GOOD GROWING WEATHER.

When the New Scalp Antiseptic is Used.

A good head of hair is as much a "crown of glory" for man as it is for woman, notwithstanding all the poetry on the subject applied to the female sex exclusively. In the season when flies bite, the bald-headed man can sympathize with the Egyptians who were so sorely plagued on account of the children of Israel. Why not try Newbro's Herpicide? Others have benefited and are loud in its praise. It cleanses the scalp, kills the germ at the root of the hair and by keeping the scalp sweet pure and wholesome, the hair is bound to grow as nature intended, regardless of the temperature. Try it and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. W. Mahood, special agent.

PETITION OFFENSIVE AND THE CITY COUNCIL TOOK NO ACTION.

The End, For the Present at Least, of the Effort to Have School Board Reduced—Interesting Discussion on the Question.

(Continued from Page 1.) tion, which said that the administration of the schools was inefficient. It was very bad taste for any Queen's University teacher to sign such a petition in view of what the board had done in regard to the pedagogy department. Dr. Richardson said that many men who signed the petition mustn't have read it. One of the signers told him he thought it was for the purpose of getting the fifth class back in the schools.

Politics Would Result. R. Meek, another city council appointee of the Board of Education, said that the petition was one that no member of the board itself or any teacher in Queen's university should sign. The board should be censured by any member of Queen's university. There was nothing in the petition to show that the board was in any way inefficient or wanting.

Mr. Meek said that some years ago there was a clamor for the reduction of county councils to twelve members, who were expected to do the business more efficiently. Then the clamor grew for another change, and the old order of things was re-instated, evidently showing that in a multitude there was wisdom. Speaking of small commissions for the control of public utilities Mr. Meek referred to a few men who feared that a few men could not be secured who would be proof against the wiles of contractors and against graft. In a larger body there was greater safety. As to the benefits that would accrue from having trustees elected by the people Mr. Meek said that Toronto had a board elected by the people as a whole and there wasn't peace and harmony in it. If one wanted to see discord and good hot language just let him read the Toronto papers after the Board of Education met up there. The election of trustees by the whole people might introduce politics, and that was not a condition to be invited.

Mr. Meek claimed he had done nothing to dishonor the council or himself on the board, and, therefore, did not deserve to be referred to in such a way as the petition had done. He looked upon the petition with contempt. If the time ever came, however, when politics got into the little red school house board he would leave the board in honor to the citizens and in honor to himself.

W. H. Medley said it was nonsense to say that so many intelligent and influential people would sign a petition and not know what they were signing. The petition was signed by a great many people, the law was clear on the matter, and, therefore, the duty of the council was plain. Edward Bennett, another Board of Education member, said he would like to hear some reason for the petition saying that the work of the Board of Education was inefficient. He asked Mr. Medley and Prof. Macgillivray how many signers of the petition had asked to have their names removed. Mr. Medley said that five had asked that their names be taken off. Mr. Bennett claimed that if the board was elected by the whole people a representative board would not be secured. Nine of one profession might be elected. The ward system, he claimed, was the most representative.

Discussion By Council.

Ald. Givens said he was impressed with the fact that there was some lack of harmony in the board. The petition should have been presented to the city solicitor for his advice as to what power the council had to make changes in the board. Those in favor of the petition, he thought, should have given some definite reasons for the need of a change in the board. However, he thought that in view of the fact that so many responsible men had signed the petition it should not be thrown out. He, therefore, moved, seconded by Ald. Graham, that the question of reducing the number of school trustees be referred for a vote of the people at the January elections.

Ald. Henderson said that a petition signed by so many well-known citizens deserved the consideration of council. He took exception to the wording of the petition. The board was practically charged with being inefficient. The supporters of the petition had not proven the statements in the preamble. Ald. Henderson considered the petition an insult to the board, as grave accusations had been made against its members. In view of the ill-advised wording he thought that no action should be taken.

The following amendment was moved by Ald. Nickle and seconded by Ald. Craig:

"No Action" Amendment.

"That without expressing any opinion on the merits of the scheme outlined by the petition, on the reduction in membership of the Board of Education and the election by the city at large, this council feels that present action would be inadvisable in view of the preamble of the petition and the lack of opportunity of public discussion."

Ald. Nickle said that the preamble reflected on the men who had spoken in opposition to the petition. In view of this he wouldn't be dissatisfied if from the object aimed at. If the petitioners wanted a reduction in the Board of Education let them come before council with a bald request and without a preamble containing reflections on the board.

THE SPORT REVIEW

LOCOS WON THE ROLLER HOCKEY MATCH.

Defeated Y.M.C.A. By 3 to 0—Senior O.R.F.U. Team to Have Its First Field Practice This Afternoon.

At the roller rink, on Thursday evening, the Canadian Locomotive company's seven won another roller hockey game from the Y.M.C.A. The game was a good exhibition, and was witnessed by a large number of people. The Locos won by 3 goals to 0, all the scoring being done in the first half. The teams lined up as follows: C.L.C. (3)—O'Brien, goal; Lemmon, point; Hyland, cover; Ryan, rover; Little, centre; Parkins, right wing; Grattan, left wing.

The game was fast in the first half, the C.L.C. forwards were hard drilling in their opponents' defence. Three times during the half they succeeded in finding the net. Ryan secured the first goal, Grattan landed next and Little the third. In the second half, no goals were scored by either side.

The C.L.C. has an evenly-balanced team, players who understand the game and may go through the series without a defeat. The defence worked like clockwork, not one man being able to bore through and find the net. Gus O'Brien was on guard and nothing entered.

Lacrosse Club Meeting.

The last meeting of the Kingston Lacrosse Club was held on Thursday evening, in the Y.M.C.A. building. The main thing considered was the renting of the city hall for election night. A fine programme of sports, consisting of boxing, wrestling, fencing and other sports, will be put on during the waits between returns.

Queen's Practice.

Queen's had a rattling good practice on Thursday afternoon on the campus. The men were all out and Crothers, Walsh and Richardson were out to give them a hand on the line. The boys are making rapid strides now, and by a week from to-day should be able to trim the head of any intercollegiate team in the union.

The Senior City Team.

The senior O.R.F.U. team will practice, at four thirty this afternoon, in the cricket field. All the old players were to be out, and a fine practice was looked forward to. One word of surprise at the players as the club has got out. It has a team that should hold its own in any league. The boys are beginning to take an interest in it now, and are all anxious to get out.

Association Football.

A general meeting of the Wanderers' Association Football Club was held on Wednesday evening. The secretary, Mr. McLeod, tendered his resignation, which was very reluctantly accepted. The club is sorry to lose Mr. McLeod's services, but has no alternative. Mr. McLeod's resignation was accepted with regret. The new secretary is R. C. Watts, 40 Lower Union street.

DOOR WAS FOUND OPEN.

But No Trace Could Be Found of Burglars.

There was great excitement for a few minutes yesterday morning, at a boarding house on Union street, when the front door was found wide open, the first thing in the morning. Having read of the many burglaries during the past few days, it was at first believed that the house had been entered and each and everyone made search to see if their valuables were safe. When they found that nothing had been disturbed, everyone breathed somewhat easier, but the open door could not be accounted for.

"It wasn't me, I was in early, and in fact I never leave the door open," remarked one boarder, and every member of the household had a similar story to tell.

At any rate, it is quite evident that some one did forget to lock the door. It was indeed very lucky that a sneak thief did not pass along that way.

Re-opening Service.

St. Paul's church will be reopened on Sunday, and harvest thanksgiving services held. Holy communion, 8 a.m.; morning prayer, 11, preacher, Dean Farthing; evening prayer, 7 o'clock, preacher, Rev. W. F. Fitzgibbon, vicar.

Case Was Enlarged.

The case of Nash Bros. vs. the Thousand Island Steamboat company, on the docket at the court in Watertown, has been enlarged until December. The court closed its business today.

AT THE GRAND.

Will Be a Saturday Matinee and Night.

All special scenery and mechanical effects, including the famous New York harbor, with a full view of the great Brooklyn bridge, are carried by the "A Pair of Country Riders" company, at the Grand on Saturday, October 3rd, matinee and night. The play is on the order of "Way Down East," and is now in its fourth year of success. It's worth your while to take advantage of this opportunity, and do not make a mistake, but see the great play.

English Musical Comedy.

The "Three Little Maids," the English musical comedy which is to occupy the stage at the Grand on Wednesday, October 7th, is delightfully fragrant, fresh and as welcome as a breeze from the spacious furze-covered hillsides which form so beautiful a setting for its first act. Not for many years has so satisfying an entertainment been imported from the mother country. The home of all genuine musical comedy.

"The Gay Musician."

Amelia Stone, the dainty prima donna, who will be heard in "Julian Edwards," new comic opera, "The Gay Musician," which commences at the Grand on Thursday, October 8th, has a number of songs in the opera that will surely become immensely popular in this city. In New York, where "The Gay Musician" ran for one hundred nights at Wallack's theatre, this summer, Miss Stone captivated the town by her artistic rendition of "A Cup of Tea" and "My Dashing Soldier Boy."

AT THE GRAND.

"The Tyranny of Tears" Was Well Presented Last Night.

"The Tyranny of Tears" was presented at the Grand last night, by Robert Ganthony and his company and was most delightful, appearing to please almost everybody, judging by the little ripples of laughter, and the warm applause which broke forth from time to time. The comedy is of the best and in such able hands proved a fine treat. Robert Ganthony appeared as Mr. Parbury, who suffered from the tyranny of tears, and portrayed the part exceedingly well. Miss Ella Cross undertook the role of Mrs. Parbury, responsible for all the tears, and was very good. The story is centered around the home of Mr. Parbury, who is a noted author, and follows up some of their domestic troubles. Trouble starts when Mrs. Parbury catches Miss Woodward, her husband's private secretary, giving the photograph of her husband a motherly kiss. Just a little kiss, but it caused a great commotion and a lot of trouble, in which Mr. Gunning, an old college chum of Parbury's, figured, as he was visiting at the house at the time. Mrs. Parbury's father, Col. Armitage, also had his share before things were put to right. But of course it all ended well. After the tears there was happiness, both for Mr. and Mrs. Parbury and for Mr. Gunning and Miss Woodward, because they had become engaged. Miss Hazel Stanmore was most charming, as the private secretary, and Julian Banks, as Col. Armitage, did ample justice to his part.
