

Gold in Twilight

Perfect weather smiled on Colonel and Mrs. W. D. Gordon, who were at home at Barriefield camp, yesterday. The air on the heights was delightful, and the view of the city and lake, as people drove over the bridge and back was in itself a treat. The sight at the camp was a pretty one too, with all the delicate summer dresses and the scarlet and gold lace and other gorgeousness of the officers present. The host and hostess received just outside the brigade tent, refreshments being dispensed in the mess tent adjoining. Through the afternoon the singularly sweet band of the 6th of Port Hope, played airs gay, martial and pensive. At the tea table were Mrs. Arthur Cunningham, Colonel Gordon's eldest daughter, and Mrs. Francis Macnee, making tea, and cutting eggs, and leading the men, who did a large share of distributing refreshments were Miss Bessie, Miss Nora and Miss Helen Gordon, Miss Marie Caruthers, Miss Hilda and Miss Doris Kent, and Miss Nora Macnee. Among the guests were Colonel and Mrs. E. T. Taylor, Colonel and Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming, Miss Grace Hemming, Captain Frank Hemming, Colonel and Mrs. F. Strange, Captain and Mrs. W. S. P. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blair, Captain and Mrs. Charles Low, Mrs. George Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. J. B. Penne, Dr. and Mrs. Ramsay Duff, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Ross, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Caruthers, Mrs. Arthur Flower March, Mrs. James Hamilton, Miss Lenore Hamilton, Mrs. D. Norton-Taylor, the Misses Norton-Taylor, Mrs. James Gildersleeve, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gildersleeve, Miss Havel Gildersleeve, the Principal of Queen's and Miss Katie Gordon, Mrs. W. T. Connell, Miss May Ford, Mrs. James Higgins, Miss Madeline Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carson, Mr. and Mrs. John Carson, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Rigney, Mrs. Alaine Shortt, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremy Taylor, Mrs. Hugh Nickle, Miss Mary Hara, Miss Mabel and Miss Dorothy Brownfield, Miss Bessie and Miss May Smythe, Miss Florence Cunningham, Miss Frances Sullivan, Miss Christine Cochran, Miss Mamie Garrett, Miss Marion Calvin, Miss Olive Matthews, Miss Mildred Jones, Miss Bessie Richardson, and Miss Marjorie Merrick, Colonel Keat, Captain Walter Macnee, Mr. Francis Macnee, and many others.

The tennis lunch on Thursday was a great success, and so was the tournament following. In this Mrs. Laferriere and Miss Constance Norton-Taylor won. Those who went over were: Mrs. Arthur March, Mrs. Francis Macnee, Mrs. George Mackenzie and Mrs. Herbert Dawson, Miss Bessie and Miss Nora Gordon, Miss Grace Hemming, Miss Bessie Smythe, Miss Frances Hara, Miss Madeline Carter, Miss Mabel Dalton, Miss Marion Calvin, Miss Olive Matthews, Miss Mabel Brownfield, Miss Frances Sullivan, Miss Christine Cochran, Miss Mamie Garrett, Miss Lillian Kent, Miss Mildred Jones, Miss Mamie Anglin, and the Misses Adams of Toronto.

Mrs. J. O. Crisp's tea at St. John's rectory, Portsmouth, was delightful in every sense. Flowers filled the pretty rooms, white asters and greenery being on the tea table, and the guests were congenial. Miss Hattie Crisp made the tea, Miss Constance Cooke poured coffee, Miss Edith Straubenzie cut the ices, and those assisting were Miss Sophy Crisp, Miss Cordelia Straubenzie, Miss Kathleen O'Hara, Miss Milly Ferris, Miss Clara St. Remy, and Miss Kathleen Crisp.

Mrs. VanStraubenzie will entertain at tea at "Kirkleatham," on Tuesday.

17 CARS DERAILED IN SPITE OF HORSESHOES.

Whole Carload of Horsehoes Did Not Prevent Accident to Freight Train—Several Cars Went Over Bank and Were Destroyed by Fire.

Trenton, Ont., Sept. 4.—A whole carload of horse shoes were not enough to save a Grand Trunk freight train from being wrecked near here at three o'clock this morning. The old superstition would have got its death blow for sure if it had not been that none of the train hands received injuries, and a goodly portion of the train escaped destruction. Temperance people and lovers of the drink that inebriates will differ as to whether another proof was shown that good luck was at work when they learn that among the cars that remained intact, one contained a large shipment of whiskey.

Eight cars were derailed, and of these three were badly smashed and totally destroyed by fire. The wrecked train was a west-bound freight of some forty-five cars, loaded with various goods. The accident occurred just east of the Trenton station. The wreck resulted in the destruction of a half dozen cars, with their contents.

As the train neared Trenton, traveling at high speed, a split rail caused about seventeen cars to leave the track, several of which went over the north embankment, and immediately caught fire, and were soon consumed. Three of these were empty coal cars. The car loaded with horse shoes was damaged, but its contents were not seriously injured. The car loaded with whiskey rolled over the embankment, landing on its side, but did not suffer much.

The first twenty-three cars of the train passed all right, but seventeen of the following cars were derailed, leaving the five rear ones on the track. The accident occurred in about the same spot as the one in which a number of horses and a jockey were killed some time ago. Fortunately, this time no one was killed or injured. The Trenton fire brigade responded to a call, but were unable to be of much service in saving the Grand Trunk property, as water was not available.

It is difficult to ascertain the extent of the damage to the destruction of the cars by fire has left little trace of much of the contents, and railway officials never admit any loss. The wrecking crew from Belleville made quick work of cleaning up the wreck, and fortunately the south track remained clear for traffic.

What is Found About the Wharves.
The steamer Howe is on her way from Port William to Richardson's wharf, E. H. Tothill, Earl street, will leave on Tuesday, for Montreal, where she will spend the winter with her son, Mr. R. F. K. Tothill, of the Bank of Montreal.

Major Clyde Caldwell has been warmly greeted by all his old friends this week. The Misses Adams, of Toronto, who are at their summer cottage among the islands, were up in town, this week, for the tennis luncheon. Mrs. (Dr.) Beattie, Owen Sound, and two daughters, Mrs. (Dr.) McDonald, and her little daughter, Helen, and Miss Lily Beattie, Owen Sound, are visiting Mrs. F. S. Resbarrie street. Mrs. Beattie is a sister-in-law.

NEWBURGH BUDGET.

The Fiftieth Anniversary of Methodist Church.

Newburgh, Sept. 3.—George Shorey, the former pitcher of the local ball team, but who is now living in Winnipeg, made his debut in profession, at last ball week. He is playing left field for the Lynx of the city league and has evidently made good, as the Winnipeg papers speak very highly of his work.

The trustee board of the Methodist church are making preparations for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the dedication of the Methodist church, in October. Two Sundays are to be set apart, Oct. 11th and 18th, the first Sunday to be in charge of the Sunday school and Epworth league. In the morning the circuit Sabbath school rally will be held. On Monday evening, Oct. 19th, a big tea meeting is to be held in the church. Prominent ministers of the church, who formerly were stationed here, will preach and lead the Monday evening man of Newburgh's famous sons, who have since made a name for themselves, will speak.

Mrs. Pomeroy and family leave for Chicago, on Monday, after a residence here of several years. Their many friends will regret to learn of their departure. Miss Beaman, of Kempville, and Miss Grouse, of Newcastle, the assistants on the high school staff, arrived on Monday. Lieut. W. G. Beaman, of Halifax, is home on a short visit to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. Beaman, Mrs. W. E. Schuster, of Belleville, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. Madden.

Misses Madelon and Juanita Thomson, returned to Toronto, on Tuesday, after spending the summer with their parents, at the fair in Toronto this week. A number from the village are "soldiering" at Barriefield. Master John returned, this week, after visiting relatives in the east. Master Ross and Miss Marjorie Brisco returned to Galt, this week, after spending the holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brisco.

The work on the bridge is finished, but it will be about ten days before the concrete flooring is laid enough to travel. Miss Macdonald, Yarker, spent a few days, last week, with Miss Stella Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Sager, Richmond, spent Tuesday with their son, S. E. Sager. The county bridge committee was in the village on Wednesday. Mr. Lake, of Strathcona, is relieving W. B. Dunn, at the Bay of Quinte railway station here, while the latter is at Barriefield camp.

BOMB OUTRAGE IN SICILY.

Missile Thrown Through Window Nobody Seriously Hurt. Rome, Sept. 5.—A bomb was thrown, yesterday morning, at a window of the mansion in Palermo occupied by a wealthy merchant, Signor Pecorino. Though the weapon was very powerful, no one was seriously hurt, though Signora Pecorino and her daughter were struck by splinters of glass. The walls of the house were greatly damaged.

No motive for the outrage is known, though in certain quarters it is held to be connected with the agitation in favor of Signor Nitti, the Sicilian minister convicted of fraud.

Mr. Borden Dodging Trial.

Brantford Expositor. To expedite the hearing of election petitions, is another promise made by Mr. Borden. The conservative leader has had an election petition against him pending since 1904, and has not been tried yet. He has placed every legal obstacle in the way of this trial. He does not want it to come on, but the minister of justice has stated that if ever it does come to a hearing, and if the information in this case is established in court, Mr. Borden would be disqualified from holding office and be banished from the House of Commons for eight years. Mr. Borden says he wants quick election trial, but all his legal ingenuity has been engaged in fighting his election trial off since the year 1904.

How to Get Rid of Fat

A Remarkable Discovery That Can Reduce Fat Harmlessly at the Rate of a Pound a Day.

A Trial Box Sent Free. A quick, harmless reducer of fat, called Rengo, has come into popular use which far eclipses any method or treatment heretofore used.

You Eat Rengo Like Fruit or Candy and Easily Reduce Your Fat a Pound a Day. Rengo is perfectly harmless, pleasant to take and it chews like candy. It attacks abnormal tissue with unerring accuracy and causes a gradual, harmless but effective reduction in weight, and without leaving wrinkles which are nearly always present after taking drugs and other dangerous materials commonly called "anti-fats."

There is nothing "just as good" as Rengo. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per full sized box, or by mail prepaid, by The Rengo Co., 3332 Rengo Bldg., Detroit, Mich. The company will gladly send you a trial package free by mail, if you write them direct to Detroit, no free packages at drug stores. For sale and recommended at Kingston by Henry Wade, Druggist.
