Chicago Detective Says Russia in Terror—Little Protection For Life and Property.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—The police of Russia are used for the purpose of harassing political enemies of the government...

Detective Mills denied that a whole congregation of Russians had been flogged by Cossacks...

"Things are very bad in Russia," said Detective Mills, "and there's a kind of reign of terror there."

"There are many executions in Russia of which the world never hears."

"Sometimes men and boys are shot within a few hours after their arrest."

"At Merzakowa, near Odessa, there was for a time a fire in one of another of the buildings of a wealthy merchant every night."

"In one town some whitewashing implements were stolen from a church that was being repaired."

"The financial condition of the country is pitiable. The masses of the people are very poor, and beggars seem to infest the whole empire."

Mills took the Russia Medford Zeinosek, a Russian fugitive wanted in Libau for killing four peasant women.

Copenhagen, Sept. 5.—The following telegram has been received from Lieutenant Trolle, master of the Denmark, the vessel of the Denmark Greenland expedition.

"The Denmark expedition arrived at Bergen today, having carried out its objects, although this result was clearly paid for. Mylius Erichsen, Lieutenant Hagen and Mr. Bronlund perished in November, 1907, in an attempt to return from the north coast of Greenland over the inland ice, having been obliged to remain on the north coast through the summer owing to the state of the weather."

"The body of Mr. Bronlund was found in a crevice near one of our depots. By the body were found sketches showing the results of the work accomplished and also the dead man's diary, in which was written the following: 'I perished in latitude 79 degrees north under the hardships of the return journey over the inland ice in November...'

THE PARAGRAPH PULPIT

Unitarian. REV. C. W. CASSON. My Belief.

I believe in God enough to obey Him, and to yield to Him my allegiance and assistance in those causes in which I can trace the deity's purpose; I believe in myself enough to give myself every opportunity to develop the highest and noblest qualities of which I am possessed; I believe in love enough to endeavor to live it; I believe in my fellow-men enough to reverence them, and to assist in every way that lies in my power to develop equally with myself (them); I believe in truth enough to ever seek it and to be willing to subject it to any test that reason may demand; I believe in immortality enough to be assured that I am living it here and now.

Address, Rev. C. W. Casson, at 36 Beacon street, Boston, Mass., for the literature.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for Public Building, Whiting, Ont." will be received at this office until 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday, September 22, 1908, for the construction of a public building at Whiting, Ont. Plans and specifications can be seen and forms of tenders obtained at this Department and at the post office, Whiting, Ont.
