Juvenile Sleuths Find Stolen Money.

THREE SCHOOL BOYS

UNRAVEL BURGLARY AND ARE ENTIRELY SUCCESSFUL.

Smart Detective Work in An Irish Town—Footsteps Traced to a Wall—The Money Found in Bags Which Had Been Buried.

Belfast, Sept. 5.—Smart detective work was carried out by three school boys at Newtownards, county Down, yesterday.

When the pupils assembled in the forenoon it was discovered that the schoolhouse, which is also used for Sunday services, had been broken into and that two linen bags containing the offerings of the previous day, amounting to $80 odd, were missing. Three lads requested to be allowed to assist in the search for the thieves. Permission was granted, and after a careful investigation of the school grounds the boys discovered a black-handled knife, the blade of which was open and pointing in the direction of the bank of a canal which runs adjacent to the school. The dew on the ground enabled the boys to trace footsteps to a wall, over which the thieves had apparently climbed.

Following this clue to the canal bank the boys momentarily lost further indications, but looking around for a while they again found the track, which was indicated by some nettles being trampled down. Pursuing this clue they came to a corn field immediately to the south of the school and here the marks were clearly defined among the corn.

On entering the field and going as far as the trail indicated the boys found a bottomless tin can, and imagined that they had got on the wrong tack after all. They reported the result of their investigations to Mr. Orr, the principal, who suggested that they should go back and examine the can. This they did, and when they noticed that the ground seemed to have been disturbed. Lifting a sod they discovered the two bags, which were apparently in the same condition as when taken away. On counting the money Mr. Orr found that it was a few shillings short.

The boys came in for a good deal of praise from their comrades in the school.

Boy Burglars Raid Church.

Geneva, Sept. 5.—Four Swiss boy burglars, the eldest of whom has reached the age of 11, were yesterday arrested at Lucerne in the act of breaking into a Roman Catholic church.

Many churches, including the English church, had recently been entered and robbed in the night. All the proceeds were found in an unoccupied house, which the boys had used as a meeting place, and there was much literature of the penny dreadful type and some burglars' tools.

WOMEN IN A RIOT.

Slovenes and Italians in Fight—Hundred Injured.

Trieste, Sept. 5.—A racial riot, in which over a hundred persons were badly injured, occurred here, yesterday, between Slovenes and Italians.

It was due to a holiday visit to Trieste of several hundred Italian working men from Milan. The Milanese arrived on the invitation of the local labor unions. Ten thousand members of the Italian liberal and socialist societies and a great crowd of Slovenes began to stone each other at the railway station, but the police arrived and separated them.

During the evening the Slovenes made another attack on the Italians, who were passing the time in cafes. In the melee windows were broken, chairs and tables were taken from the cafes for use as weapons, and much street damage was done. Many of the Slovenes were carried home badly injured. Italian women flocked to the scene, cheered their countrymen, and waved the Italian colors. Some of the women joined in the scrimmage.

The police charged into the crowds and made over three hundred arrests.

GOAT PAYS A FORTUNE.

Saving of Years Made Veil For Animal.

Berlin, Sept. 5.—An old goatherd recently fell asleep, and one of his animals pulled out the contents of his knapsack, and among other things devoured a $250 note, constituting the goatherd's savings during many years.

The goatherd travelled to Berlin, and went to the offices of the German Imperial Bank, where he put before the officials a strange, pulpy mass, wrapped up in leather, and asked them to examine it for the purpose of establishing the fact that it contained the remnants of a $250 note. It was the interior of the unhappy goat, which had had to pay for its fondness for dabbling with its life. The officials sent the deposit to an expert for examination, and after he had given his verdict that the goatherd's story was true the old man was paid.

ON FORGERY CHARGE.

Is Accused of Using His Brother's Name.

Watertown, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Daniel Hackett, wanted on a warrant for forgery, second degree, was arrested at Massena and brought here. A few weeks ago Hackett asked William B. Whalen, employed at the board of public works office, to identify him at the City National bank, so he might cash a check.

Whalen was agreeable, but it cost him $50, for Hackett, it was alleged, had forged his brother David's name. After cashing the check he disappeared. Whalen as indorsee being obliged to make good.

A NERVOUS TROUBLE ENDED IN THE DEATH OF YOUNG MAN.

The Death of a Lady of North Frederickburg—A Child Passed Away After a Brief Illness.

Napanee, Sept. 5.—Frank Dunbar, eldest son of A. J. Dunbar, Napanee, died, yesterday, at his home, North Frederickburg, after two years' suffering from a nervous trouble. Every thing that medical aid could do was resorted to without avail. He spent several months in Toronto, last year, undergoing treatment, but nothing was accomplished. Deceased leaves a widow and two children, Mabel and Herald, to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father. Deceased was about forty-five years of age. The funeral will take place on Sunday, at 2 p.m. The remains will be laid at rest in Riverside cemetery.

H. Joyce, of North Frederickburg, passed away on Friday afternoon, at the age of seventy years. Deceased leaves a large family of grown-up sons and daughters. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon, at 2 p.m. to Bethany cemetery. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lowry, Napanee, died, yesterday afternoon, at the home of Nelson Keech, North Frederickburg, after but a brief illness. Mrs. Lowry was at her father's when the baby was taken ill, and the funeral will take place from the residence of Nelson Keech, North Frederickburg, on Sunday afternoon, at 2 p.m. to Bethany cemetery.

Same Old Story, Same Old End.

Winnipeg, Sept. 5.—William Bell was born in Montreal, twenty-five years ago, and worked there in the C.P.R. office until five weeks ago, when he determined to come west and make his fortune. The girl of his choice also worked in a Montreal office and her four companions were all engaged to be married and wore diamond rings, one being valued at nearly $300. Bell thought that the only way to keep his girl was to get a handsome diamond ring. Three weeks in Winnipeg did the work and the ring money, $235 and $100 in cheques, was stolen from Crotty & Co.'s real-estate office, where he worked. He was sentenced to two months in jail.

UP FOR TRIAL

Bayne of Colchester Will Appear Before A Judge

TO ANSWER TO CHARGES OF BRIBERY.

Magistrate Finds That Rum and Money Were Used to Corrupt Electorate and Came From "Outside"—Would Not Listen to Conservative Organizer.

Truro, N.S., Sept. 5.—Stipendiary Magistrate Crowe gave decision in the Bayne bribery case.

A. C. Patterson, conservative organizer, stated to the court that A. L. Davidson, conservative organizer, was present and wished to make a statement. Mr. Davidson rose, and said he had no connection with this matter. The magistrate said he was not settled to be heard further.

His worship then reviewed the evidence stating that certain witnesses swore they were given sums of money and considerations in Stanfield's interest, and the evidence was uncontradicted as to anyone who heard the evidence. He could come to no other conclusion than that rum and money were given for the purpose of influencing the electors, and that it was of no consequence where Bayne got the money and the rum if they were used for the purpose charged against him.

The court stated further that the money was not the property of Bayne alone. By the testimony of the witnesses it came from a friend on the outside, and if furnished to him will not be known until the day he reaches the polls.

There was no other course open to him, the magistrate said, but to commit the defendant to jail.

Mr. Davidson again attempted to speak, but the court would not permit it, whereupon Mr. Davidson filed a document, which the magistrate declined to make public.

WHICH WILL WIN.

Who Shall Be the Sultan?—Battles to Determine.

London, Sept. 5.—In view of the important international issues depending upon the paramountcy of Abdul Aziz, or Mulai Hafid, it is a matter of considerable moment how their respective fortunes stand. This will not be known until the doubt as to the result of the fighting between the forces of Abdul and Mulai, which are now withstanding French reports that the Malifid would be defeated, contrary accounts continue to be received. The latest of these, dated Marrakesh, August 27th, says: "Tugu's army was routed with great slaughter by the Malifid, under El Glawi and Sidia, at Milf, twenty miles from Marrakesh. Tugu was taken prisoner. Tugu, who is the commander of the sultan's army, was not present. He had successfully fought the Malifid force a few days previously, leaving his own brother in command."

Another report, concerning the French statement, says El Glawi was decisively beaten, at Agadir, near Marrakesh, losing 500 killed and 1,000 wounded.

Relic-Hunting Vandals.

London, Sept. 5.—Thundridge old church tower, in Hertfordshire, has been looted by vandals, who have removed portions of the ancient masonry. Portions of the ancient masonry have been chipped off and removed, and part of the head of a carved figure by the side of the doorway has also been taken away.

BROTHER KILLS OWN

FOUR SLAIN IN BRAWL ABOUT SOME WOMEN.

Landlady of Inn Stabbed Through Throat and Daughter Through Heart.

Milan, Sept. 5.—Four persons were murdered, six mortally wounded, and many others injured in a drunken brawl of Calabrian peasants at Potenza.

A big party had been drinking wine for the space of six hours at a wayside tavern, when a quarrel arose over some women, and daggers were drawn. The landlady, who stepped in to separate the combatants, was stabbed through the throat and mutilated, exclaiming immediately: "Her daughter, Vincenzina, a pretty girl of twenty, rushed toward her mother, but whilst hushing over the lifeless body was flung down and pierced through the heart and lungs.

The landlady, who had been summoned meanwhile from the garden, seized his gun on beholding the fate of his wife and child, but before he could use it he was overpowered by the ruffians, and fell bleeding from severe wounds on the head, ribs and hands. As one assassin, jumping on the prostrate form, was preparing to sever the head, a robust young barmaid darted forward and bit a huge morsel off the villain's apron-rod.

The tragic scene then developed into a general fight with revolvers among the assassins themselves. By the time the police appeared half a dozen peasants were lying dead or wounded. Around the bodies of their dear ones were crouched the landlady's seven young children, sobbing piteously.

Among the dead is Salvatore Labella, aged twenty-two, who was a well-known character in New York, whose hat has returned only two days before. An insistent report alleges that he was killed by his own brother. The local hospital is full of injured onlookers.

The superstitious population, after recovering from the first shock of the massacre, crowded to the lottery office to gamble on corresponding numbers.

GOOD RESULTS.

Wright is Showing the Advantages of Aeroplane.

Lemans, Sept. 5.—Wilbur Wright made another flight in his aeroplane last evening, covering one and a half miles in two minutes thirteen seconds. The figure eight, turned with interest as the wind was blowing at the rate of twelve miles an hour and this was the aviator's first exhibition in France in such a wind. The aeroplane kept perfectly steady. Wright described the figure eight, turned with and against the wind and kept the aeroplane near the ground most of the time, but rose to a height of seventy or eighty yards at the turn. The flight was witnessed by 1,000 persons.

Five children were hurt in a panic in a Jewish theatre at Toronto last night.

WAVES OF OCEAN.

Remarkable Piece of Realism at Big Hippodrome.

London, Sept. 5.—The thunder of surf will be heard and the onward surge of foam-crested breakers will be seen on a London stage when the new spectacle, "The Sands of Dee," is staged at the Hippodrome next week. It will be the first time that real waves have been produced upon a stage, and yesterday, at a private view, the secret was discovered.

From a great tank seventy-nine feet above the stage, five tons of water were suddenly released. The water fell a solid mass, and struck against a sloping plane built at the back of the stage. It rebounded in the form of a great curling wave, which surged knee-deep across the stage, just as an Atlantic breaker races over the flint sand of a Cornish bay. Spray flew high up into the air. Hardly had the wave subsided when another five tons of water was set free and the performance repeated.

A LABOR LEADER.

Head of Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

B. H. MORRISSEY.

Patrick Henry Morrissey, grand master of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, is the man on whom depends largely the fate of the big strike in the North-west, where hundreds of miles of railways and thousands of men are tied up in a gigantic struggle unless Mr. Morrissey can find a way to appease the men and prevail on the railways to prevent any further cuts in wages. Mr. Morrissey was born at Bloomington, Ill., on September 14th, 1862, and was given a high school education. He married Miss Anna M. Brechwald in 1889. He has been the head of the present organization since August 1st, 1895.

Policeman Killed.

Was Shot Trying to Trap Burglars.

St. Louis, Sept. 5.—Chief of Detectives Gill, of East St. Louis, and Patrolman Ransome Paine, were shot yesterday while trying to trap burglars in the home of Philip Wolf, treasurer of St. Clair county, East St. Louis. Gill was shot through the mouth and Paine was wounded twice, one bullet penetrating the left side near the heart. Both men were taken to a hospital, where Paine is at the point of death.

In response to a telephone message from the Wolf home to the effect that burglars were in the dwelling, Gill, Paine and Policeman Lawrence hurried to the place and surrounded the house. Two men immediately came from the rear of the Wolf dwelling and began to fire at the officers. The attack was so sudden the officers had practically no chance to return the fire. The burglars escaped.

MAKE FORTUNES.

Lured By Newspaper Advertisement—Boys Robbed.

Paris, Sept. 5.—Owing to the immense development of swindling by advertisement, the French authorities are taking stern measures to repress this form of fraud. A man named Boileau was arrested last night while opening a large pile of letters containing postal orders for $2,500, sent to cover preliminary expenses in connection with an alluring announcement offering $4,000 to those who would adopt a child. The "child swindle" is a never-failing source of income.

An ingenious trickster announced in the provincial press that for 5 shillings he would forward a packet of seed potatoes which attained enormous size, and which he had christened the "Fallières" potato. No seeds were ever sent to those who forwarded the 5 shillings, but the author of the swindle carried on operations for six months and made a small fortune before disappearing.

GERMAN PRINCE INVENTOR.

Brother of Kaiser Seeks Patent on Device.

Berlin, Sept. 5.—Prince Henry of Prussia, the Kaiser's brother, is now on the list of the imperial patents office, his demand for a patent for an invention concerning automobile having been granted. The prince has constructed a device which automatically cleanses the glass screen which protects the occupants of the car from the wind and dust.

This is done by a rule lined with leather, which moves up and down the plate and takes away the dirt which complacently when the car is going at high speed, or when it rains. For many years the prince has studied the construction of turbines and boilers, and has actually invented an improvement on the cooling device.

DYING MAN MARRIED.

Pathetic Scene Enacted Within Walls of a Hospital.

Naples, Sept. 5.—A pathetic scene was enacted yesterday at the Hospital of Loretto, where a dying man, Ernesto Santaggio, a tram inspector, was married.

He had gone to hospital after a serious accident, and was told that there was no hope for his recovery. He thereupon asked that he should be permitted to marry his fiancée in order that she might receive, as his will stated, a pension to which he was entitled.

The ceremony took place in the ward and on its conclusion the bride wept and she recovered only a few hours later, when her newly married husband was dead.

GANANOQUE WEDDINGS

TWO COUPLES ENTER LIFE OF BLISS.

Remains of the Late Edward LeFebvre Who Died in Kingston, Were Buried Under Oddfellow Auspices.

Gananoque, Sept. 5.—At the Olivet church, near Berrington, on Monday evening last, Miss Maud Lillian Berry, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Beery, of Berrington, was united in marriage to Ernest Sly. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. McConnell. Afterwards the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where supper was served, after which the newly-married couple left to spend their honeymoon in the west.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nuttall, of Thousand Island Junction, was the scene of a very pleasant event, on Wednesday evening last, being the occasion of the marriage of their only daughter, Loretta Pearl Nuttall, to Carman Elmer Day, second son of J. W. Day, of the same place. The ceremony was performed before a number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties, by Rev. J. Tallman Pitcher. Following the ceremony a dainty supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Day left for Toronto and other points west.

Edward LaFebvre, who resided here some few years ago, and who, with his wife, were located by Kingston for some time past, passed away in that city, on Thursday, aged fifty-five. Deceased was well known in this vicinity, having been an employee in the Electric Light company's works for some time. He married, a few years ago, Miss Bogart, daughter of Joseph Bogart, Marble Rock, who was brought here, to-day, and the funeral took place from the Thousand Island railway station, to Gananoque cemetery, Gananoque lodge, No. 114, I.O.O.F., of which he was a member, conducted the funeral rites.

The Rockport Navigation company's steamer, Missisquoi, took out quite a large excursion party from here, yesterday, to Iroquois, passing down the Gatops Rapids and returning on the Cardinal canal, arriving at her destination about 1 p.m., giving one and a half hours in the town and arriving home about 10 p.m.
