The summer girl is still in our midst, but a few more cool evenings will be apt to crumple her up.

About 250 passengers came up on the steamer America, to-day, from Alexandria Bay and intermediate points.

John Taylor, Latimer, Ont., has his concrete silo completed. It was built with his silo molds, which he purchased lately.

The nurses of the General Hospital entertained at a pleasant little dance at the Residence, last evening. McAuley's orchestra furnished music.

The Living Age will signalize the beginning of its 250th volume in October by opening instalments of two serials: "Harby on the Hill," by M. E. Francis, and "Sally, a Study," by Hugh Clifford.

Two drunken sailors got into a mix-up on Ontario street Wednesday night and for a few moments bad language and fists were thrown around in all directions. Two men finally parted the pugilists, and started them home in opposite directions.

The popular comedian, George H. Summers, and his clever company of fun makers, will be at the Opera House all next week, presenting late comedy successes, interpreted with high-class vaudeville. Popular prices will prevail. Matinee labor day and Saturday.

The one place you can buy good reliable tooth brushes, Gibson's Red Cross drug store.

The Living Age for September 5th draws upon a new source, The Hindustan Review, for an article on "Unrest in India." Written by a clergyman at Jubulpore, it presents an intimate view of the subject, indicated by the title, "The Adolescence of An Empire."

It is sufficient for some people that they drink anything called tea. Others prefer a standard brand like "Salada," which has a reputation for being good. The latter get more enjoyment out of life. In buying tea for the satisfaction you expect to get from its use, it will pay to purchase "Salada." Avoid anything "just as good." Imitations are invariably of poor quality.

Notes From The Camp: The following officers, warrant officers and non-commissioned officers have been taken on the strength of the camp, from August 31st: Lieut. A. E. MacColl, medical officer, 15th Regiment; Lieut. J. N. H. Eastwood, medical officer, 57th Regiment; Sergeant Major J. R. McGowan, W.O., as instructor in signalling; Sergeant J. Crowley, C.M.S.C., as sergeant instructor; Lance-Corpl. Woodburn, R.C.R., as sergeant bugler on subordinate staff; Corpl. F. Bole and Ptes. Ross and Desjardins have been attached to No. 3 Cavalry Field Ambulance, for rations.

Lieut. H. O. Lawson, R.O., has been attached to the 5th Battery, C.F.A., during the camp.

To Resume Civic Business. Next week, the civic committee will resume their regular sessions. The city council will resume its regular meetings on Monday, September 14th, it having decided last June to take a month less vacation than in the past few years. The works and property committees have had a good deal to do this past summer.

The Public Agreed. The public seems to agree with the Whig that the new dome to be erected on the city buildings should be in keeping with the structure, that it should neither be massive nor cheap. The people do not want a botched dome, but one that will be a credit to the city.

They Want More Light. Some of the residents at the head of Arc street, are complaining that there is not sufficient light in that vicinity at night. It is stated that lanterns have been used by some of the citizens.

THREW SAND AT BABY

THIS WAS CAUSE OF NEIGHBOR'S QUARREL

Clergy Street Resident Was Fined and Bound Over to Keep the Peace—A Long Case in Police Court.

A neighbors' quarrel, in which the members of two families were concerned, including a baby in arms, occupied the attention of Magistrate Carroll, until the noon hour to-day. Robert Baird, living on Clergy street west, was accused of assaulting Mrs. Agnes Campbell, a neighbor.

Mrs. Agnes Campbell, 42 Clergy street west, told her story. On Saturday last, her eldest daughter, she said, had her baby out on the shady side of the street, when one of the Baird children threw dust in the baby's eyes. Witness crossed over the street, to get her baby, when she was attacked by Mr. Baird.

"He caught me by the throat, tore my waist and hit me with his fist," said the witness. A white waist, which gave evidence of having been torn, was exhibited in court by the witness.

"It's a lie, I never struck her," cried Baird who had to be told to keep quiet by his counsel, Ald. Rigney.

To Aid Rigney, witness said that she did not strike the Baird child, nor did she follow the child across the lawn into the house.

Mary Cosby, living on Clergy street, said that she saw Mrs. Campbell go across the street after the Baird children. The children were too fast for her, however, and got into the house. Witness saw Mr. Baird take hold of Mrs. Campbell and use her roughly, but did not see him strike her.

The nine-year-old daughter of Mrs. Campbell was called. She said that one of the Baird children threw dust in the baby's eyes, while she had the baby out. She saw Mr. Baird grab her mother by the throat, and push her against a stone wall.

Mr. Campbell, sworn, corroborated the evidence used by his wife. Baird, he said, had no provocation, but ever, for acting the way he did. He saw the Baird child throw sand on his baby.

Robert Baird said that two of his children were playing in front of the house. One child went into the house and the other came out. Mrs. Campbell struck both of the children, and witness said that he told Mrs. Campbell not to strike his children, or he would strike her. He denied the statement that he assaulted Mrs. Campbell. He pushed her aside but did not strike her. Witness said that Mrs. Campbell struck him, and then called for her husband.

Mr. McIntyre, witness admitted that he had been convicted in the police court of assaulting his wife. He had also been before the court for drunkenness, but was discharged. Witness also served a year on the "Indian list."

Mr. McIntyre asked the witness where his little girl was standing at the time of the row.

"On her own — lot," said the witness.

"Better be careful of the language you are using," said counsel for the witness. Witness had become very much excited.

Continuing in the evidence, Mr. McIntyre, who appeared for the prosecution, asked witness what he had been doing previous to the trouble.

"I was reading a paper," said the witness.

"What paper were you reading?"

"The Whig, because it is a good grit paper," was the reply, and the court and lawyers smiled.

Asked by Mr. McIntyre, witness admitted striking Mr. Campbell, and said he gave him "a — good one."

Charles O'Reilly, 37 Clergy street, said he saw Mrs. Campbell strike at Mr. Baird, Baird pushed her aside, witness denied positively the statement that Baird grabbed hold of Mrs. Campbell. He did not see Baird commit any assault on Mrs. Campbell.

In disposing of the case the court imposed a fine of $5 and costs upon Baird, and had him bound over to keep the peace.

Barge Winnipeg Damaged.

St. Catharines, Sept. 3.—Between five and six o'clock, last night, as the barges Winnipeg and Ungava were entering Port Dalhousie, in tow of the tug Bartlett, the high wind drove the Winnipeg against the east pier, and several planks were stove in below the water-line, and she is leaking badly. She is now in Port Dalhousie harbor, and will probably have to be docked.

Very Cold At Camp.

Last night was awfully cold for the troops at the camp on Barriefield Heights. Even some who had served through the South African war found the coldness disagreeable. It was hard for many to sleep, it was so chilly. The soldiers are hoping there'll be no more nights so cool while camp lasts.

Likely Tory Candidates.

In local conservative circles, four are mentioned as possible candidates in the coming federal election. They are: Mayor Ross, H. W. Richardson, T. J. Rigney and James A. Minnes.

HOTEL MAN CHARGED

WITH SELLING LIQUOR TO MINORS.

Forger Arrested in Ottawa, Also Wanted at Gracefield, Que.—C. P. R. Constables Are Quarrelling.

Ottawa, Sept. 3.—The man arrested at Toronto, giving his name as Leo Duval, of Ottawa, is Leopold Duval. He had passed the forged check at Gracefield, Que., for $61. This, as in the Toronto case, bore the rubber stamp of Booth Lumber company, and was signed by Robert Hay, manager. He bought goods in Gracefield and got the change. The Hall police have been looking for him ever since and have not communicated with Toronto.

Nelson Chevier, hotelman, was charged in the police court, this morning, with supplying liquor to two minors, aged fifteen and fourteen years respectively, whom he had brought from Maniwak to ship up the woods for the winter's work. The boys claim he went back on the original agreement concerning wages, detained them at his hotel and gave them liquor for a week, presenting them, at the end with heavy whiskey bills. The boys are now in the detention home. The case was adjourned for a day.

The C. P. R.'s special constables guarding the company's property during the fall, have been quarrelling among themselves and several cases of assault and abusive language have been preferred in the police court by officers against other fellow constables.

The first stage of the governor-general's match in the Dominion Rifle Association met to complete this morning and resulted in a tie for the D.R.A. silver medal between Arm. Sergeant A. Martin, 15th L. H., Alberton and Lieut. C. D. Spritall, C.A.S.C., Ottawa. They will shoot off for the medal. The weather is cold but otherwise the conditions are fairly good.

NEWS OF DISTRICT.

The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario.

Philip Ketcheson, Tweed, sentenced to the Central prison for two years less one day, for assaulting little girls, was, on Tuesday, taken to the Central to complete his term.

Eight is bestirring itself in the way of local improvements and on September 11th a concert will be held in the school grounds, the proceeds to be devoted to the building of new sidewalks.

The marriage of Miss Mary Louise McGibbon, Brockville, and Aeneas Edward McCormick, of the firm of Riley & McCormick, Calgary, Alta., was solemnized in St. Francis Xavier church on Wednesday, Rev. Deag Murray officiating.

At the close of last term Miss Armstrong retired from the position of teacher of domestic science in the Brockville public schools. Out of several applicants the board has chosen Miss Helen G. Carlyle, Brantford, Ont., to succeed her.

He Met His Fate.

A New Brunswick gentleman who made a fortune in Montana mines broke into politics on the conservative side in his native province, a little over a year ago, by buying two liberal papers in St. John and turning them over to the support of the conservative party. The result, as might have been expected, was financial injury to the properties, and he recently disposed of them at a loss of $150,000. He was afraid if he held on to them much longer his fortune would disappear more rapidly than he made it. Toronto also has an example of a similar nature. The public will stand for a strongly partisan journal, but it is honest, but it has no use for journals whose partisanship is dictated by the money behind them.

An Unwilling Tribute.

No sane person pretends that nothing of national value has been accomplished by the liberal administration. Only a mad partisanship would deny the advantage of certain of its achievements. The British preference, the railway commission, the Lemieux act, the extension of the International railway to Montreal, the improvement of the St. Lawrence waterway, the activities of the department of immigration, all stand to its credit. The department of agriculture has been well administered. Good work has been done by the labor department. There have been some good results from the heavy expenditures on the militia.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

School Trustees Should Have Council's Qualification.

Toronto, Sept. 3.—The Municipal Association has decided that it is not advisable for that body to recommend any change in the systems of municipal auditing. Resolutions were carried in favor of the construction of a provincial police force and urging that a strong stand should be taken in favor of the thorough enforcement of railway taxation. The association supported a proposal that the qualifications of a candidate for the position of school trustee should be the same as those for a member of the council and the option should be given to elect trustees by the general vote, with the assent of the electors.

A motion that no member of a joint stock company doing business with a council should be allowed to become a member of that council was defeated. A motion in favor of the amendment of the municipal act to exempt municipalities from liability for damages as the result of accidents on the highways was carried. The Ontario Controller Hopewell, Ottawa, introduced a resolution proposing that legislation should be asked for to provide that no municipal franchise, in voting the use of the public streets, should be granted except on the vote of the property owners, but it was lost. A resolution carried in favor of the repeal of the Conmee act.

In the pine forests of Ontario, only half the usual logging will be done this year. Millions of feet of lumber are held by every mill in those parts.
