STANDS BY KINGSTON.

Senator Sullivan, in his letter to the Whig, has vividly presented cogent reasons why Kingstonians, irrespective of politics, should honor Hon. William Hartly by returning him to parliament. It would be "the vilest ingratitude," says the senator, to do otherwise. Every man, interested in the city's welfare, says the same thing, and this is why so many citizens will not look at the issue from the point of party politics. Senator Sullivan is to be commended for his loyalty to Kingston, for it requires great strength of will to set aside the call of partyism, but he has honored himself by declaring that he is behind "the benefactor of Kingston." His sketch of the great works Mr. Hartly has done for the city is a masterpiece of characteristic writing. Kingston, by sending Mr. Hartly back to the House of Commons, will continue to get the favors which Hon. Dr. Sullivan says he is an adept at obtaining. Laurier is sure of being returned to power, and the locomotive works, with 1,300 workmen, will add greatly to the city's hum.

AVERY FOR FRONTENAC.

The county of Frontenac has now one of the most interesting political fights of which there is a record. The contest lies between two men, who have large followings and two whose appeals to the people will be answered for different reasons. Mr. Avery has been the member, and, following Mr. Calvin, offered the party nomination and accepted it. The indemnity was small when he became a member of parliament, and it is safe to assume that in going to Ottawa as the representative of the people Mr. Avery made many personal sacrifices.

It has been charged that during his absence an opponent within his party canvassed for the nomination. There could be no objection to that. The political ambition, of no man can be restricted or restrained. It was the privilege of Dr. Edwards to plead his cause and the right of the elector, or delegate to the political convention, to promise or decline his support. Certain it is that at the convention the doctor had a majority, and Mr. Avery had reason to feel that he had been shabbily treated. One term in parliament, the dutiful servant of the people, and then pushed aside, just when membership of the house had been made worth while!

Since the convention Mr. Avery has held his counsel. He has also met and discussed the situation with many electors. These have been conservatives and liberals, and he has been encouraged to run again as an independent. He has been warned, too, that there may be three candidates, and that in that event it would with him be a case of retire or suffer defeat. But there will not be any opposition to him except from Dr. Edwards. The liberals will not butt into this most interesting contest, in a constituency so largely conservative, but they will give their support to the candidate who is most likely to advance useful legislation.

Mr. Avery has only the public interests to serve by going to parliament. He is in easy circumstances, is identified with the interests of the people in the county, and has every reason to expect, with the support of the independent vote of both parties, to be elected on the 26th.

A GRAND RECORD.

The meeting in the interest of Hon. William Hartly was a substantial tribute to his citizenship and popularity and an evidence of the close attention the people are giving to politics. That the vast bulk of the audience held their seats till long after eleven o'clock, is also evidence that the speaker and the orator are not necessary to hold a liberal crowd, and might with safety be abandoned by the conservative managers.

Hon. W. S. Fielding increased his reputation for fairness, logic and clear presentation of facts, added to the graces of the gentleman. Hon. Charles Murphy did the government credit in his first speech as a minister of the crown, and has won his way early into the good opinions of all classes. The excellent address of Dr. Richardson won him a warm welcome again to the activities of politics. Mr. Hartly was in uncommonly good form, and gave his followers fresh courage and hope, for he bids fair to be their useful member for many years.

Grand was the record presented by Mr. Laurier's conferees. No country was ever more blessed, speaking proportionately, than Canada has been under twelve years of liberal rule: Increase of $111,000,000 in trade and commerce, an average of $31,000,000 a year under liberals; conservative increase previously, $3,500,000 per year. Increase of population, 150,000 per year, compared with 50,000. Conservatives increased public debt an average of $9,500,000 for eighteen years. The liberal average of increase was $1,600,000 per year only. Leaving railway projection out, the liberals made an actual reduction of $54,000,000, yet the tax per head of the people has fallen from $18.27 in 1898, under conservatives, to $16.26 under liberals.

There has been prosperity as well as progress, since farmers are paying off their mortgages as never before.

In 1896, under conservatives, the immigration reached 16,000 persons. Last year the number was 264,000, equivalent to two provinces like Prince Edward Island. Under Laurier, 1,350,000 have come.

The liberals have effected general reduction of postage which their predecessors declared they could not afford—3c. to 2c. for Canada, 5c. to 2c. for Great Britain and the colonies, almost universal postage as far as Canadian interests are concerned. The conservative shortage of $700,000 in 1896 has been turned into a liberal surplus of over $1,000,000, with vast increased facilities and splendid development.

The conservatives gave 32,000,000 acres to railways, equal at the lowest current cash value to $320,000,000. The liberals have not given an acre.

The influx of 450,000 from the United States was attended by an accession of over $400,000,000, put into lands, mines, etc., a sum exceeding all debts of the dominion and the provinces.

Already 660 miles of the Grand Transcontinental railway west from Winnipeg are open, and villages have sprung up upon what a year ago was prairie.

No charge has been made on the floor of parliament against a cabinet minister, for there it would be challenged and repelled. The platform of the conservatives reeks with charges they dare not put to the test. The officials found erring were those continued in office from conservative days.

Of course the Transcontinental line cost more than estimated, for wages, rails, locomotives, timber, ties, everything used in construction has risen in price, a grand effect of a great prosperity.

While the conservatives are a party of talk, the liberals have been a party of action—witness the British preferential tariff, which brought in its train great honor, liberty in treaties and preference in the minds and hearts of the people of a vast empire.

Best of all, Sir Wilfrid has united all classes and races for the peace and upbuilding of Canada. It is a fiction to say he ruled through a French majority. Exclusive of Quebec members he has eighty-six followers to sixty-three conservatives, so that he rules by twenty-three of a majority outside of Quebec. Another fiction is that Ontario is very conservative. At last dominion election the popular vote was: Conservative, 233,000; Liberal, 230,000.

Borden Has No Hope.

Saturday Night.

I do not believe that Mr. Borden ever entertained the idea, from the first moment of his entry on the conservative leadership, that he could possibly reach office until Sir Wilfrid Laurier had run his course. Nor would it be strange if he harbors the expectation that when he does finally reach office—say five years hence—he may count upon ruling the country for the balance of his days.

Doctor Claims a Cure For Locomotor Ataxia.

New York, Oct. 7.—Dr. Le Grand Norton Denlow's announcement that he had been successful in curing absolutely the supposedly incurable disease locomotor ataxia, set the medical world abuzz with interest as well as scepticism.

Dr. M. Allen Starr, professor of nervous diseases in the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and one of the most celebrated specialists in this country, should acknowledge Dr. Denlow's success in eight pronounced cases sent for test from the clinic of Vanderbilt Hospital, tempered to a great degree the incredulity with which medical profession looks upon any new "cure."

A LACK OF SYSTEM.

Had Led to Many High Prices Being Exact.

New York, Oct. 7.—Testimony of waste in the purchase of supplies by reason of a lack of system, was supplemented by stories of phenomenal overcharging of the city at the session, yesterday, of the legislative committee looking into New York's financial affairs. It was pointed out that the city has had to pay from 208 to 1,200 per cent. more than private concerns for the same class of goods, and a number of instances were cited by witnesses in which different prices were paid for the same article at the same time by different departments.

Cholera Epidemic Decreases.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 7.—The cholera in St. Petersburg continues to decrease rapidly. For the twenty-four hours, ended at noon, yesterday, there were 111 cases and 58 deaths in the municipal hospital, while there had been ten cases and two deaths in the hospital of the palace at Catchina, the residence of the empress dowager. The empress dowager is now in Denmark.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Harty helps Kingston. Kingston will help Harty. Fair treatment, eh!

The present government is one of wise and business-like administration, which aims at the development of the country. Will the voter take any chances upon killing it?

To-day, under an able, progressive government, peace reigns, commerce is expanding, agriculture flourishes, and the exodus is from, not to, the United States.

The Standard would have saved space if it had addressed a tory hand book to Hon. W. S. Fielding and asked him to answer it. But Mr. Fielding had weightier matters to consider and left the scandal ununsatisfied.

Hon. Mr. Fielding made the statement, in connection with charges of graft against the civil service, that practically every official under suspicion had been appointed by the conservatives previous to 1896.

Finance Minister Fielding says that Sir Wilfrid Laurier's personality is a great asset. The poet has phrased the same sentiment: "His strength was as the strength of ten because his heart was pure."

Kingston workmen need no reminders of the benefits which liberal rule has conferred upon them. They know that the number of hands employed in our shops has greatly increased and the amount of wages gone up finely. Contrast this with 1896.

The Standard cannot guarantee work from a conservative government for the locomotive works. The Whig can, on behalf of the Laurier government. The electors will take the sure thing, especially as there is no possibility of Laurier's defeat. The election of Harty will ensure work from the liberal government.

THE HALLS OF QUEEN'S

GAELIC HOPES RUN HIGH FOR VICTORY

Over Ottawa College on Saturday—Great Interest in Soccer—The Annual Games Take Place This Afternoon.

Special Correspondence.

A slight flurry of excitement was caused on Monday morning when the first freshman demonstration took place. Quick with vitality and eager for a fray, they lined up in challenge to their sophomore brethren when the latter should emerge from their "math" class. The latter, however, were wary and taken at a disadvantage did not take up the challenge. Opinion is divided as to what the second "spasm" may be, but it is thought that the sophomores are merely reserving fire until a more opportune occasion.

The annual games are being held, to-day, at the athletic grounds. Entries were received until yesterday afternoon. Contrary to the usual custom, the university classes were not suspended this morning.

The rugby leaders, having heard of the rumored stiff proposition which awaits them, when they go up against Ottawa College on Saturday, "are not saying anything." There is no doubt that the longer period enjoyed by the wearers of the "garnet and gray" will be decidedly to their advantage. Yet in the short time that the Queen's players have been together, a marked improvement is noticeable in their ranks. They are already showing the results of steady discipline and coaching. Capt. Turner, too, has the full confidence of his men and hope runs high for victory when he marshals his men on "Varsity oval."

Entries for the annual tennis tournament closed, yesterday, and the Tennis Club executive met last night to draw up a schedule. The events will be ladies' singles, ladies doubles, men's singles, men's doubles and mixed doubles. An endeavor will be made to complete the tournament while the fine weather lasts. The courts are in the best of condition, owing to the wise provision of the executive that they be open for play only between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Murdoch Matheson, B.A., '07, who has been in the Canadian North-West during the past year and a half, has returned to college.

Interest in soccer was never stronger than now, judging from the large number of players who are turning out on the lower campus. The secretary, P. T. Pilkey, has worked indefatigably to get both the new men and the former players out. The result is sufficient and promising material for two strong teams. Among the freshmen there is some good material. Unfortunately, Mr. Ramsay, last year's stalwart half-back, is suffering from an injured knee, and will not be able to play. J. L. Nicol, full-back, has not yet returned.

The freshmen year in medicine organized on Monday and elected officers as follows: Honorary president, Dr. Richardson; president, W. A. Kennedy, B.A.; vice-president, N. W. Connolly; secretary, G. E. Meldrum, B.A.; historian, G. W. Burton; prophet, C. R. Graham, B.A.; poet, A. A. Halliday; orator, C. F. Williams; marshal, E. G. Springer.

The Financial Record.

Toronto Star.

It would be idle to pretend that there has been absolutely no waste or loss in all this spending. There is not a private business, spending $100,000 a year, in which some leakage does not occur. But, taking it all in all, and looking at the magnificent results obtained in increased trade, added population, and a better equipped and more extended public service generally, the financial record of the government is such as to commend the administration to all progressive citizens.

The Money Secured From Standard Oil Company.

New York, Oct. 7.—Judge Alton B. Parker, New York, speaking of President Roosevelt's condemnation of Governor Haskell's connection with the Standard Oil company, says the president probably forgot that his own committee in 1904 received $100,000 from the same company. It might, the judge continued, be true that the president had ordered Mr. Cortelyou to return the money. It was equally true, however, that Mr. Cortelyou had not returned the money, and that he had not been punished by the president for not doing so, but had been rewarded by being made postmaster-general and secretary of the treasury.
