THE SPORT REVIEW

QUEEN'S TEAMS HAVE A FINAL PRACTICE.

Both Feel Confident of Winning—First Hockey Meeting To-Night—Queen's Organizing Marathon Team—Other Sporting Gossip.

Queen's senior and intermediate rugby teams had their final practice at the athletic grounds, on Thursday evening, before their games on Saturday. Both teams are in better condition than the college teams have been in for some seasons.

The young soldiers of Navy Bay have put in a hard week's work, and from reports, are in fine trim for their battle on Saturday that will decide whether they are in the running for championship honors or not.

Soccer Game In Morning. The association football game will be played on Queen's lower campus, on Saturday morning, at ten o'clock.

New Marathon Team. Notices have been posted in all Queen's buildings, requesting all who are interested in long-distance or cross-country running, to report at the gymnasium every day at four o'clock, for a workout.

Collegiate Rugby Team. The collegiate team had a good practice on their own grounds on Thursday afternoon. This little team is improving every day, under the careful guidance of Messrs. Hatch and Sliter.

Junior School Teams. St. Mary's school has a husky bunch of players and in any match yet played they have given a good account of themselves.

Local Notes On Sports. Varsity rugby and soccer teams will arrive here at 7:45 o'clock, this evening, and a large number of rooters are coming down with them, to help them in the fight.

At the end of the day "You can shoot SOVEREIGN shells all day and at the end not realize that you have been shooting."

For all makes of arms. Costs one-third to one-fifth less than duty paying ammunition. Our guarantee covers every cartridge.

George Taylor will have to loop-the-loop to win in South Leeds this time. "Laurier, Hart and Continued Prosperity" is the battle cry of the liberals.

Hockey Meeting Called. The first hockey meeting of the season of Queen's Club will be held, this evening when important business will be transacted.

K.Y.C. Team Practice. The Yacht Club team had a full workout at signal practice at the rmouries on Thursday evening.

Queen's III Still Improve. "Curly" Campbell had his squad of pets out again on Thursday, putting them through their paces and some of them received good turns at that.

Young Runners Out. On Thursday morning at seven o'clock the athletic grounds were the scene of some good running by young aids.

Queen's Track Team. Queen's track team left on Thursday at noon for Montreal, the men all being in fine condition.
