

Synopsis of Canadian Northwest.

Homestead Regulations.

even-numbered section of Domin-n Lands in Manitoba or the Northperson the sole head of a family, or male that offers so many unique points of He entered the ministry seventy-four ion Lands Agency or Sub-agency. Entry by in the Los Angeles Times.

eligible for homestead entry. him, not less than eighty (80) acres in ex- great Algonquin family. more than nine miles in a direct line.

MINING REGULATIONS. can be leased to one applicant. Royalty, five world-famous volume.

corder. When $500,00 has been expended or paid and other requirements complied with governor. DREDGING .- Two leases of five miles jungle of white masts, as it were feet square. Entry fee, $5.00 each of a river may be issued to one application of a term of 20 years. Rental, $10.00 bled into all conceivable masses—this a mile per annum. Royalty, 2½ per cent. as the result of a huge forest fire after the output exceeds $10,000.

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior. N.B.—Unauthorized publication of this advertisement will not be paid for.

Department of Railways street ascends in a series of zigzags. many little girls would go that friends. They have made the trip and Canals.

LACHINE CANAL. NOTICE TO DEALERS IN CEMENT. SEALED TENDERS, endorsed "Tenday, the 1st October, 1908, for the sup- St. Kitts and St. Ives did long beply of 20,000 barrels of Portland Cement fore. for the use on the Quebec Canals. Specifications and forms of tender can be procured at the office of the Superintending Engineer of the Quebec Canals, ed in cockades and silks go about No. 2 Place d'Armes Square, Montreal, through the streets, making merry unand at the office of the Chief Engineer til a late hour, when they unmask. Canals, on and after Monday the 21st | Unique among the exhibits, in the Thousand Five Hundred dollars, payable ways and Canals, shall accompany each about seventy-five degrees north, The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender. By order,

J. W. PUGSLEY. Department of Railways and Canals. Ottawa, 19th September, 1908, ment without authority from the Department will not be paid for it.

In the Matter of the Estate of James Hickey, Late of the Deceased and of Georgia, U.S.A., Barber,

Notice is hereby given pursuant to St. John's, like most of the Dutch Chap, 129, that all creditors and others cities, has a law against throwing having claims against the Estate of the pieces of paper in the streets. said James Hickey, who died on or The first land on the American side against the Estate of the said Edmund of the globe seen by ships in coming J. Hickey, who died on or about the from Europe on this passage is Belle 15th day of March, 1908, are required on or before the 1st day of October, 1908, to send by post prepaid or to delived by demons from the unearthly liver to Macdonnell & Farrell, Solicitors shricks heard there by mariners. The for the surviving executor of the last shricks, as matter of fact, result from Hickey and for the executrix of the last | the crashing and grinding of the ice will and testiment of said Edmund J. Bergs caught on the reefs there. Hickey, their names and addresses and the full particulars of their claims. And further take notice that after any of Newfoundland wear a suit th such last mentioned date the said Ex- right half of which is white, the lef ecutor and Executrix will proceed to black. The result is a most curious the said James Hickey and the said Ed- hodge-podge. mund J. Hickey respectively among the parties entitled thereto having regard only to the claims of which they shall then have notice, and they will not be liable for the said assets or any part thereof to any person of whose claim notice shall not have Origin of These Two Customs ,or been received by them at the time MACDONNELL & FARRELL,

EXAMINATIONS IN MUSIC held by McGILL UNIVERSITY. in conjunction with the ASSOCIATED BOARD. of the ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC and the ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC of London, England.

McGill Conservatorium of Music, nals of the stage was accorded to Montreal.

plication to the Secretary.

and Clergy streets, re-opens September 8th, 1908. An up-to-date School for the derstudy before him before the autraining of Girls and Children, morally, dience to share his honors has not ain't visitors, and we don't give a A huge concrete smokestack built in still remoter and less populated begins with the Primary Work and goes through all Grades to Matriculation. Those who tried the Partial Matriculation in June last, passed. All branches of English thoroughly taught. French, Cerman, Latin, Drawing, Physical Cul- of the town? vere, Needle Work, Domestic Science, etc. The Teachers at Batescourt are far the most part Queen's Graduates, or the hotel front window watching them | Dillon and Thomas Sexton to contest en. Specialists in their subjects. For further walk by, information, apply to ADA J. BATES, King street West, Kingston.

is a combination of cowardice and at 10.15 a.m. for 1,000 island ports. Cough Syrup. It cures any cough ling boat to Cape Vincent and even- tween forty and one hundred roubles. Rideau King for Ottawa every perfect person to meet at dinner or foolishness. Suits cleaned and pressed. My Valet, of Quinte.

TO BE FOUND IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

Returning Traveller Writes An Interesting Article Upon a Visit He Made Recently.

The cape almost forms the step be- leather.

living on farming land owned solely by him, out only so late as 1823, when the brated a golden wedding. not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in last Boethic, a woman, went the way The other centenarian was George the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement, of the flesh. As in Australia, the na- Keel. He had lived a harder life and a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, interest because of the work of one When he was twenty his wages were then on Thursday night at S. Jones'. stammered Delacroix, "how about nurses-in-training at Toronto hospisuch homesteader may perform his own residence and sixpence and sixpe dence duties by living with the father (or Capt. Whitbourne, mariner, who was only three shillings and sixpence a Corn is a good crop this year, but that splendid frame? I had no tal. (4) The term "vicinity" in the two pre- sent out by the British admiralty to week, and throughout his working life grain is light. Miss Ethel Reynolds re- money to frame it, and"ceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not regulate the matters among the fishing he never earned more than twelve ceived quite a bad fall, hurting her "Make your mind easy," said the putting an electric coach, capable of SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST the claim may be purchased at $1.00 an acre. The interior of Newfoundland To-PLACER MINING CLAIMS generally, 100 day is one huge burnt-over forest-a sweeping almost completely across the serve as bartenders and over the sa- ceive too harsh treatment on its re- Cedar Valley, Sept. 24.-The recent loon bar there is posted weekly a appearance to the world. But jokes frosts, intense heat and drought have land, where he served under Nelson in que, a well-to-do young farmer of list of all persons arrested for drunk- do not always improve with years, as left the cattle in need of grass and enness. No one is allowed to sell any is the case in the report of the Man- water. Thomas Ralph is still on the such person a drink for a period of chester Union. The paper first re-sick list. W. H. Pinkerton has sold two weeks, under penalty of a heavy cords the current joke.

At each "corner" or point to this ser- | way ?" pentine, there stands a church, these ranging from the great Church of England cathedral down to a simple rest mind their own business." Methodist house of worship.

On twelfth night here in the fishing villages mummers fantastically dresscolonial museum, is a piece of steel An accepted cheque for ($2,500) Two lost by the Frankland Arctic expedito the order of the Minister of Rail- tion, and refound in Greenland recently as 1903. Interesting tales of the sealing to the north are told the fishermen, particularly as to how a seal will leave a given icefioe say Actg. Secretary ... at four o'clock in the morning. The floe will be travelling south at the Newspapers inserting this advertise rate of five knots and yet the seal will return to it that same evening.

The baby seal, when born, is snowy white, iridescing to a cream, much like the icefloe on which it lives. By the City of Kingston, in the time it is three months old, however, County of Frontenac, Engineer this floe has drifted sufficiently far south to meet the warm gulf stream In the Matter of the Estate of Ed- and melt. The baby, by that time. mund J. Hickey, Late of the has learned to swim, and its color City of Augusta, in the State changes to brown, whereby it is less conspicuous in the waters of the sea and, hence, better shielded from its

Prisoners in the colonial penitenti

HISSING AND ENCORES

the Playhouse.

Hissing in playhouses had its origin Solicitors for said Executor and Exin Paris in 1680 on the occasion of the presentation of Fontenelle's tragedy "Aspar." Prior to that time suffering audiences were wont to yawn audibly and fall asleep when the apathy of the actors and performances justified that course. But on this occasion the indignant audience, de ven to desperation by the platitudes of Aspar, voiced their anger by hisses which drove the actors into temporary retirement, according to the tes-The Syllabus giving particulars of the timony of the poet Roi, who alludes preparation required for the examina-tions to be held in May next, in the to the incident in his "Brevet de la principal cities throughout Canada, is Calotte." Hissing thereafter became now ready and may be obtained on ap- fashionable. The first encore noted in the was called back so often to repeat moving their hats. his speeches that he in self-defence in subsequent ages it is known that always announced, and always remove For Girls and Children, Cor. Barrie Andropicus' plan of hailing an un- their hats." generally been adopted by Thespians. hoot about seeing you. We came in to the semblance of a tree is a novelty tricts of the empire. A letter from

Saw The Sights Of The Town. Resident-Have you seen the sights Stranger-Yes. All morning I sat in M.P., has issued a challenge to John the scene the unique design was chos- monial intermediaries bring out a

1,000 Islands-Rochester. What is sometimes called meekness | Steamer North King leaves Sunday | and at 5 p.m. for Rochester, via Bay Sold in Kingston only at Gibson's ing boat from Cape Vincent. Steam-

TWO LONG LIVERS

One Was Oldest Minister in Congregational Church. Cases of well authenticated centenarians are sufficiently uncommon to be of interest. Two such died in Eng-and recently. The first was the Rev. Thomas Lord. the oldest minister in the Congregational church. Born on April 12th, 1808, he lived under five reigning mon-"Withal that it is the world's tenth archs and had vivid recollections of west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, largest island, there is, perhaps, no joining in the celebrations after the reserved, may be homesteaded by any one little body of land in the world battle of Waterloo.

was inordinately fond of sugar.

STORY A CENTURY OLD.

Youth's Companion. Uld age should command respect ars. James Cassels . and an old joke which has remained In the taprooms of St. John women fallow for fifty years should not re-St. John's possesses as unique a via day school teacher to quite a large millionaire, and family, from old Vircrucis as any town in the world. Up girl. "You have come to Sabbath ginia, passed through here in a tourfrom a harbor, onto the heights, one school barefoot. Do you think that ing auto. They called on many on my street go that way and the Godrich, at one time belonged to the Now the above has been trotted out to Ottawa to attend Normal school. In the official spelling, St. John's in the funny column of the local James Barrington, drover, shipped a der for Cement," will be received by the has dropped its apostrophe, just as papers for several years, even being carload of cattle to Montreal, and J. claimed as a local happening in doz- Rogers a load of hides. James Ralph

> The following article was printed in Devlin, of Perth. W. A. Rogers Harper's Magazine for August, 1857 : fixing up the old park grounds for "Old Professor S. was one of the race track, Visitors: Dr. Yates, Mr. instructors of Dartmouth College Hendrie, Newark, N.J.; Charles Read, years ago, and was about as blunt North Augusta; J. Read, Smith's and straightforward a specimen of Falls; T. Barr, J. Steel, Westport; humanity as ever walked. One day Mr. and Mrs. C. Fleming, Fosterville; in the early summer he was taking Miss Healey, Lombardy; Mrs. Garvin, his usual stroll around the village, Judgeville. keeping his 'eye out' for any student who might be off duty, when he chanced to see Mr. Page, a sturdy farmer | Sharbot Lake, Sept. 25 .- A surprise of Hanover, with a load of . wood, party was held at the home of Mrs. trudging along the dusty street bare- R. Williamson, on Wednesday evening, footed and coatless.

IS A CURIOSITY.

Conway Island is Only Six Feet Above the Water.

ga group, which is less than a mile in the home of T. Erwin. circumference. The area of this latter. too, is gradually diminishing, owing to the disintegration and subsidence of rim of the basin. Then there is Beehive Island, in the an atmosphere of smoke. Rain South Pacific, which rises from the much needed throughout this part centre of a perfectly circular platform the country. Quite a number from to a height of four hundred feet, in a around here went to Inverary fair smooth dome shaped hill of polished John Ward, Mrs. W. Henderson basalt, exactly resembling a beehive. daughter, attended the Napanee Its area altogether is less than one last week. Rev. D. Jenkins has rethousand acres, Nevertheless, on the turned from spending a week at Toledge surrounding the inaccessible cen- ronto exhibition. Mrs. J. Purcell, Wintral dome are some two hundred na- nipeg, is visiting her old home, and tives who support themselves by fish- many friends in this vicinity. Miss E.

n smallness. It is only six feet above Kingston, at Mrs. Ward's. the water, and measures barely one hundred and eighty yards in one direction by about eighty in another.

Steam Pipes As Hosts.

"Huh," replied one of the men. "We ... Concrete Tree For Chimney. fix the steam pipes.

An Election Challenge.

Cork, Sept. 26.-William O'Brien, in order not to mar the beauty of peasants in the district. The matri-Cork with him on a question of the conflicting land purchase policies.

"Don't experiment." Buy Red Cross day service discontinued, also morn- age cash profit on each bride is be-Red Cross Drug Store.

WHAT WHIG CORRESPOND-ENTS TELL US.

The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario-What They Are Saying.

At Bicknell's Corners. Bicknell Corners, Sept. 25,-Linden Longmore is about renting his farm, young artist four strips of lath, or quarter section of 160 acres, more or less. interest to the traveller as does years ago, and at the time of his Application for homestead entry must be Newfoundland," a returning traveller death had preached over 10,000 sermade in person by the applicant at a Domin- remarked recently, writes relix Koch mons, continuing to preach after passing his 100th year. His first sermon Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blake- then sent to the salon. But he had on certain conditions by the father, mother. To begin with, the north-easterly was preached in 1830. He was then a ly, a son. Mr. McPherson's baby is hardly a hope that his picture would be north-easterly was preached in 1830. He was then a tending homesteader.

The mortin easterly was preached in 1830. He was then a recovering. P. Macdonald had a huskpoint of the continent is here, in the cobbler, and during the week the notes form of Cape Spear, where one is only from which his sermon was preached ing on Friday evening. I. Macdonnid had a husk on opening day Delacroix went to ing on Friday evening. I. Macdonnid had a husk on opening day Delacroix went to ing on Friday evening. I. Macdonnid had a husk on opening day Delacroix went to ing on Friday evening. I. Macdonnid had a husk on opening day Delacroix went to be said to find his proposed to the said of the said husk of t made in person. The applicant must be a matter of 1,690 miles from Ireland. had been jotted down on old pieces of Snider was visiting her grandfather, He ate meat twice a day, drank no neighbors attended the kitchen shower dence upon and cultivation of the land in Then Newfoundland is unique in that alcohol, and never smoked. He was a given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. great crowd before a picture. He drew At the Napanee council each year during the term of three years.

Then Newloundland is unique in that alcohol, and never smoked. He was a given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. near. It was his "Dante and Xirit was possessed of an extinct race of great walker. He was married three Peter Stover. They received many gil." But it was in a magnificent. perform the required residence duties by men—these, however, having passed times, and with his second wife cele- beautiful presents and all spent an en-

Crow Lake Items. (3) If the father (or mother, if the father tives here have disappeared before the is deceased) of a homesteader had permanent white men. They were a branch of the longer, dying at the age of 107.

It is deceased) of a homesteader had permanent white men. They were a branch of the longer, dying at the age of 107.

When the father (or mother, if the father tives here have disappeared before the longer amining committee. As soon as young land owned solely by the longer are all the rage. One was at George Delacroix introduced himself Gross Manual Committee. As soon as young land owned solely by the longer are all the rage. One was at George Delacroix introduced himself Gross Manual Committee. As soon as young land owned solely by the longer are all the rage. One was at George Delacroix introduced himself Gross Manual Committee. As soon as young land owned solely by the longer are all the rage. One was at George Delacroix introduced himself Gross Manual Committee. Keel was born at Manton, near Bertrim's on Monday night; next was seized his hand and congratulated him and Miss Myrtle A. Ballance, of tent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon Then, again, Newfoundland has its Marlborough, on December 16th, 1800. at S. Niddleton's, Tuesday night, with true Gallic enthusiasm. "But," Strathcona, have been accepted as population, which had increased mar- shillings a week. That working life face severely; it is healing nicely, baron. "Your lath frame fell to carrying twenty-persons, on the route velously. Whithourne wrote a book only came to an end four years ago, Quite a number from this place visited pieces but the committee was deter- between Newburgh, Napanee and entitled "Westward Ho For Avalon." when at the age of 103 he worked Parham fair. James Mahon has nearly mined that such a chef-d'oeuvre as Kingston, in the spring. ing sheep. Within a few weeks of his will give everyone plenty of work if at our own expense. No British colony was ever so death he was hale and hearty, able to rain don't come soon. Visitors: of QUARTZ .- A person eighteen years of age harshly treated as this one. In fact, eat ordinary workhouse food and to and Mrs. Charles Gilfillin and daughand over having made a discovery may locate it has only been since 1813 that any. read without spectacles, and he had ter, Miss Amy, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred-At least $100.00 must be expended on the claim each year, or paid to the mining Rewithout the specific consent of the a teetotaller, but never smoked, and Traill, of Brockville, also George Bishop of Newboro, at J. W. Knapp's: Mrs. George Bradshaw and son Arthur, and daughter, Beulah, at James Davidson's: Miss R. Gendron was the First Told By a Girl in Sunday guest of Miss N. Miller on Saturday and Sunday last. Stewart Babcock and Mrs. Ira Vealy at their sister's.

Cedar Valley News. his meat shop and business to D. E. "Why, Jennie!" exclaimed a Sun-Rogers. William Godrich, the multisince July 17th, stopping at all "Yes, ma'am. Some of the girls principal cities and towns. valley. Miss Violet Yellan has gone has gone in partnership with Sharbot Lake Notes. where a very enjoyable time was French admiral, who, foolishly but for representative gala dresses. The "'Hello, Mr. Page !' growled the spent. Miss Edythe Huffman has re- herocially obeyed the stern father's 10,000 francs which he had to pay for professor. 'I'd like to know if all the turned home, after visiting friends order, "Don't leave the vessel till I the embroidery on his coronation robe people of East Hanover go barefoot? here. Messrs. Bert and Blake are give you permission," and his "proud, he did not consider too high a price. "Part of 'em do, and the rest on spending their holidays with friends 'em mind their own business!' was in Ottawa. Miss Walroth is visiting at Verona, and Miss G. Blair at Fal- ments strewed around the sea." The startling thing is the story of brooke. Miss F. Williamson has rea little girl at Sunday school per- turned home, after an extended visit sad tale and was much moved by it. ed by pieces of cloth and the new petrating the same joke half a cen- with friends in Westport. Miss Pappa has gone to Ottawa, where she will agony to his father, he learned, but ies. The bill for his throne, however, attend normal school. Mrs. (Dr.) Kil- stood resolute by the mainmast, foots up to a pretty considerable born has returned home, after spend- though his father lay cold in death. amount, The outer drapery of purple ng a few days in Toronto. A large number from here attended Parham show fair. Visitors: Mrs. Briggs, Verona, at Mrs. H. Walroth's; Mrs. S. Warwick and Mrs. J. McConnell, Dex-That latest addition to the British ter, at Mrs. A. G. Erwin's; Mr. and Empire, Coetivy Island, in the Indian Mrs. W. Sargeant and family, of West-Ocean, is not the smallest bit of ter- port, and George Williamson, Maberly, ritory reigned over by King Edward. spent Sunday with Mrs. R. William-It is, for instance, at least ten times son; Mr. and Mrs. E. Erwin, at Mrs. as big as Pudding Island in the Ton- J. Erwin's. A little girl has come to Cushendall Tidings. the coral base on which it stands. It | Cushendall, Sept. 25.-Most of the derives its curious name from its farmers have finished threshing, cutstriking resemblance to the top half ting their corn and digging potatoes. of a pudding, the barrier reef which The numerous bush fires, which have entirely surrounds it standing for the been burning during the past two weeks, keep the people still living in Smith, Seeley's Bay, at Mrs. Hy-Conway Island is another curiosity land's; E. Cassels and A. Potter, Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. G. Franklin, in the death of their infant son, aged seven months, who died last week. The funeral took place on Wednesday, to St. James' When Commissioner Allen had cemetery. The many friends of Mrs. children of God." Coke, the great charge of the patent office in Washing- Edgar Elliott, Willetsholme, formerly jurist, lived for a year in Clifford's ton he was very punctillous about the of this place, regret to bear of her respect due him and his position, and death, which occurred on Monday, Dyer, scholar and intimate of Charles an. demanded full tribute from everybody, 21st. She leaves to mourn, besides One day, as he was sitting at his ther husband, two small children, her found and many other famous men of Livius Andronicus, a Roman actor. desk, two men came in without knock- father and one brother. A particular- his day loved to repair. He was popular with the masses and ing or announcement, and without re- ly sad thing in connection with her sudden taking away, is her husband Allen looked up and impaled the in- having gone to Manitoba, a few weeks BATESCOURT SCHOOL brought a boy to declaim for him truders with his glittering eye. "Gen- ago, and was away at the time of her while he himself applied the ges- tlemen," he said severely, "who are death. Mr. Elliott, since receiving the tures. While encores became the rage visitors to this office to see me are sad message, is now on his way home.

> sary to crect the stack among beauti- profitable "commerce in brides" which ful trees, says Popular Mechanics, and is being carried on by enterprising

> > Change Of Time.

er leaves daily 2 p.m.

A PICTURE ROMANCE.

Frame That Started Delacroix the Paris Salon.

French romantie school of art, was very poor in his youth. His first picture of note was his "Dante and Virgil," painted when he was only twenty years old. It was extremely large, People Are Doing And What containing several figures the size of life, and to buy the canvas and colors took all the money Delacroix had. A frame was out of the question, but a good natured carpenter gave the > richly-gilded frame, as fine a product of the picture mounter's art as could be found in Paris. Astonished, he sought Baron Gros., head of the ex- Second and Cayuga streets, Oswego,

AN ACTUAL FACT.

Newburyport News. Few people know that the "Boy On the Burning Deck" is not a myth, Adelaide O'Neil, youngest daughter of but an actual fact, and still fewer Mr. and Mrs. James O'Neil, Napanee. know that the man who gave the order for the flestraction of the vessel, the Roman Catholic church, Brighton whose deck the aforesaid boy side, on September 21st, when Miss stood, was born in Jamaica Plain and Rose Cardinal, eldest daughter of Mr. lived there till his royalist father, who and Mrs. Frederick Cardinal, was uniobjected strenuously to the American ted in marriage to Joseph Larocque, revolution, transplanted him to Eng- second son of the late Lazime Larocthe battle of the Nile. The boy was French, son of the ad- In an Albertan newspaper the death and Centre streets, in Jamaica Plain. Laren's Depot. The house was built in 1726 by the Royalstone, and afterward passed to the rabid royalist, Benjamin Hallowell, after whom the captain was That of Napoleon's Cost the Sum

The old man lived long enough in Jamaica Plain to make himself unpopular when the American revolution broke out. The son had been early sent to England for his education, and he became one of the seven Americanborn men to attain distinction in the British navy. In the battle of the Nile, Capt, Hal-Swiftsure, which ran down the luckless l'Orient. When Capt. Hallowell Napoleon I., who for his own wants gave the command for the French ves- was, in contrast to the spendthrift sel to be blown up he knew nothing Josephine, very economical, went, of the thirteen-year-old son of the though, to large expenses when it was though childlike, form" graced the But his embroidered frock coat that doomed vessel, when she "with frag- cost him 3.500 francs, and which be-Capt. Hallowell afterward heard the its first year, he ordered to be widen-The boy called out three times in seams to be covered with embroiderthat he had a coffin made in the boy's at 10,200 francs. The red velvet panand patron, Lord Nelson, with the the fauteuil the emperor's coat of story of the boy's bravery, and ext arms was seen in raised embroidery pressing deep regret for the young total cost, 16,200 francs. The inner cabin in remembrance of the boy, and broidered stripes for the inner trim-Capt. Hallowell himself told the tale ming cost 8,500 francs. Embroidery on to the then widely known poet, Felicia | the blue velvet fauteuil amounted to Hemans. Her sympathies were imme- 3,020 francs, the foot cushion to 1,diately excited and she immortalized 200. In addition there were 1,050 bees the boy in her sentimental but immor- on the unembroidered panels of the tal verses, and she named him wisely, baldachin at the price of 5,250 francs. "Casabianca, White Soul."

One Of London's Famous Inns.

Clifford's Inn, which is offered for sale with six hundred years of history, gives some enterprising American the opportunity of acquiring an interesting relic. Its history goes back to the days when it was granted by Edward II to Robert, Lord Clifford, who fell fighting valiantly at Bannockburn. In he following reign it was handed over to the lawyers, who or some centuries made it not a little notorious. It was in Clifford's Inn that the attorneys of the Marshalsea Court had | their chambers, which were the scene of constant "wrangling, swearing, shouting and even fighting." It was one of these wrangling attorneys whose tombstone bore the ironical inscription, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the Inn. and to the chambers of George Lamb, Scott, Southey, Coleridge, Tal-the male inhabitants of St. Peters- have so enriched our language ! burg outnumber the female by 124,-000, while an even greater dispropertion between the numbers of males and females is shown in the Russian provinces, and more especially in the Cash Profits On Bride.

Overcoats dyed or pressed. My Valet. James Swift & Co., agents. queerly simple."

Eugene Delacroix, founder of the LOCAL NOTES AND THINGS IN GENERAL.

> The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario - What People Are Doing And What They Are Saying.

Rev. Dr. Cameron, Napanee, left on Thursday for Leavenworth, Kansas. Robert Norris left Napanee for Cobalt on Tuesday last, where he has secured a position. Daniel Daverne, Adolphustown, has purchased Charles Walters' gasoline launch for his own comfort. Word was received from W. K. Henry Salusbury. Several of the painting. He was wandering discon- Pruyn, late of Napanee, on Wednessolately about, when he noticed a day. He is doing nicely and expects At the Napanee council meeting, Frank H. Perry was appointed tax col-took place on 16th inst., of their voungest daughter, Miss Bertha

An interesting event took place on September, 8th at Vernon, B.C., when two popular young townspeople were united in marriage. The contracting parties were Charles Smith and Miss A pretty wedding was solemnized in Brightside neighborhood.

miral of the French ship l'Orient, and is recorded of Mrs. George Hatt, wife that was the vessel that blew up with of the postmaster of Airdie. The sad the immortal boy standing by the event took place on August 27th. Mrs. Hatt was a young woman, The boy's unconscious destroyer, thirty years of age. She was better Capt. Benjamin Hallowell, was born known to the people of Lanark a in the old Boyleston house, still Mary McKinnon, second daughter of standing at the corner of Boylston Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McKinnon, Mc

> THE PRICE OF A THRONE. of 53,970 Francs.

Harper's Weekly. One of the oldest Paris firms for gold and silk embroideries, a house which had already served Louix XV and his court with highly artistic needlework, is still in possession of its accounts of former centuries. An inspection of these books reveals a good summary of the luxury expenditures of the French court-the Bonapartistic as well as the Legitimistic. came too tight for him not long after So much moved was the captain verver trimmed with goid lace was honor out of the floating fragments of els were strewn with inworked goiden the l'Orient and sent it to his friend bees at five francs apiece, and above drapery consisted of blue satin with Nelson had the coffin placed in the gold lace at 9,600 francs. Gold em-Altogether the price of Napoleon's throne was 53,970 francs.

His Last Question.

The counsel for the opposition had been bullying the witness for an hour or more when he finally asked: "Is it true that there are traces o nsanity in your family?"

"It would be folly to deny it," re plied the witness. "My great-grandfather, who was studying for the min istry, gave it up to become a lawyer.'

His Case.

New York Journal. Mrs. Spenders-Oh, John, I saw sign in Bargain & Co's window, today, that reminded me of what I am

Mr. Spenders (interrupting hastily) I, too, saw a sign in their window that reminded me of what I am. I read, "Reduced to forty-nine cents."

Two Styles.

Thug-I'm going to land you one in Professor-Er! How surprising it is public into her confidence about her that the clarity of expression so ne cessary to literary diction may at times be attained by the veriest pauc According to statistics just issued, ity of those descriptive elements which Fall Importations Of 1908. Prevost, Brock street, has received all fall importations for order work in his tailoring department. His ready-made clothing and gents' furnishon a French estate. It was neces- Nikolsi-Ussurisk gives particulars of a ing departments were never better as-> Foxhounds Fall Over A Cliff. London, Sept. 26 .- While endeavoring ter seeing Henry act he thought it number of marriageable girls from to dislodge a fox at Glenthorne, five was time to begin. A very few days European Russia and play the part of of the Exmoor forbounds toppled over later he astonished us with his comfather or guardian in the ensuing ne- a cliff. Four were killed outright, but plete and masterly knowledge of at

> > Monday and Thursday at 6 a.m. supper. "brilliantly entertaining and

LIMITED, TORONTO.

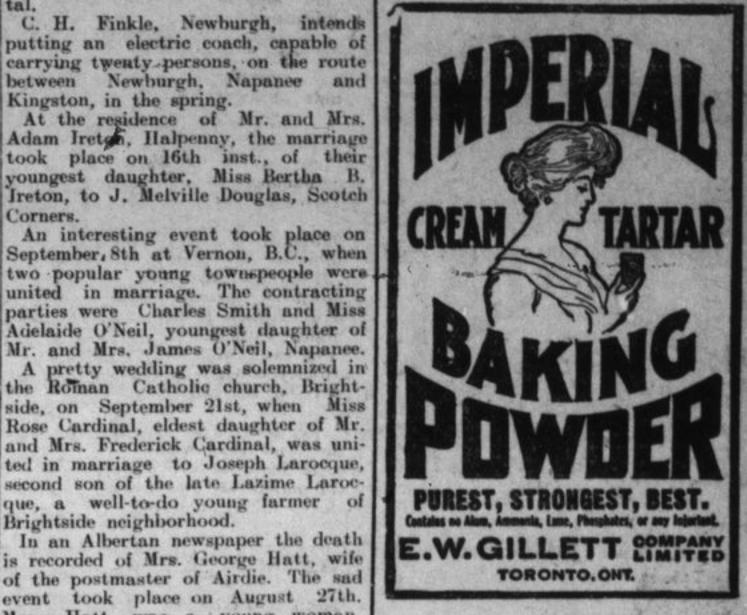

Celebrated

ndia Pale Ale

Every Cork Branded

136 & 138 Princess St.

One Child Cured of Summer Complaint and Six Cured of Cramps by Half a Bottle of DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY.

Mrs. Wm. Flewelling, Arthur, Ont., says: "I find it much pleasure to recommend Dr. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY as a grand cure for Summer Complaint. My little boy, one year old, was very bad with it, and a few doses cured him. I also used it on my other six children for cramps, and still have half the bottle left. I cannot praise it too much."

DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY is the greatest of all cures for all bowel complaints such as Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colic, Summer Complaint, etc.

Beware of imitations and substitutes sold by the unscrupulous dealer for the sake of greater profits. They are dangerous to your health.

It is manufactured by The T. Milburn Col, Limited, Toronto. Ont. See that the name appears on the wrapper. Price 35 cents.

Jewelery Repairing

We make a speciality in repairing all classes of Jewelery, Silver and Silver-Plate, and with our long experience we can accomplish the most difficult work.

If you have any article of just give us a try. Kinnear & d'Esterre

Jewelery in need of repairs,

Watchmakers and Jewellers,

100 Princess St.

Lord Randolph Now The Prodigy. Ellen Terry has been taking the

One of the best "audiences" that actor or actress could wish for was, she says, Mr. Gladstone. The G.O.M. used often to attend the Lyceum performances, occupying a little seat in the O. P. entrance. One night, Miss Terry thought he would catch cold. He was, she says, one of the most comfortable people to talk to that she has ever net. Lord Randolph Churchill was another visitor at the Lyceum, being a great admirer of Irving. He conessed to me once (Miss Terry tells). that he had never read a play of Shakespeare's in his life, but that af-Kingston and Cape Vincent, Sun- gotiations with the settlers. The aver- the fifth was only slightly injured. , least half a dozen of the plays. Miss Terry regarded Lord Randolph as a