STARTS OVER AGAIN

The Loss Made Up to the Central R. R.

Henry J. McCormick Has Made Complete Restitution to the Company.

Watertown, N.Y., Sept. 1.—Henry J. McCormick, the defuncting claims agent of the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg railway division, charged with forgery in the second degree and grand larceny in the first degree, and now awaiting the action of the grand jury, has disgorged all of the spoils gained through the alleged fraudulent settlement of claims during his six years service, according to the statement given out by his counsel, Attorney Thomas Burns, and is now ready to start life anew with a clean slate, provided he is given the chance to do so. He has made a complete restitution of the misappropriated funds to the New York Central, according to the statement of his attorney, and now has nothing left but a small tenement house valued at about $1,500, which he purchased before he became claims agent, and during the time that he has been confined to jail, since June 5th, it is said that Attorney Burns has advanced money with which to support his family.

Henry J. McCormick has made complete restitution to the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad company of all moneys claimed to have been misappropriated by him and that has been done without any promise of immunity or forbearance of prosecution against him. Every claim, which has been settled under his administration as claims agent, has been investigated and in every case it was found that the claimant had received the full amount agreed to be paid to him or her in settlement; so that no widow, orphan or in fact any claimant has been defrauded or lost a single penny by reason of his transactions.

It has been published that McCormick turned back to the railroad company about $50,000. Attorney Burns states that that amount is grossly exaggerated. Although Attorney Burns would make no definite statement, it is understood that McCormick will probably be indicted by the grand jury on the two counts and will plead guilty without demanding a trial.

TWO DEATHS AT STELLA.

Report on the Crops—Plenty of Winter Feed.

Stella, Aug. 31.—Harvesting is about completed. The threshing machines are all at work. Threshing will be a short job as the crop is a very light one. Grain is turning out fairly well where it was sown early. Owing to so much corn planted, which is a good crop, there will be plenty of feed for the winter months. Buckwheat is looking well and potatoes will be a fair crop.

W. Reid, Kingston, bought a number of cattle here last week. The steamer Aletha makes a special trip for them on Tuesday. The young troopers left for Barrieffield camp on Monday. William Allen, who underwent an operation, last week, in the Hotel Dieu, Kingston, is improving rapidly. A. McDonald, Emerald, has purchased a house and lot from J. McMullen, in Stella, and is moving to it, where he intends opening up a carpenter shop. McE. Bray lost a valuable horse a few days ago. Miss Anna Filson, Kingston, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. Canney, before leaving for Cleveland, Ohio.

Two deaths occurred here last week. Mrs. Charles Smith, who has been a sufferer for some time, passed away on Wednesday morning, Aug. 26th, for interment. Mrs. R. Patterson and Mr. Keen passed suddenly away while sitting on a couch. He had been in poor health for some time. Both bodies were taken to Glenwood cemetery for interment. Mrs. C. Patterson and Miss Bessie McDonald have returned home from Buffalo. Mrs. C. Patterson, Buffalo, is visiting friends here.

WHO'S BODY IS IT.

Clad in Clothing Made in Hamilton.

McKeessport, Pa., Sept. 1.—It is now believed that the body taken from the Monogahela river, here, a few days ago, was that of Faneuil Des Bethune, a wealthy New York lawyer, who disappeared over a week ago.

Des Bethune left a note to his wife which indicated that he intended going to Canada to commit suicide. He was traced as far as Buffalo, but where he went afterwards is not known. The body found in the river was clad in a suit made by the W. E. Sanford Co., limited, of Hamilton, Ontario.

MAY PROVOKE A VOTE.

As to the Temporal Power of the Pope.

DUKE OF NORFOLK.

Milan, Sept. 1.—The Sacra and other Italian liberal newspapers print a rumor, which it is alleged emanates from a Vatican source, to the effect that the Duke of Norfolk intends to provoke a vote at the Eucharistic Congress, in London, in favor of the restoration of the temporal power of the papacy. It may be recalled that the Duke of Norfolk, eight years ago, when presenting an English nuntiature to the late Pope Leo XIII, expressed a warm wish for the restoration of the temporal power. This aroused an outburst of indignation among the anti-clericals in Italy.

Dog Went Up Mount.

Geneva, Sept. 1.—What is probably the first unattended ascent of Mount Blanc, by a dog, was made on Aug. 25th. Taimmaz, the owner of a young St. Bernard, left Chamoniix the day before to accompany the Russian astronomer Stephanik on a visit to the observatory at the summit, where he stayed. The dog tracked Taimmaz by scent and arrived at the summit in a suit made by the W. E. Sanford Co., limited, of Hamilton, Ontario.

KEEP IN RUGGED FORM

Battlefields Commission is Not Agreed on Plans.

Some Members Want Plains Converted Into a Modern Park, Others Wish Land Preserved as it is.

Toronto, Sept. 1.—The News says: The accounts for the tercentenary celebration at Quebec are nearly all in, and the total cost will run between $325,000 and $340,000, leaving a surplus of between $10,000 and $25,000 to hand over for the parks fund.

The payments, which were estimated to cost $75,000, will require $95,000, owing to the slump in grand stand receipts.

The News has it on good authority that there is a serious division among the members of the Battlefields commission over the future plans for the battlefields.

As they stand at present they are in a state of rugged nature, little different from the time Gen. Wolfe saw them on the morning after his escape from the cliff. It had been proposed to transform their barrenness into a beauty of a national park with trees, driveways and flowers. This is the desire of the Quebec members and was Earl Grey's plan.

But some of the outside members have demurred. "If we change the whole landscape, where will the battlefields stand in the future? The land will be no whit different from hundreds of other parks here and in the United States. There will be nothing distinctive about its appearance, nothing to suggest it as the meeting ground of armies in the past. It will be like putting a modern frame on an old picture, or even retouching it."

"Keep it as it is, rough as when the soldiers and Montcalm tripped over its uneven surfaces. It could be made as a playground for football, baseball, golf, for reviews of all kinds. Keep it as it is; do not destroy. Its meaning by transforming it into modern driveways."

herants, the Calif Glacou, has been defeated by followers of Abdul Aziz, and another chief, who recently joined the forces of the sultan, is reported to be carrying overland before him. The new anti-bucket shop law is in effect in New York state. The work of double tracking the C. & P. R. line between Winnipeg and Fort William, which has been occupying the attention of the C.P.R. for the past three summers, will be practically completed this fall, and the major portion of it will be used to facilitate the quick transportation of the present wheat crop.

SOME ARE SQUEALING

Over Size of City Dome Insurance Award.

Some of the insurance companies, it is understood, are bolting because they think the city got too much insurance for the city dome fire. The city council should make a note of the squealers and leave them off the patronage list. One reason for the squeal is the suggestion that the dome can be repaired cheaply, and enough of the insurance money be saved to heat the east wing of the city buildings. It is well known that the dome cannot be properly replaced at a small cost. It will cost every cent of the $13,600 to do the work as it should be done. On the other hand, if the city council decides to do a botch job and save some insurance money for other purposes, aldermen say it is none of the insurance companies' business. The underwriters had as their valuator, William Newlands, architect, one of the most competent men in the province.

GOT ON WRONG TRAIN

And Jumping Off, the Woman Was Killed.

Dunnville, Ont., Sept. 1.—Mrs. Frederick Bier, Buffalo, was accidentally killed at Ganouke Junction. She had been visiting friends at Nolles' Corners, and was returning home with her husband. They got off the Port Dover train and by mistake got on the train for Hamilton instead of that for Buffalo. They discovered their mistake when the train was moving, and Mr. Bier jumped off. Mrs. Bier followed him, falling on her head on the platform, causing concussion of the brain. She died an hour later.

BLAME A TRAMP.

He is Believed to Have Fired Barn.

Brockville, Sept. 1.—A serious fire took place at the farm of Henry Johnston, near Frankville, when a large barn was destroyed. The farm was leased by a man named Curtis, and he had just placed a large crop of some 600 bushels of grain and several tons of hay in it. The fire was incendiary. A tramp called at the house, Friday and demanded food. He was refused admittance, whereupon he made threats. Three houses were burned. The tramp is described as being of dark complexion, five feet nine inches with a grey suit.

A Dangerous Experiment.

Lehmans, Sept. 1.—Wilber Wright says there is no truth in the reports that he intended flying in Germany or that he would try to cross the English channel. He added: "It is no more impossible to make a flight of thirty kilometers over sea than over land but in the present state of imperfection and insecurity of aeroplanes a sea flight would be a dangerous experiment."

PECULIAR MISHAP.

Matches Ignited—Was Nearly Burned to Death.

Quebec, Sept. 1.—The daughter of Adrien Jackson, aged five years, met with a painful accident yesterday. The little tot was sent on a message to a nearby grocery store in Montcalm ward and brought home a package of matches instead of the article she was sent for. The father of the child sent her back to the store for what was required, and a little later was horrified to see his child carried into the house with her clothing burned and brought home a package of matches instead of the article she was sent for. BLONDE KISSED GOVERNOR.

Had Unusual Experience in Tompkins County.

Ithaca, N.Y., Sept. 1.—Tompkins county farmers gave Governor Hughes a great reception when he spoke to them at Trumansburg fair. At the close of his address, even old, disgruntled politicians declared the governor was all right, that he had made a great speech, and that if he had only given them a little consideration he could get anything he wanted. The feature of the reception was when one striking blonde impulsively threw her arms about the governor's neck and kissed him.

Tried To Buy Tribune.

New York, Sept. 1.—Whitelaw Reid has been offered $2,000,000 for the New York Tribune. He declined. A syndicate of capitalists wanted to buy the paper, expend about $500,000 or $750,000 on its plant and new facilities, and make it the leading republican newspaper of the country.

Fined Twenty Dollars.

St. John N.B., Sept. 1.—Calvin Wheaton, Salisbury, aged fifty years, and suffering from fits, became dependent and hanged himself from the girder of a railway bridge, with the rope with which he was leading a cow to pasture.

A story is current that Lord Strathcona is anxious to retire from the care of the office of high-commissioner for Canada in England. Lord Strathcona will be offered an earldom in a reasonable period of time. Sir Montagu Allan may be Lord Strathcona's successor.

BRIDE FOR FEW WEEKS

And Then Death Took Her—Had Appendicitis.

A. E. Morden Goes to North Vancouver to Look After a Paper—The Collegiate Institute Not Ready Yet.

Pictou, Sept. 1.—A bride who was only three weeks, one of which she was ill with appendicitis, the death, late on Friday, in Bloomfield, of Mrs. Shirubb, was inexpressible sad. The young woman, whose maiden name was Augustina Shepperd, was born at Salmon Point, eighteen years ago. She was particularly well known in Bloomfield, through her two years' connection with Eaton & Bowdler's general store, as clerk. Her husband survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shepperd, and two brothers, Grant and Angus.

Mrs. Thomas Brown, a widow, and a native of the county, died in Toronto, last Friday, at the ripe old age of eighty-five years. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Reid Conger, and she was born of the old Conger homestead at Hallowell Mills, the daughter of one of the pioneer settlers of the county. Her married life was spent in Collingwood, till her husband's death, when she removed to Toronto, to reside with her daughter, Mrs. George Barron. Messrs. J. W. Conger, the former well-known proprietors of the Pictou Gazette, were brothers of the deceased woman.

Dr. H. F. Knight won the handicap match at the golf links. He did the course in forty-six, and his handicap was six, beating his next nearest score, S. B. Gearing, by three.

A. E. Morden, a prominent resident of the town, contemplates pulling up stakes and leaving, in two weeks' time, for British Columbia, going to North Vancouver to manage the mechanical end of the Express, of which his brother, Rev. G. H. Morden, a former Pictonian, is business manager. Mr. Morden has sold his job printing plant to Samuel Gordon, and his line residence, on Paul street, to A. J. Graham, Pictou's new clothier. Mr. Morden has had a prominent life in town. He is a local Methodist preacher, and has held the office of councillor and reeve for several terms, and has been secretary of the county liberal conservative association.

The schools opened, this morning, with a good attendance, and the teachers all at their desks, ready for the new school year. The opening for the third time in the open for the Gilbert block, but it is confidently expected that the new collegiate will be ready to house the pupils by November 1st. Work on the new ward school has been very backward, and only the foundation is ready. The little folk will have to put up with temporary quarters in the Mission chapel until probably the first of the year, when it is hoped the new building will be in readiness. Then a second teacher will be wanted.

QUIT THE JOB

Owing to the Dictatorial Treatment of Shah.

Tehran, Sept. 1.—A misunderstanding has arisen between the shah and the council of ministers. At the session of Friday, the prime minister introduced bills, with the statement that the shah demanded their passage. The council found the bills unacceptable, and requested, moreover, the dictatorial treatment, which was voted to resign. The minister of war, the shah's uncle, Naib-Es-Sultan, and Bogadonding, a high palace official, are now the only ministers supporting his majesty.

Two Arrests Made.

Montreal, Sept. 1.—The police have arrested two men in connection with the St. Etienne bank robbery. They gave their names as Frederick Jacques and Daniel Sullivan. The latter had post-office orders, checks and drafts in his possession totalling five thousand dollars. He claimed to have found them near the railroad track.

May Be The Chairman.

Prof. Shortt is likely to be named chairman of the board of conciliation to deal with the differences between the Canadian Pacific railway company and its engineers and firemen, arising out of the dismissal of certain employees.

SUES FOR DIVORCE.

Was Sane All Years She Was Prisoner.

Denver, Col., Sept. 1.—After being confined in the Mississippi insane asylum for eight years, Mrs. Alice J. Shear finally obtained her freedom through the aid of her sister, and coming to Denver caused the arrest of her husband and his first cousin, Jennie Shear, who, it is alleged, was passing as his wife.

Mrs. Shear charges Shear with being irresponsible for a long time, though she was sane. Shear is a prominent mining and lumber man in Denver and Port Arthur, Canada.

Mrs. Shear said they lived in Pensacola, Florida, for years, and that Jennie Shear, cousin, was a welcome visitor there. For a long time she went well, then the wife became ill of brain fever. After she had recovered, she says, the doctor, who now lives in Mobile, on the pretext of taking her to a sanitarium, drove her across the state line from their home into Mississippi to an insane asylum at Meridian. There she says she was kept eight years, before her sister succeeded in releasing her.

His wife says Shear is worth over $100,000, and in a divorce suit she has filed she demands alimony of $50,000 and court expenses. Jennie Shear, cousin, was released on a bond furnished by Shear.
