Ohio River Bed is Quite Dried Up.

A SERIOUS OUTLOOK

FIRE IS WIPING OUT MANY FORESTS.

The Long Dry Spell Has Created Conditions of An Alarming Nature—Streams Dry For the First Time in Fifty Years.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 21.—With forest fires destroying much valuable property, the enforced suspension of many industries, crops ruined, live stock suffering, river navigation at a standstill and numerous small streams absolutely dry, a drought which has practically been unbroken for over two months, is fast assuming serious proportions in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia.

During four days of last week a representative of the Associated Press visited over thirty cities and towns in the tri-state district and conditions of an alarming nature were found on account of the long, dry spell.

At night raging forest fires light up miles of territory, while thousands of persons are doing everything in their power to check the flames. Meetings are held at which prayers for rain are offered.

A tour through portions of the three states shows the seriousness of the drought. A majority of the smaller streams are as dry as a bone and their beds are being used as wagon roads. At a number of places along the Ohio and West Virginia shores of the Ohio river there is not a sign of water.

Near Marietta, Ohio, the large steamboat Tornado, with a tow of barges for Pittsburg, is lying on a bed of gravel, in the middle of what was the river. At many points small streams of water extend a few yards from either shore and boys, after playing across these, can be seen playing ball in the middle of the Ohio river.

Telegraph and telephone companies having cables crossing the river are busily engaged in digging trenches in the river bed so the cables can be placed out of sight.

Many industries along the river are suspended on account of no water for power purposes and many others will be idle unless rain falls soon.

It is said of the "streams-no-dry" that it is the first time in fifty years that such a condition has existed.

In the Pittsburg harbor there are between fifteen and twenty million bushels of coal ready to be shipped to points south and west of this city. Unless this fuel reaches its destination before snow comes considerable suffering will result from a coal famine. To prevent an epidemic of disease the local authorities are flushing several streams in the Pittsburg district and then coating the bed and banks with lime.

A "WORLD" YARN.

Frog in Ice Hopped About When Melted.

New York, Sept. 21.—A special to the World, from Middletown, N.Y., says: "An employee of an ice company here was delivering a cake of ice to a customer on Orchard street to-day, when he discovered a frog in the centre of the cake. The ice was melted and the frog taken out. After it had been exposed to the sun for about ten minutes the frog commenced to hop about, apparently none the worse for its ice imprisonment. It is a remarkable fact that the ice from which the frog had been taken had been in storage for two years. The frog was exhibited about the city for some time."

WIFE, DAUGHTER, MONEY.

Home Was Stripped of Everything Save a Bed.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 21.—Deserted by his wife and seventeen-year-old daughter and robbed of $8,000, his savings of a lifetime, John O'Hearn, a machinist, has asked the police to find the couple, and the grand jury has returned an indictment against them for forgery on the charge that they drew from three savings banks on forged orders savings deposited in his name.

O'Hearn left home one morning recently, leaving his wife and daughter in the best of spirits, and when he returned in the evening found the house stripped of all furniture save a bed. The fugitives were traced to an expensive flat in Springfield, but O'Hearn lacked the means to follow them up.

DRANK POISONED WATER.

Nurse Made Fatal Mistake in Californian Hospital.

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 21.—A nurse in the county hospital confessed to District Attorney Kirby that she had accidentally furnished a number of the patients with drinking water containing a quantity of poison. Six were taken violently ill, one died, and the others are in a serious condition, some being unconscious. It is probable that other deaths will occur.

The wholesale poisoning was followed by rumors that it has been brought about deliberately as the result of a plot. The sheriff and the district attorney immediately began an investigation at the hospital, and finally learned from one of the nurses that she had used for drinking water a receptacle that had contained poison.

THE TAX DODGERS.

Attempt Will Be Made to Collect Duties.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 21.—The question of whether the estates of Michigan dodgers who die in Ontario, can be made to pay succession duties, is involved in proceedings about to be started against the estate of John Patten, who died here three years ago. Most of the Patten property passed to a son who is now living here. His Windsor property is worth about $2,000, but it is said the Michigan estate is worth $60,000. If successful in this suit the Ontario government will take toll from the estates of others who escape taxation in Michigan by living in Ontario. From one estate alone, which will be involved, the dues will be over $7,000.

The Latest Position.

Manchester, Eng., Sept. 21.—The wage dispute in the Lancashire cotton trade, which threatened to involve the lock-out of 200,000 operatives, took a new turn. The spinners have decided to accept the terms of their employees, a five per cent. reduction in wages beginning January 1st, but the card-room operatives decided not to yield. Should the card-rooms adhere to their decision the spinners, those willing to work, will be unable to do so owing to lack of material for the card-rooms will be locked out.

Sent Up For Murder.

Bellefonte, Ont., Sept. 21.—The inquest held at Shamouliere, in the case of James Sero, shot and killed on Wednesday night, ended in a verdict of wilful murder against Thomas Smart, who is now under arrest. The prisoner told witnesses that he would kill Sero and told others that he had killed him and was ready to swing for it. He alleged Sero beat and wronged his (the prisoner's) sister.

A CHARITY FRAUD

WOMAN BEGGAR USES INFANT TO STIR SYMPATHY.

New York, Sept. 21.—Probably the heaviest sentence ever given a woman beggar by the justices of special sessions was imposed, yesterday, on Sarah Borofsky. She pleaded guilty to using her eighteen-month-old baby as a means of exciting sympathy, and was fined $500, with the alternative of ninety days in the city prison.

Agent Cook arrested her. Clothed in rags, bent over and hugging her baby to her breast, she presented a pitiful sight, but Cook knew her of old.

Yesterday he told the judges the result of his investigation. He learned that her husband had three bank accounts and earned $3 a day, as a painter. One of her neighbors said to him, Cook testified:

"What are you looking for charity for? Her husband makes lots of money. Why, they live better than anyone in the house."

Justice Mayo recognized the woman as one on whom for similar offences he had suspended sentence twice before.

WOMAN WHIPS PASTOR.

Preacher on Street Takes His Punishment.

Alexander, Ia., Sept. 21.—Mrs. Bonita Swartzberg created a sensation by stopping on Main street and applying a horsewhip to the head and shoulders of Rev. C. H. Worten, a young minister in charge of one of the best churches here.

With his wife, Worten was walking down Main street when attacked by Mrs. Swartzberg. She applied the heavy whip until exhausted. Attempts by citizens to stop the woman were not permitted by the young minister, who stood quietly and took his punishment.

The woman alleged Worten had made remarks reflecting on her character.

CHOOSE CURRIE

As Liberal Candidate in Prince Edward.

VICTORY IS ASSURED

FOR THE REPRESENTATIVE OF LAURIER.

The Liberals United—Dr. Currie's Able Address—J. McD. Mowat, of Kingston, Scored the Conservative "Purists" and Paid His Respects to Foster.

Pictou, Sept. 21.—If the old adage, "in union there is strength" be true, then the liberals will send their candidate to the House of Commons, to represent Prince Edward. Never was a more enthusiastic and unanimous convention for the selection of standard bearer than that on Saturday, when a crowd that packed the opera house, selected Dr. Morley Currie, ex-M.P.P., 26th. Further evidence that Dr. Currie's election is assured is the very evident disfavor with which this selection became known among the conservative voters. A stronger man to pick than Dr. Currie would have been almost an impossibility. "The outlook was never brighter for the liberals of the county than this year," said Mr. R. Allison, chairman of the afternoon's convention.

After Dr. Currie had been unanimously selected, he gave a short, dress thanking the electors, and calling upon all to give their help, without which he could not hope to win the election. He made a definite pledge regarding matters of patronage with which he might be called upon in the future to act. He would take no part in the matter, but turn it over to a committee of township chairmen, and officers of the association of the county and Wellington, Bloomfield and Pictou. Criticizing the campaign literature of the conservatives, he characterized the pamphlet, "Facts for the People," as full of insinuations, accusations and misrepresentations of well-known facts. Regarding misappropriation of public funds, he pointed out that it was true that some cases had occurred at the government chest, but he drew attention to a worthy comparison that there had not been as much wrong doing at Ottawa as in the chartered banks of Canada, where the checks and attaches were selected with unusual care.

Dr. Currie has long been an energetic believer in the need of technical education, and he advocates technical education to overcome the present difficulties that have cropped up over the tariff rate that is the cause of friction with the woolen manufacturers. It was only natural that Canadian manufacturers should want a high tariff when they could compete against manufacturers in the old lands, where technical education would be thought, overcome this difficulty. The reason for the better and cheaper product from the old land was because of such education. In conclusion, the candidate referred to the wondrously prosperous condition of Canada, with England, United States and in Japan, there was depression. Laurier's term was responsible for good and a prosperous condition of the country.

J. McDonald Mowat, of Kingston, was up for nomination meeting and gave an address of spirit. Speaking of Tupper's late letter to the press, he said he was glad that Tupper had jumped into the campaign for the experience of the liberals in the past had been that where Tupper had led, the liberals had won. The conservatives advocated against the high rate of tariff. The taxes were higher, but the tariff less. The speaker referred to the campaign of Borden and his colleagues, who preached of the liberal's "wonderful" condition, which holy child men, who preach of purity?" he asked and answered his own question, "None other than George E. Foster," who was dismissed as general manager of the Union Trust for mismanagement of funds. He admitted that there had been cases of misappropriation of funds in the Ottawa treasury, but he pointed out that in every instance investigation had proved that the wrong-doer had been a top official left in the city prison before 1896. He related charges of extravagance, and said the country was developing and the government spending to meet this development, but is yet living well within the means of the land, and never ending the year's business with a deficit, as the conservative regime had. In conclusion he urged strongly for cooperative effort to help Dr. Currie win. Other speakers included G. N. Rose, Ex-Sheriff Gillespie and John Lyatt.

Charles Peckover, of Toronto, who has been filling the position of assistant to Town Engineer Code, for the past few months, has returned home. The question of ownership of the popular Sabbath evening resort, at Half Moon Bay, which has lain in abeyance for a year or more, is likely to be decided in the near future. By the will of the late Mr. Wallace, of New York, the bay, with a strip of land twenty feet surrounding it, and $2,000 in cash to build a pavilion and public religious worship, was bequeathed to the town of Gananoque, providing it would make use of it. The town has never been really certain as to whether its acquisition was of the "white elephant" character or not, and never made a formal acceptance. Mayor McCannan and Reeve Britton will now investigate the matter and report to the council, as the new Islanders' Association has among its aims and objects the public worship question. It will be quite safe for the town to accept, and be aided by the association in providing speakers for the services.

A meeting of the conservatives of Gananoque has been called for Wednesday evening, 23rd inst, in the town hall, for appointing delegates for a convention at Delta, on Saturday, September 26th. Whether anyone else is hustling or not, Mr. Taylor is unquestionably making a strong effort to make his "calling and election sure."

The following are visiting in town: W. T. Heasley, Toronto, at Mrs. J. Heasley's, King street; Miss Grace Kennedy, Perth, at Mrs. J. A. Jackson's, Stone street; Rev. and Mrs. H. Allen, Ottawa, at Clarke Allen's, Main street; St. Acton, New York, at W. R. Acton's, Garden street; Dr. H. Bennett, White River, at George Bennett's, Sydneyham street.

The following are visiting out of town: Mrs. S. A. McKenzie, Kenneth McKenzie, King street; Mrs. McMaster, Leeds, in Chicago, and Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. George Emery, Pictou, in Ottawa; Mrs. Britton, in Syracuse, N.Y.

The following visitors have left for home: Misses Madeline and Beulah Meggs, Kingston; Eppie Meggs, Syracuse, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Burgess and Miss Raymond, Carlisle Place; Francis E. Kimball, Cardinal.

William L. M. King, deputy minister of labor, will be the liberal candidate in North Waterloo.

ADOPTS WIDOW.

Chicago Man Files Strange Petition in Court.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Legal authority to adopt a forty-five-year-old widow in the circuit courts, Edward Lees, a Chicago widower, who is at present in Guadalajara, Mexico, makes the strange request in a petition filed yesterday. Mrs. Marie Grace Lees, his daughter-in-law, who is now with him is the person whom the petitioner would legally place on the same footing at law as though she was his own child.

The court action becomes necessary in order that an insurance policy which Lees has carried for years on his life will not become worthless. The policy provides that some but blood relatives, adopted children or parents may be beneficiaries. Lees' only son, who married Marie Grace Lees, is dead, so he has hit upon the adoption plan.

TAX COLLECTOR ARRESTED.

Collingwood Has Sensation—Shortage Not Large.

Collingwood, Ont., Sept. 21.—Tax collector J. W. Archer is under arrest here charged with the theft of funds of the municipality. Archer was tax collector for a number of years, but the shortage is wholly in his accounts for 1907. He is bonded by the Employers' Liability Co. The deficit amounts to $669, of which the council have secured $300 by withholding the collector's salary for 1907.

TAYLOR IS HUSTLING

TO GET THE SOUTH LEEDS NOMINATION.

Gananoque Council to Accept Gift of Half Moon Bay—Matched Horse Race on Saturday Won by Wesley Stoliker's Trotter.

Gananoque, Sept. 21.—The matched race at the Gananoque Driving Park, future to act. It would take no part in the matter, but turn it over to a committee of township chairmen, and officers of the association of the county and Wellington, Bloomfield and Pictou. Criticizing the campaign literature of the conservatives, he characterized the pamphlet, "Facts for the People," as full of insinuations, accusations and misrepresentations of well-known facts. The bulk of the estate goes to his oldest daughter, Giulia, who is a noted horsewoman at Riverdale, and everything connected with it. A trust fund of $150,000 is made for her, the same amount being set aside for each of the three other children, the two sons, Giovanni and Attilio, and Amelia, a daughter. Only $75,000 is provided for Victoria, who displeased her father by running away with a coachman, Ernest Schilling.

In addition, Giulia is to receive the income from whatever is left of the estate after the trusts have been provided for. To her is left the care of Amelia, the youngest daughter, and Giulia is to receive the income from Amelia's fund and use it as she may desire for the benefit of her younger sister without accounting to anybody. DIED IN MONTREAL.

Right Rev. Bishop of Montreal at Rest.

Montreal, Sept. 21.—The Right Rev. James Carmichael, lord bishop of the Anglican church in Montreal, died this morning. He was stricken with heart failure, yesterday, while he was preaching a sermon in Christ Church cathedral and from that time he was unconscious until he passed quietly this morning.

For some years past Bishop Carmichael had suffered from weakness and had not been in very good health. He recently took a trip to London, Eng., where he attended the Anglican conference. It was thought that this trip had done him a lot of good, and up to the time he was stricken the impression remained.

The late bishop was the author of many works, among which were sermons on the Christian year, "Design and Derivation"; Series on the Prayer Book, Church Union and a monograph on Higher Criticism. He was seventy-three years of age, when he died, and an active participant in connection with the Citizens' League, of which he was founder. He was a director of the Protestant Hospital for the Insane.

DR. CHAS. HICKEY DEAD.

Superintendent of Cobourg Hospital For Insane.

Cobourg, Ont., Sept. 21.—Dr. Chas. Hickey, medical superintendent here of the hospital for the insane, died suddenly on Saturday. He had been in hospital for three years ago, where he had long been a personal friend of Sir J. P. Whitney. His death was unexpected, though he had been confined to bed since the Sunday previous, when he was stricken with acute indigestion. Friday, however, he seemed much better. He was taken ill during the night and died about six o'clock. Last week he attended the Toronto exhibition. Dr. Hickey was about seventy years of age. For ten years he represented Dundas in the dominion parliament. Dr. Hickey leaves a widow, two daughters and three sons, the latter all in Manitoba.

VERY SUDDEN DEATH

OF MICHAEL ENRIGHT WHILE IN A CAB.

Died While Being Removed to the Hotel Dieu—His Wife Was With Him at the Time and Was Prostrated.

Death came very suddenly, this morning, to one of the city's well-known citizens in the person of Michael Enright, 307 Earl street. Mr. Enright was around on Sunday morning, in his usual good health, and did not complain of feeling ill. About five o'clock this morning he was taken suddenly ill with heart trouble and about eight o'clock a cab was summoned to remove him to the Hotel Dieu, St. John's. When the patient's wife accompanied him on the drive. As the cab moved slowly along the sick man became rapidly worse and just as the Hotel Dieu was reached he passed away. The body was at once carried into the hospital.

The effect of the sad death of her husband on Mrs. Enright can be better imagined than described. She was prostrated with grief and had to be helped into the Hotel Dieu, where she was looked after by the nursing sisters.

The late Mr. Enright was about forty-five years old and had lived in the city all his life. For about twenty-five years, off and on, he was employed by Rigney & Hickey, doing their city business. He was a well-known character, and his cheery word of welcome for all with whom he came in contact made his friends a host, and they all feel his death very keenly. Beside his sorrowing wife six children are left to mourn.

Man Killer Acquitted.

Gouverneur, N.Y., Sept. 21.—Leon Laselle, a lumber boss, who was accused of killing Arthur Jones, a mill employee, during a quarrel in a lumber camp near Cranberry Lake, in the Adirondacks, last June, was acquitted of the charge of manslaughter. Laselle had command of about a hundred men. During a disturbance at the camp, Laselle ordered Jones to leave the place. A fight ensued in which Jones was shot. Laselle claimed he fired in self-defence.
