TALKING OF HOTEL

A SUMMER HOUSE FOR CITY OF KINGSTON.

The Matter Talked Over Between Men From St. Louis and Chicago, and the Board of Trade.

Dr. Rupert Dupuis, of St. Louis, and Mr. Henderson, of Chicago, saw an "item" in a Canadian paper, that the city of Kingston was prepared to give a bonus or a guarantee of $100,000 for the erection of a hotel here.

The idea of the two visitors was to erect a $250,000 hotel, providing the proposition of a bonus was real, feeling that for a few years it would be necessary to build up a business here and that a bonus would be necessary to cover the preliminary outlay.

LIVING ON CHARITY

HUNDREDS OF HARVESTERS IN UTTER DISTRESS.

Unemployed Rob a Laborer at Brandon, and Police Fear More Trouble—Government Asks C.P.R. to Drop 30 Day Rule.

Winnipeg, Aug. 28.—The response of Eastern Canada to the West's appeal for harvesters has exceeded expectations, and thousands who have come have caused a congestion of labor that is now an extremely serious problem.

There are 300 idle Easterners in Brandon alone for whom no work can be found, and who are absolutely dependent upon society for existence.

Proved His Case.

Mr. Pincushion stepped aboard the car downtown and paid his fare, but the conductor, who was very busy, forgot that he had received the nickel, and in a little while again held out his hand for the fare.

Long For A Colony.

Australia has achieved a new parliamentary record. Sir Jenkin Coles, speaker of the South Australian parliament, has completed eighteen years of continuous occupancy of the chair.

Ham Punctilious.

A certain town council, after a protracted sitting, was desirous of adjourning for luncheon. The proposition was opposed by the mayor, who thought that if his fellow councillors felt the same, they might be obliged to adjourn for lunch.

An Essential.

One night, a Canadian doctor who lives in Eastern Ontario was driving into a village, he saw a chap, a little the worse for liquor, amusing a crowd of spectators with the antics of his trick.
