

VERY FEW CONVICTIONS SHEEP MUTILATED BY SAVAGE SARDINIANS.

Island Still Holds Italian Record For Brutality, Crime and Outrage.

Rome, Sept. 3.—Under the title of "Savage Sardinia," the Messaggero, the principal Roman morning newspaper, directs attention to the astonishing prevalence of lawless crimes in that island by organized groups of murderers and avengers, who often turn out to consist of some of the most prominent and highly respected farmers in the province.

Two nights ago eight masked individuals, armed with guns and daggers, invaded a farm belonging to a benevolent proprietor (Michele Civile) on the mountain side near Sassari. There they seized the shepherd watching the flock, beat him senseless, robbed him of the small cash he had on his person, and left him bound hand and foot and gagged.

They then drove 200 sheep delivered to his custody a distance of a couple of miles to a lonely valley, where they ripped open 300 of the animals, and thrust their daggers into every one of the rest.

Sardinia continues, as from time immemorial, to hold the record in all Italy for brutal, homicidal, cattle wounding, incendiary fires and allied forms of damage to property. The criminal convictions for the latter crime are 4.32 in every 100,000 of the population.

In the single commune of Bitti, wherein the above vendetta has just taken place, no fewer than 1,500 sheep and 400 bullocks have been maliciously hamstringed since the beginning of this year. This extraordinary state of things is attributed largely to the notable deficiency of police and a potent impediment in the official administration of justice.

NEW ANAESTHESIA. Prof. Bier's Method of "Venous Transfusion."

Berlin, Sept. 3.—Prof. Bier, the distinguished South German who succeeded the late Prof. von Bergmann at the head of the surgical faculty of the University of Berlin, has discovered a new and remarkable anaesthetic treatment for use in operations upon the extremities of the human body. By the application of this treatment, which is described as a venous transfusion, surgeons who must operate upon the legs or arms will no longer need to administer general anaesthesia for the purpose of rendering the patient unconscious, but will be enabled to work in a perfectly bloodless and painless area, while the mind and the rest of the patient's body remain entirely normal state.

As Prof. Bier's discovery was described to the correspondent of the New York Times by Dr. John B. Murphy, the well-known Chicago surgeon, he will hereafter be able to do his politics or crack jokes with the patients, who will be totally unaware of anything being done to him.

Dr. Murphy said Prof. Bier had made an extremely valuable addition to the methods of anaesthesia. The transfusion employs for its venous transfusion a very weak solution of cocaine. It is designed, of course, particularly for operations upon the extremities of persons who cannot stand a general anaesthetic. The cocaine slowly finds its way into all the veins of the affected area, which is then blocked off by tight bandages above and below and the operation proceeds in a region totally freed from blood and pain—without the slightest effect on any other portion of the patient's system.

To avoid the dangers of cocaine intoxication by reason of even this weak solution's spreading into other veins after the removal of the operating bandages, Prof. Bier washes out with a solution of potassium permanganate with a physiological salt solution before removing the bandages.

Saved Life By Stopping Head.

Port Robinson, Ont., Sept. 3.—An unknown man attempted to shoot Miss Margaret Young, Niagara Falls, South. The man emerged from the woods, and the young woman, driving alone, ducked when she saw him draw the weapon. The bullet would certainly have killed her had she remained still. It passed through the back curtain of the buggy top, directly below the glass window. Miss Young was driving from Niagara Falls to Welland to visit Mrs. John Morwood. The shooting took place a short distance from the Black Horse.

Sore Cracked Lips.

Nothing will heal them as fast as Dr. Hamilton's Ointment. Rub it in three times a day. Cracks heal, new tissue forms, trouble is all gone in a day. You'll find a thousand uses for a healing ointment like Dr. Hamilton's. Buy a 50c. box.

In an endeavor to beat his own record of eleven days and twenty-two hours for the run from Toronto to New York, and to convince skeptics that he did not ride any portion of the long journey, T. J. McAughy, the West End Y.M.C.A. distance runner, will, in the latter part of October, again essay the journey. He will be accompanied by a man on a wheel or in a motor car. "I can get away no more from that road," said McAughy. "I was misguided and took a route that was much roundabout." McAughy ran 776 miles on the original trip.

Godrich hotel men are the latest to be convicted.

London, Sept. 3.—The "healthy British public" like to see exhibitions of the horrible? Certainly not like the French, for, although Paris has abolished the publicity of the morgue, a French company like the Grand Guignol can go on year after year, and French newspapers will publish pictures of the corpses and all that sort of thing as English newspapers would not dare to do. To call it "morbid" is begging the question. It is simply different from ourselves.

DEAD STOWAWAY FOUND.

Many Passengers Take to the Boats.

Amsterdam, Sept. 2.—A remarkable story of a fire and a panic on a liner carrying 330 passengers is told by Lloyd's agent at Amsterdam, where it was received by cable from Buenos Ayres.

Captain Edwards, of the British steamer Imogen, reported on arrival at Montevideo from New York that on the voyage he passed the large Dutch steamer Amstelland—a vessel of 5,404 tons, registered at Amsterdam—there was a fire on board and Captain Edwards stood by to render assistance, if necessary.

The fire broke out in the cargo, which consisted of hales of wool. During the work of extinguishing it, the dead body of a stowaway was found. There appears to have been a panic on board when the fire was discovered. A boat was lowered, and a number of passengers jumped into it. Captain Edwards is of the opinion that the body of the stowaway was found as he escaped from the burning ship.

Captain Edwards lowered a boat, which took the Amstelland's boat with the panic-stricken passengers on board back to their ship again.

The Amstelland left Rio Janeiro on July 30th. She has continued on her journey, so it is probable that no great damage was done by the fire.

CHURCHILL-HOZIER WEDDING.

Member of Cabinet Will Marry on Sept. 15th.

A long friendship has existed between the Churchill and Hozier families, and the engaged couple have known each other for several years. Miss Hozier was presented at court four years ago. Her mother, Lady Blanche Hozier, is a daughter of the seventh Earl of Arden. By a curious coincidence the career of Lady Blanche's late husband was similar to that of her prospective son-in-law. Sir Henry Hozier was in the 3rd Dragoon Guards, and went through the Abyssinian campaign of 1867 as an assistant military secretary to Lord Napier of Magdala. He served with the Royal Artillery in China, and took part as a newspaper correspondent in the war between Austria and Denmark and the war between Prussia and Austria in 1866.

Mr. Churchill, who is president of the board of trade in the present cabinet, is the fourth member of the Asquith government to be married while in office. Other ministerial weddings have been: Lord Lonsdale, and Miss Violet Hicks Beach, at St. Stephen's Chapel, last December. Reginald McKenna, first lord of the admiralty, and Miss Pamela Jekyll, at St. Margaret's, Westminster, on June 3rd. C. P. G. Massey, parliamentary secretary of the local government board, and Miss Lucy Lyttelton, at Westminster Abbey, on June 2nd.

IRON, WINSTON CHURCHILL.

London, Sept. 3.—The marriage which has been arranged between Winston Churchill and Miss Clementine Hozier will take place, probably in St. Margaret's church, Westminster, on September 15th. It is now learned that the engagement was made several weeks ago, but the couple by mutual agreement decided not to announce it until just one month previous to the wedding.

Tied At Clayton.

The Theresa and Thousand Island Park teams playing a series of three games for a purse of $200, were tied at Clayton, the score being five to five.

The game was called at the end of the seventh inning to allow Theresa to catch a train. Henry, for the Park, pitched a fine game, while Quinn, for Theresa, was pounded when his meant runs. Clark, the Park catcher, received a foul tip, badly lacerating the first and middle fingers of the right hand, putting him out of the game.

The next game will be played at Redwood, Thursday. Over $200 was bet on the above game.

May Wax Lowers Record.

At Bennington, New Hampshire, on Wednesday afternoon, William H. Carson's fast little Kingston trotter, lowered her record to 2:18. She entered the 2:21 class and won first place, but to do this, Driver Hayes had to cover the mile in a couple of seconds faster time than May Wax had previously made this season. She will now be eligible in nothing above the 2:19 class. Next week May Wax will trot in the races at Concord, N. H. She has done splendid work all season, and next year will be one of the fastest on the Canadian turf.

Ducks Are Scarce.

From the appearance of the hunters when they return home, ducks must be far more scarce than was at first supposed, as only one out of every five or six seem to have had any luck at all. A number of Americans come over from river points and fish and hunt in the creeks and marshes down the river. Should they have a license?

Roller Skating League.

In all probability the roller hockey league will go through and four teams will enter. Arrangements are now being made.

Sporting Notes.

Philadelphia cricketers won from Montreal by thirty-four runs. Cornwall still has a fighting chance for the N.L.U. championship, but it is a very slim one.

Ten young Montreals have sailed for Rome to take part in the international athletic tournament at the Vatican.

There is a movement on foot in Wilmington, Del., to have that city represented in the Eastern Baseball League next season.

Kerr's protest against Schaefer in the hundred yards at Halifax was disallowed. It was decided that his slow start was caused by his foot slipping.

Affairs in the National Lacrosse Union have taken a sudden turn and it would not be at all surprising to see the Capitals walk up and nose the Tecumsehs out for the honor.

The Ontario Rugby Football Union will meet, this week, and appoint a new secretary, as Secretary Joseph B. Hay has resigned, owing to pressure of business in Peterboro.

"Pete" Fleet, formerly of Toronto Argonauts, will play with the Montreal "Big Four" champions this season. The ex-Argonaut star, Toronto star is now engaged on G.T.R. work at Montreal.

The biggest baseball money-makers of the year will be the New York Nationals, who probably will set a new mark for attendance on their home grounds, and who have shared in many big gates abroad.

Christy Mathewson is about to assume the most monumental task that a major league pitcher ever had thrust upon his shoulders. He has expressed a willingness to pitch three games a week for the rest of the season, provided that the New York Giants are at any time in danger of dropping out of the first place.

French And English Tastes.

A NOVEL SUICIDE.

EXPLOSION REVEALS MAN'S BODY IN TRUNK.

At Sight of it Children Collapse and Wife Loses Her Reason—Taken to Hospital.

Paris, Sept. 3.—A woman lost her reason, last night, after finding the dead body of her husband in a trunk, the lid of which was blown off by a gas explosion.

Mme. Leicheman returned home to dinner with her two children, expecting her husband before, and was surprised to find the lid blown off. She "hit a match and immediately there was a terrible explosion. The neighbors rushed in and found Mme. Leicheman laughing incoherently. In a corner of the room was a large trunk with the lid blown off, and in it the body of M. Leicheman. The two children, aged ten and twelve, had fainted and were lying on the floor near their mother.

M. Leicheman, whose business affairs had gone wrong, had retired home some hours before his wife. He closed all the windows and turned on the gas, and then got into the trunk and closed the lid. Through a hole in the side of the trunk he had inserted a piece of gas piping, the other end of which he had fixed to the gas burner.

Besides killing him, the gas filled the room and his wife's match caused the explosion.

Mme. Leicheman and the children were taken to the hospital, where it is feared that there is little hope of Mme. Leicheman recovering her reason.

ROLLER RINK OPENED.

The Skaters Were Out in Large Numbers.

The roller rink opened for the fall season on Wednesday evening. Every thing at the rink has been given a thorough overhauling, and the rink presents a far finer appearance than it formerly did. The floor was planed by the electric machine, until it is now one of the best and largest floors in Ontario. The 14th band was present at the opening, and furnished excellent music to the skaters. The music furnished under Bandmaster Walker, on Wednesday evening was superior to any ever heard in the rink before. Fully four hundred people were present. Many new attractions will be introduced by Manager Ryan during the season.

NAMES SUCCESSOR.

Prince Lidje Yason, to Mount Abyssinia's Throne.

Constantinople, Sept. 2.—The emperor Menelik of Abyssinia will, on September 14th, issue a proclamation appointing Prince Lidje Yason heir to the throne. Oh, the same day the prince will be crowned a king as step to his final title of "king of kings." The emperor is tired and ill and is being attended by an Egyptian doctor.

In this proclamation the following passages occur:—"The Lion of the Tribe of Judah has conquered: Menelik II, elected by God, King of Kings of Ethiopia, to his most beloved people—Salute! We thank God all omnipotent, Who has permitted us to govern in peace and harmony. The pride of our reign is the love that our people shows to us. We have done all to put our country in the same position as the countries of modern civilization. By the help of God our native country will be an example to all Africa. All the world has its eyes on us. Let us show ourselves worthy of its respect, worthy of our past.

"But the care of a good king is not only to do good during his life, but to think also for the future. To consolidate what God helped us to do, we decided to announce to you the news that we have selected as our successor to the throne our beloved grandson, Lidje Yason. We have done all to instruct him in the love of the people, of law, and of justice, and will do more now that he is called by God All Powerful to govern you after us."

FASHION'S FORM.

Lingerie Hat of Mull and Lace.

Crisp white mull and plaited Valenciennes lace were used for the becoming and girlish hat here pictured. The model was a sort of mob cap and was in "Charlotte Corday" style. The crown of this hat was encircled by a draped band of black velvet ribbon, tied in a bow in front, but any color ribbon in a soft silk or satin may be appropriately used. On the right side of the hat was placed a single pink rose.

CAVE-MINISTER WINNINGS.

Detective Employed by Anti-Betting People.

Ballston, N.Y., Sept. 2.—The first day of the hearing in the case of Sheriff John Bradley, Jr., of Saratoga county, on charges filed with Governor Hughes, was productive of considerable testimony relative to the alleged gambling at the Saratoga track which Sheriff Bradley is accused of failing to suppress. George W. Schurman, New York, is conducting the hearing. Oscar Jones, a witness, testified that he was in the employ of Assistant District Attorney Elder, of King's county, as well as of Rev. Walter Laidley, the complainant in the case. Jones declared he received $100 advance money from District Attorney Elder and $5 a day and expenses from Mr. Laidley. He also admitted that he cleared $5 a day on his bets and turned them over to Rev. Mr. Laidley to go towards his expenses.

During the cross-examination by Senator Brackett, Jones admitted that he did not know what the money was for that passed between the men at the race track. He admitted he saw no bets made excepting his own.

Following The Cat.

"I can write," said a little girl, aged five, to her aunt, when she came in from school one day. "I'm delighted to hear it," replied the aunt. "And what can you write?" "I can write cat and mat and bat," said the child. The aunt gave her name and pen and wrote "cat here for me," she said, "and let me see." The child wrote the word fairly, but put the letter C with its back to the A. "That is very good," said auntie, "only look, dear, you have made the C the wrong way. The child gazed at the word for a moment. "But the cat was going that way!" she exclaimed.

Acrobatic Baby.

Philadelphia, Sept. 2.—A three-year-old boy had a penchant for cutting everything in sight when he could get a pair of scissors. One day, being left alone with her scarily-headed baby brother, she promptly cut every curl from the back of his head.

When the nurse discovered the damage she said: "Oh, May! How dare you cut baby's curls!" "He cut them himself." "How did he reach the back of his head?" "He stood on the stool."

Piles Must Yield.

Any congestion or inflammation of the tissues of the body are due to causes which always yield to Wade's Ointment. Its action is particularly prompt and effective in cases of piles. The remedy always cures eczema (salt rheum), ulcers, catarrh, dandruff and all scalp or itching eruptions of the skin. In big boxes, 25c., at Wade's drug store.

Bargains In Heathen Deities.

There is an old curiosity shop in London which makes a specialty of heathen deities. All kinds of images, small and large, handsome, hideous and grotesque, are on view. You can choose an antique Aztec god from Mexico, carved in heavy stone and hideous enough to scare a burglar; you can purchase a marble deity from Mandalay, a wooden atrocity from the Ju Ju land of West Africa or a gilt god from the Chinese temple.

Anty Drudge Saves Valuable Lace.

Mrs. Housewife—"Here I've boiled and rubbed this lace and the coffee stains are in it yet. I'm simply afraid to do a thing more to it. It looks weak already. I guess it's a goner."

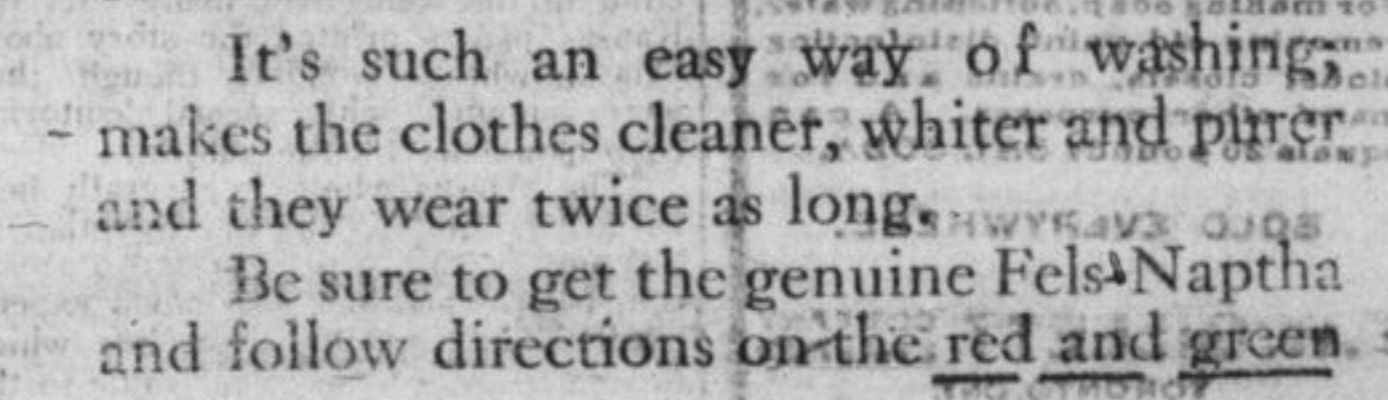

Anty Drudge—"Not if you will take my advice. But you've certainly given it a cooking. Take that boiler off the range, fill it with cool water, rub the lace with Fels-Naptha and soak it a short time. Then rub it lightly and rinse it. The stains will all be gone and the lace'll look as good as new."

"Boil until tender" is what all the cook books say.

Boiling makes most anything tender, even hard wood. And that's precisely what boiling does to your clothes. Makes the fibre tender. Then you wonder why your clothes tear so easily and wear into holes so soon. How else will you get your clothes clean?

Fels-Naptha dissolves and loosens the dirt in cool or lukewarm water, without hard rubbing.

No hot water, no boiling, in summer or winter. It's such an easy way of washing, makes the clothes cleaner, whiter and purer and they wear twice as long. Be sure to get the genuine Fels-Naptha and follow directions on the red and green wrapper.

Of our fine Scrubbin' Coal, will prove to you its superiority over all other kinds. P. WALSH, 55-57 Barrack St.
