THE SPORT REVIEW

THE CITY RUGBY TEAM GETTING TO WORK.

Senior Team Practices in the Armouries Wednesday Evening—A Big Curling Bospital to Be Held Here in January.

The Kingston yacht club football team had a fine practice at the cricket field at six o'clock this morning. Enough men were out to have an hour's good stiff work. The players are showing up well and after a few more work-outs will be in good shape.

Senior Rugby Practice.

The senior rugby team will have its first practice at the armouries on Wednesday evening. All the old players and as many new recruits as want to get out are requested to do so.

A Game of Rugby.

A very interesting game of rugby took place on the cricket field, Saturday afternoon, between two teams from the locomotive works, as they were the machine shop and moulting shop. The moulting shop men have been practising for some time past, expecting to win the championship of the works, as a league is about to be formed among the teams from the different shops, and one or two games will be played every Saturday.

A Curling Bospital.

A meeting of a committee of the Kingston Curling Club was held, last evening, to consider the question of holding a big bospital here on January 19th next. Arrangements are very likely to be made for such an affair. The visiting curlers will include clubs from the way from Pembroke to Toronto. The bospital would probably last four days.

Remaining Ball Games.

In the National league eight games in six days is what the New Yorks have before them this week—all of them with Philadelphia, and evenly divided between the two cities. They will start to-morrow with a double-header at New York, and Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Philadelphia. After this series the New Yorks have but three games, and all of them will be played on the Polo Grounds with Boston.

McNALLY'S PLATS

"You see," said the landlord, as they took a rear-view of his new flats, "we give our tenants plenty of light and air. In the two side and rear there are twice as many windows as there are in front, and the front has twice as many windows as the other side."

THE HASTILY DECAMPED

ENGLISHMAN TRICKS SOME SAXON SOLDIERS.

Pretends He is Their Colonel and Marches them Into Town—A Clever Scheme.

London, Sept. 29.—The trick of the cobbler captain of Koenig, who, in a second-hand uniform took command of a squad of German guardsmen and used them to arrest a mayor and rob a municipal treasury, was a lame affair compared to an incident described in the Times by Henry Chamberlain, a retired naval lieutenant.

General Notes on Sport.

A squabble between Gifford, captain of the Westminster lacrosse team, and Green, a Vancouver player, in the Westminster match Saturday, developed into a free-for-all fight, thirty players and officials mixing up in a general riot at Vancouver.

The British Rugbyists who are now playing in the Antipodes defeated the New South Wales fifteen in the first match played in Australia by a score of five points to none.

With a strong string of pitchers, all working at top notch form, Chicago looks the goods in the National, with Pittsburgh to beat.

TO APPEAR IN LONDON.

Musical Prodigies Charm the Kaiser.

Berlin, Sept. 29.—There is no doubt that three children named Berlinos, aged respectively, nine, five and four, are musical prodigies. The general impression of them by the Kaiser having heard of them, royal theatres have sent for them. Royal Clarence, a born democrat, gravely saluted the emperor with "Good day, dear brother," to which the emperor replied with a hearty laugh.

At Stratford, William Nichols, a young Englishman, aged twenty-one, was instantly killed in the G. T. R. shops. He was struck by a travelling crane, and his neck broken.

Forest fires completely destroyed the village of Homestead, Mich., containing the charcoal kilns and the lumber yards of Alexander Immerman & Co., of this place.
