of her death was received with sorrow by many friends. She was a member of the Methodist church. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon at Enterprise.

Dixie II Won Final. Dixie II, of the Thousand Island yacht club, again won the free-for-all motor boat race at Chippewa Bay, St. Lawrence river, Saturday afternoon. She lost two minutes by a temporary breakdown but won by thirty-three seconds. Chip III was second. The latter boat gained a mile during Dixie II's disengagement. The gold cup goes to the latter.
