KINGSTON TEMPLARS.
Three of the Officers Have Been Elected.

Mr. Eagleson, G.C.T., and a party of the members of the newly-formed Hope of Kingston lodge, drove to Elginburg on Wednesday evening to pay a visit to the King Edward lodge. Representatives were also present from the Queen Alexandra lodge, located at Latimer. Bright and interesting five-minute speeches and good singing were the features of the evening, and the visitors were entertained to a good substantial supper by the local members before leaving for home. It is to be hoped that the exchanging of such visits will be a prominent feature in local Good Templary.

It should be added to the report of the organization meeting, published on Wednesday, that in order to facilitate the final arrangements three of the officers were elected as follows: Lodge deputy, G.C.T., H. F. Norman, 23 Earl street; chief templar, H. P. Brown, Nelson street; secretary, Alfred J. Keel, 219 University avenue.

Any person wishing for any information about the lodge or order will be gladly supplied on application to any of the above named.

CAUGHT IN SHAFTING.
John Litton, Victim of Serious Accident.

John Litton, a machinist employed at the locomotive works, and living at 316 Earl street, met with a serious accident, at the works at 1.30 o'clock, on Friday afternoon. He is now in the General Hospital, in a very dangerous condition.

Litton was engaged in oiling the machinery, when his clothing caught in a revolving shaft, and he had four ribs broken, and in addition suffered several severe bruises on the left arm. He was rescued by some of his fellow workmen as soon as possible, and a hurried call was sent for Corbett's ambulance and the injured man was removed to the General Hospital, where he was attended by Dr. Bogart. Mr. Litton is about sixty-five years of age, and owing to his advanced age, it will probably go very hard with him, although hopes are entertained for his recovery.

At the hospital at three o'clock, the patient was reported to be doing as well as could be expected.

"After dinner mints," put up in tin boxes, are sold at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store, Phone 230.

POLICE MADE ROUND-UP

SEVERAL BEFORE COURT FOR VAGRANCY.

Went to Sleep in a Barn, and Were Disturbed By Constables—Several Fines Were Imposed.

The police made a big round-up on Thursday night, and as a result eight offenders faced the magistrate, in the police court, this morning. Drunkenness and vagrancy were the charges. The arrests were made by Constables Bateson, Arniel, Craig, Mullinger, Davies and McAdoo.

Daniel L. Sullivan, no relation to the famous John L. Sullivan, although he looked as if he could go a few rounds, was the first to make his bow.

"I guess I am guilty," he said, when told he was charged with vagrancy. "I went into a barn and was only there a short time, when a constable got me. I have been working."

The magistrate then gave Sullivan a little surprise, by announcing that he was also charged with being drunk while on the "Indian" list, and that there was an old commitment for a similar charge, which had not been settled. A fine of $20 and costs was imposed, and the vagrancy charge was allowed to stand over.

George Conway said that he lived out near the Five-mile house, and just came into town to stay over night. He was remanded until Monday on the vagrancy charge.

The reason that David Partell gave for sleeping in a barn was that he had been out to the outer junction very late, and as the cars were not running, he thought that a bed in the hay would be all right. So when he passed a barn near the quarry, he went to the hay loft and was soon sound asleep. He was disturbed a short time afterwards by Constables Bateson and Arniel, and taken to the lock-up. A fine of $2 and costs, or fifteen days was the penalty, the magistrate remarking that his little story about the late hour and the street cars was a very lame one.

"I came from Montreal," said Cornelius Moughan, an "alco vag." Cornelius struck town two weeks ago, and from his appearance one would be led to believe that he had not washed his face for twice that length of time. He was given a chance to pay a fine of $5, or to go to jail for a month and get bread up.

George McKenzie admitted being a vagrant, and had no story to tell. He was assessed $5 and costs, or one month.

Alfred Marsh claimed Toronto as his home, but he had spent a great deal of time in Kingston. He, too, was found asleep in a barn. He was remanded until Monday.

Edward Lauzon, arrested yesterday, on a charge of stealing F. A. Conway's overcoat, and also on a charge of drunkenness, was remanded a day. A first-appearance drunk was fined $1 and costs.

The case of the four employees of the K. & P. railway charged with tearing down John Tweedell's boat house, was further enlarged until November 2nd.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dutton, Barrie Street.

On Tuesday evening, September 29th, a pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dutton, Barrie street. The event was the celebration of their thirtieth wedding anniversary. The outside of the house was hung with Japanese lanterns, while the inside was elaborately decorated with carnations, white asters and ferns. In the dining-room was a beautiful bride's cake, and beside it the groom's cake, bearing the date of the wedding day and that of the thirtieth anniversary. Early in the evening the bride's cake was passed with glasses of orange punch and a toast to the "bride" was proposed. The "groom," in a few well-chosen words, responded to the toast, after which several of the gentlemen present were called on to address the company. Music was provided by Salisbury's orchestra. Mr. McAuley also delighted the guests with his selections on the piano. Treats of various kinds were brought around from time to time and the evening passed only too quickly. Dancing was indulged in and at midnight a sumptuous supper was served in the dining-room, after which the young people returned to the dancing hall, where they enjoyed themselves until the wee sma' hours. The many beautiful and useful gifts testify to the esteem in which the host and hostess are held. They are to be congratulated on their successful married life, and also to be complimented on the manner in which they entertained their guests.

Twas A Great Success.

At the regular meeting of the Trades and Labor council, held on Thursday night, a report was received from the various committees having in charge the Labor Day celebration, and the most encouraging announcement was made that the sum of two hundred dollars had been realized. This is far better than the celebration held a year ago, but not quite as good as that of two years ago. Other routine business was disposed of. The president, William Driscoll, was in the chair.

Out Of The Game.

"Jack" Williams, captain of Ottawa's Big Four league team, has not turned out to practice yet, according to the Ottawa papers, and the people are beginning to be a little bit worried. "Jack" says himself he is out of the game for good and will not play again. His final decision is awaited with interest by the Ottawa sporting people and it will be of interest to Kingstonians.

Paid For His Drink.

The young man, Sullivan, who was fined in the police court for a breach of the liquor act, is one of the number who secured liquor at a drug store on Sunday by fake orders. The other offenders have not yet been served as they are out of the city.
