A CONTRAST IN CASES.

The Brockville Times is evidently ashamed of Bayne's work in Colches ter, and so declines to defend it. Our contemporary is, however, quite willing to divert attention from it by calling attention to the ballot-box offences of one Reilly in the county Frontenac. And what of it? Who hired Reilly? It is one of the mysteries of politics that the organized conservative arty has so permitted this man (Mr. Foster), to dominate it, in spite of tofore, is not merely the opinion of a political opponent; it is public opinion. In this verdict has joined every newspaper in Canada that is not part of the machine. The Toronto News, The Toronto Telegram, The Ottawa Journal, The Montreal Star, The Winnipeg Tribune, The Calgary Herald, The Victoria Colonist, all of them strong conservative advocates, have all, after careful study of the evidence denounced vigorously this man who broke his trust to the widows and The Toronto World has not given orphans; even the furiously partisan Halifax Herald was moved to declare that Mr. Borden would greatly strengthen himself with the people by rele gating Mr. Foster to a seat on the back benches of the party. But in spite of this unprecedented storm of public censure he is allowed to hold his place of prominence in conserva tive councils; allowed to tour the country as a recognized member of the conservative government with which the people are asked to supplant the government of Laurier and Fielding; allowed to stand as eloquent evidence of the insincerity of conservatives charges of graft and the untrustwor-
