SOUGHT FOR A PLACE

ON THE INDIAN LIST OF INSPECTOR WRIGHT.

A Young Man Appeared at the Big Chief's Office and Made the Request—He Was Accommodated.

"I'm not a heavy drinker by any means, I was never before the police court for drunkenness, but I want to be placed on the 'Indian' list."

Inspector Wright is a busy man with the "Indians," and some of his friends have already commenced to call him "chief." He was very much surprised when a young man called at his office and made the foregoing statement. The request was granted. It would appear as if the "Indian" list in Kingston was a great drawing card so many have volunteered to be placed upon it.

The young man further explained to the inspector his reason for wanting to go on the list. He said that often when he was under the influence of liquor he abused his best friends, people who always treated him the best, and he wanted to cut this out. He believed that the only way to do this was to be an "Indian," and thus his action.

A CATARAQUI WEDDING.

Miss Nellie Guess Became Wife of Walter Cook.

There was a quiet wedding on Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock, when Miss Nellie Guess, daughter of Thomas Guess, of the vicinity of Catarqui, was married, at her father's home, to Walter Cook, son of Jacob Cooke, of Catarqui. Rev. R. Stillwell performed the ceremony, and there were no attendants.

The bride wore a brown cloth suit with blouse of cream lace, and a smart brown hat, trimmed with green and brown wings. The ceremony took place under an arch of mountain ash leaves and scarlet berries, mingled with evergreens and begonias. Miss Cooke, aunt of the groom, played the wedding march.

The popular bride was tendered a china shower at the parsonage, last evening, many beautiful presents being given her, and a very pleasant evening enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Cooke will take up residence at Catarqui, on their return from New York.

THE PRICE TOO LARGE

And the City Buildings Dome Will Be Wood.

The city property committee was called to meet at three o'clock, this afternoon, to again consider the city buildings dome reconstruction. City Engineer Craig has received a price for the construction of a steel dome from a Montreal firm, but it is higher than anticipated, and the committee will, therefore, go ahead with the construction of a wooden dome. It is possible that work will be begun next week. It is to be hoped so anyway. The question now to be settled is whether the construction shall be by contract or day labor. If by the latter, the city engineer would not have time to supervise the work, as he has enough street work to look after to keep him busy. And yet it is proposed to relieve the architect.

FORWARDED HIS REPORT.

Inspector on Fire Protection at City Hotels.

License Inspector Wright has completed his report regarding fire protection and fire escapes at the different city hotels, and has forwarded the same to the provincial government. It will be remembered that the inspector was asked for the report, after the big hotel fire at Tilsonburg, Ont., some time ago, when several persons lost their lives, through lack of proper fire escapes, etc.

When asked concerning Kingston's position, Mr. Wright said that on the whole all the hotels were well provided for. He had a few recommendations to make, and when these improvements were made, the hotels would be well cared for in this respect.

PICKED UP ON A RAFT.

Man, With Dead Body As Companion, Rescued.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 6.—A message received here by the collector of the port states that the Belgian steamer "Vilis" arrived at Port Arthur, Texas, to-day, and reported picking up on sea a raft having on board Alexander Sjoihm, sole survivor of the crew of the American schooner McCabe, and one dead body. Sjoihm reported that his companion had died from exhaustion and starvation.

Court Is Over.

The regular non-jury sitting of the county court opened this afternoon at 1.30 o'clock before Judge Madden. Four cases were disposed of before court adjourned. Three were settled before court, and in the other, the Brantford carriage company was allowed $200 and costs against W. P. Lemmon.

CUP AND SOUVENIRS

Presented to 'Champion Locomotive Works' Players.

Last evening in the offices of the locomotive works, the championship cup presented by James Baker to the 'City Baseball League,' was handed over to the players. In presenting the cup to Dr. J. J. Harty, the president of the club, Bernard Tierney, the secretary-treasurer, made a very eloquent address, which was followed by a few appropriate words from Dr. Harty when handing the cup over to the captain, John Burke. This occasion was also taken advantage of to present the members of the winning team with suitable souvenirs, for their having landed the championship. These took the form of a gold diamond-studded watch charm, on the front of which were engraved the initials of the player, and on the reverse side, "C. L. C. Baseball, 1908."

Refreshments, cigars and soft drinks were then served, after which a splendid programme was put on of songs, recitations and dances. The new Athletic Association formed in connection with the works, is now in a flourishing condition, and it is the intention to take a more active interest in all kinds of sport than has been done previously.

DR. A. R. B. WILLIAMSON, M.A.

The new secretary of Queen's Medical Faculty, also holds a degree in jurisprudence.

After Tom Daly.

Edmonton Bulletin.

T. Mayne Daly, former minister of the interior, said in effect the other day that the immigrants coming to Canada were lunatics and criminals.

Mr. Daly's characterization was certainly criminal and before the campaign is over he will be pretty well convinced that it was lunatic also.

Meanwhile it is due to Mr. Daly to say that criminal lunatic immigrants did not come to Canada when he directed his immigration policies nor those who were neither criminal nor lunatic, either. In those days the procession of Canadian-born boys and girls pouring out of the country effectually cured any wild notions outsiders might have had of coming to try and live in it.

Local Rugby Outlook.

From present appearances the senior rugby football team will fall through, but the impetus to contend in a little work, and no one seems to know anything about the team. Numerous practices have been called but the players have not turned out very well, only one or two players being out in uniform. The junior team, from the Kingston Yacht club, are showing up well and from present appearances will land well near the top of the ladder. Crawford, Donnelly, Moxley and other well-known players will likely be in line. The team is at work every day and is showing fine form. Their first game will be played shortly, with either Gananoque juniors or Brockville.

Piano Announcement.

The Nordheimer Piano Co., Ltd., of Toronto, would like all to know that their pianos can be seen at Kirkpatrick's art rooms, 159 Princess street. At present their representative, Mr. Addison A. Pegg is in the city, and would be pleased to meet any intending purchaser. A slightly used piano is offered at a reduction.

Mr. Borden has not yet fired Fosters and the Montreal Star is surprised. The party ship cannot make speed unless relieved of its barnacles.

For the hair, Colgate's Pure Tar soap. Sold in Kingston at Gibson's Red Cross drug store.

WORKING FOR HARTY

LIBERAL ROOMS THROGGLED NIGHTLY.

The Citizens Seem Anxious That Harty Shall Be Returned—The Rooms Are Constantly Throggled.

Mr. Harty's committee rooms at the corner of Princess and Wellington streets, continue to be a nightly centre of attraction. Young men and men of all ages and walks of life gather there in throngs, and go over the voting lists. All are willing to send their aid in behalf of Mr. Harty and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. On the corner of the building a large sign with the word "Harty" in electric bulbs has been erected, while over the Princess street entrance the magic name "Laurier" is spelled out by similar electric bulbs. All workers of Mr. Harty are invited to pay the rooms frequent visits, and do their share, be it little or great.

LOOK, ELECTORS, LOOK!

Contrast Canada of 1908 With It in 1896.

The conservatives tell us it is time for change. Why should there be a change?

Contrast the Canada of to-day with the Canada of 1896, and the justification for the vast expenditures of the twelve-year period is at once obvious.

Look at the status of the dominion among the nations.

Look at the development of transportation by land and water.

Look at the enormous expansion of home and foreign trade.

Look at the magnificent development of the west.

Look at the influx of settlers.

Look at the growth of our cities and towns.

Look at the equipment of our harbors.

Look at the lighting and buoying of the coasts.

Look at the enlargement of the provincial boundaries.

Look at the creation of two new provinces.

Look at the marvellous prosperity of the manufacturing industries.

Look at the betterment of the working man.

Look at the demand for farm products.

Look at the extension of railway lines.

Look at the building of the National Transcontinental railway from ocean to ocean.

Look at the completed surveys of the Georgian Bay canal.

Look at the extension of the Intercolonial to Montreal.

Look at the equipment of the People's Road with additional stock.

Look at the construction of new stations, new sidings, new mechanical shops and large terminals.

Look at the improvement of the militia.

Look at the assumption of the maintenance of the garrisons at Halifax and Esquimaux.

Look at the establishment of a chain of cold storage depots.

Look at the enlargement of the postal service.

Look at the inauguration of free rural mail delivery.

Look at the establishment of the railway commission.

Look at the projection of the railway to Hudson Bay.

Look at the proposition for the All-Red line.

Look at the increase in bank deposits.

Look at the public buildings which dot the country from end to end.

Look at the development of our coal mines.

Look at the erection of mighty steel plants at Sydney and the "Soo."

Look at the busy factories, handsome buildings and comfortable homes throughout the length and breadth of the land.

Look at the thousand and one monuments of progressive and business-like administration, and the results produced by the expenditure incurred by the government are apparent to every intelligent person.

And then say why there should be a change.

The Quebec Bridge.

Mr. Borden, the conservative chief, had the impudence to contend in a public meeting, "that the accident to the Quebec bridge would not have happened under a conservative government." If this ridiculous claim, which is profoundly unjust, has deceived a few it has at least excited scorn in others. When Mr. Borden made that statement he descended to the rank of the tory candidate in Nicolet, who claimed last year that the catastrophe was "the punishment of Providence for the failings of the liberals." After that, then can one only let the curtain fall.

Did Good Things.

Montreal Witness.

The government has certainly done some good things. It is rightly proud of its first work, the preferential tariff. It was looked on as a beginning in reducing protective burdens. That promise might now very well be carried to performance by further reduction. The department of agriculture has done splendid work for the farmers. The postal service has been greatly improved in some respects. The marine department has improved the St. Lawrence channel, and in the latest years has done well in the Montreal harbor.

Going To National Convention.

At the meeting of the National Council of Women in Ottawa, on October 27th, the Kingston delegates will be: Mrs. Henry Skinner, Mrs. Adam Shortt, Mrs. Simon Oberlander and Miss Maehar.
