

Five minutes looking out does all the pretty speeches, we make about styles and qualities. Our own impression is that no other store in Canada can show so varied and complete a collection of really fine furs at popular prices.

In buying ordinary Furs you run the risk of getting something decidedly inferior, that even the man who sells them knows very little about.

You are also paying the profits of the Skin Dealer, the commission man, the jobber, and the Retailer. But in buying "McKay Furs" you get the choicest selected skins direct from the Trappers and guaranteed in every respect.

BLACKMAILERS SEIZE, GAG AND BURN WITH ACID

Lone Brooklyn Widow—Two Women and a Man Inflict Unheard of Cruelty on Well-to-Do Woman.

New York, Oct. 1.—First gagged with a rag stuffed with red pepper, then stripped and her entire body rubbed with raw carbolic acid by a man and two women, Mrs. Sarah Sample, a good looking, well-to-do widow of sixty-one, living at No. 577 Franklin avenue, Brooklyn, was the victim, Sunday, of one of the most extraordinary and mysterious crimes of vengeance with which the police of Greater New York have had to deal in recent years.

In imminent danger of losing not only her eyesight, but her life as well, the detectives were halted at the outset of their investigation by the refusal of the victim to name her assailants or to prosecute them if caught, or even to submit to ambulance treatment. Instead, she summoned her own private physician and kept her own counsel.

The widow Sample has lived for the last eight months on the second floor of the flat house at No. 577 Franklin avenue. The death of her husband left her comfortably situated. She has two daughters, one of whom, Mrs. Albert Joost, she shares her apartments.

The Joosts and their children went to Greenwood to lay flowers on the grave of Mrs. Sample's dead son, Paul. While they were gone, at about four o'clock, according to Mrs. Sample, there came a knock on the door.

"Who's there?" she asked. "It's 'Jimmie,'" was the answer. At that, the widow, who was attired in a house dress, unlocked the door. According to her story, a young man and two women stood in the hall. She says she didn't know any of the party, but the police suspect she was well acquainted at least with the man who had given the name of "Jimmie."

However, that may be, Mrs. Sample says she was standing, inquiringly in her open doorway, when the man seized her and thrust her back into the flat. The two young women followed. The man held Mrs. Sample by the arms while the two women, before she realized what was happening, had pried open her mouth and crammed into it a rag stuffed with red pepper. Though suffering terribly, the widow was unable to make any outcry.

She struggled to free herself, only to find that she was being lifted bodily from the floor by her visitors. By the combined efforts of the three they managed to drag the woman to her bed in an adjoining room. The trio flung her across the bed and stripped her of every bit of her clothing. Then, while the man held her down on the bed, the women produced a large bottle of raw carbolic acid and began, with fiendish deliberation, to rub the acid over her entire body.

Starting at her head, and applying the acid with rapid, rhythmic strokes, the women rubbed her face and neck and throat, then all the front of her body; after which, unmerciful of her helpless agony, the two women, with the man's assistance, turned Mrs. Sample over, and, as if deliberately as before, rubbed the entire back part of her body, put the empty carbolic bottle on the floor and left.

Mrs. Sample, after her rescue by Policeman Donohue, who broke open the door, said she would not prosecute and did not know her visitors. Joost, the son-in-law, said he suspected a young man, a friend of Paul, in whom Mrs. Sample had been interested. Ex-Judge Finerty said the suspect had got $1,400 from the widow by promising to keep his mouth shut about her.

OUT AGAIN, IN AGAIN.

Released From Jail Last Night, in Police Calls To-Day

Edward Laurion is down on his luck. He was arrested for drunkenness, and sent to Corbett's Castle for two months. He got out last night at six o'clock, after serving his full time, and feeling very dry after his stay in the jail, he continued to load up, until he was held up by Constable Craig, and taken to the police cells. Although he was placed under arrest on a charge of drunkenness, Constable Craig is making an investigation and it may be that Laurion will have to face a charge of theft.

Refer It To The People.

If the city council has a quorum this evening it is likely that the Board of Education reduction question will be referred to the people at the January elections. All the ratepayers will then have a chance to say whether or not they want a smaller educational board.

The Assessment Figures.

Assessor Gordon's figures show the population of Kingston to be 1,000 less in the summer time than in the winter. Last February's census showed a population of 20,073. The assessment shows an increase of over $300,000.

Inland Revenue Returns

Collections at the Inland Revenue office for September: Spirits, $5,918.18; malt, $826; tobacco and cigars, $2,662.98; bonded factory (vinegar), $539.34; methylated spirits, $36.41; other receipts, $26.25. Total collections, $10,009.16.

DUTY OF THE PEOPLE.

Is to Select Hartly As Member For Kingston.

The electors of Kingston will be acting in their own interests by re-electing Mr. Hartly, whose locomotive works was the means of reviving Kingston eight years ago. Mr. Hartly has done great things for Kingston, and should receive the hearty support of the people at the polls.

The Laurier government will be supported by a large majority. The people of Kingston should, therefore, see that it has a government supporter, by electing Mr. Hartly.

The man who secured for the workmen the full dinner pail is the man who should be honored with the award which should be bestowed. The workmen, no doubt, realize this, and will support Mr. Hartly.

The locomotive works can be strengthened by having Mr. Hartly at Ottawa in close touch with the government. Hence it's the duty of Kingston to re-elect its present member.

The largest employer of labor in Kingston has a claim upon the citizens for hearty support when he is willing to represent the city at Ottawa.

Electors, make a note of this: The Laurier government will be returned. Laurier will sweep the country, and McGillivray in Ontario. Therefore, elect his friend, Mr. Hartly.

Why should Kingston want a change of government at Ottawa? It has been splendidly treated by the Laurier administration, and Mr. Hartly has had the pull in getting many of the good things.

"Three Little Maids."

TAKES BRIDE AT FIVE O'CLOCK IN MORNING.

Miss Alma Ferris Married to Earle Curry, C.E., of Windsor.—The Happy Pair Gone to Nova Scotia For Honeymoon.

There was a very pretty wedding, on Thursday morning, in Queen Street Methodist church, both Rev. W. H. Sparling and Miss Louise Singleton being there, the one to perform the ceremony, the other to play joyous wedding music. The marriage, which was that of Miss Alma Ferris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. H. Ferris, Queen street, and Harry Earle Curry, C.E., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Curry, of Windsor, N.S., was a very quickly arranged matter at the last, the groom having arrived in town but six days ago, on a month's leave, bent on persuading his bride to return east with him. There were no invited guests, but after the ceremony all those who had braved the early hour of five o'clock to see their friends united, were asked down to Mrs. Ferris' home for an informal and impromptu breakfast. Among those present were some of Mr. Curry's classmates, notably the groomsmen, Herbert Starr, of Toronto, and C. F. Constantine and H. Lawson, of Gananoque.

The bride, who wore a tailored suit of navy blue rajah silk, with a hint of a green blouse under the coat, hat of French grey felt, with green veils, and white feather boa, was given away by her father. Her bridesmaid, Miss Mary Ferris, was in green striped cloth, with green velvet hat, and carried pink carnations. The bride's bouquet was of white roses.

Mr. Curry is on the G.T.P. survey, and will probably return to the same place where he has been working after he and his bride have spent a honeymoon with Mr. Curry's people, in Windsor, N.S., for which place they left on the R. & O. Navigation company's boat.

Both bride and groom and bridesmaid, with an excellent ex-cathed wedding guests were at the dance at the Royal Military College, last night. Mr. and Mrs. Curry are very popular.

COUNTY COURT CASES

To Be Heard By Judge Madden Next Tuesday.

The following is the docket of civil causes entered for trial at the non-jury sittings of the county court of Frontenac, to be held on Tuesday, the 6th of October, before Judge Madden: Robert Crozier vs. Robert Vanluven. The plaintiff's claim is for trespass to the south-west part of the west half of lot six, in the first concession of the township of Kingston, and for an injunction to prevent the defendant from trespassing thereon and cutting trees and bushes thereon and for damages. J. L. Whitton, K.C., for plaintiff; A. B. Cunningham, for the defendant.

Brantford Carriage Co., Ltd. vs. Walter B. Lemmon. The plaintiff's claim is for $200; the value of three rigs, with property of the plaintiff, wrongfully converted by the defendant to his own use. A. B. Cunningham for plaintiff; T. J. Rigney for defendant.

Selby & Youlden, Ltd. vs. Mica and Mica Production company Ltd. The plaintiff's claim is for $109.53 for work done on boat. A. B. Cunningham for plaintiff; Benton & Macdonnell, Toronto, for defendants.

The Albert Vineberg Fur company vs. R. G. Armstrong. The plaintiff's claim is for $179 for goods sold and delivered. A. B. Cunningham for plaintiff; T. J. Rigney, for defendant.

FRONTENAC CHEESE BOARD.

The bidding opened at 12c., and the sales were made as follows: At 12-3-16c., Joseph Creamer secured Arigan, Cataragi, Glenvale and Collins' Bay; at 12-1-5c., Mr. Alexander bought Elm Grove, Glenburnie, Gilt Edge, Latimer, Morning Star, Pine Hill, Thousand Islands and McGrath's; at the same price Mr. Murphy secured Ontario, Pine Hill, Wolfe Island and Sunbury. The remaining factories refused to sell.

ONE PUPIL AT SCHOOL

In a Section in Washington State.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 1.—Johnny Jergenson, eleven years of age, probably occupies the most peculiar position of any pupil under the public school system of the United States. He is the only child of school age in the district near Kettle Falls, Ferry county, Wash., and has a teacher all to himself. The instructor is 'M. R. Honeyman, formerly of Spokane, who took charge of the school early this month. There were three pupils at the beginning of the term, soon after which the parents of two of them moved out of the district, taking their children with them. The district is regularly organized and has a school board, with chairman, secretary and treasurer. It also has ample funds to its credit, and in addition to this the state makes an appropriation of seven cents a school day in the year for each pupil. This is the highest appropriation of any state in the union.

A funeral service for Delorma L. Marshall, whose death occurred Saturday, was held at Syracuse, N.Y., in his home. Mr. Marshall was born at Elizabethtown, Ont., in 1826 and in 1847 married Sarah Cleveland, who died ten years ago. He at one time lived in Kingston.

At Madoc 400 boxes of cheese were sold at 12c.
